

Four Local Firemen Attend Short Course Conducted At Wilson

Four Chowan County firemen attended a fire fighting short course which was held in Wilson Friday and Saturday, July 27 and 28. The course was presented by the Eastern Carolina Firemen's Association and Rescue College in cooperation with the Wilson Industrial Education Center and the City of Wilson Fire Department.

Those attending from Chowan County were Troy Toppin, G. C. Beamon and Fred White, Jr., of the Center Hill-Cross Roads Fire Department and Fire Chief W. J. Yates of the Edenton Fire Department.

Instructors in the course were: Calvin Beck of the Cary Fire Department, Jimmie Davis of the Wilson Fire Department, Buddy Hall of the Wallace Fire Department, Elwood Inscow of the N. C. Department of Insurance, George Kimberlin of the Statesville Fire Department, J. A. Letzing of the Durham Fire Department, David Lee of the N. C. Department of Insurance, Sherman Pickard of the N. C. Department of Insurance, Bertram Smith of Camp Lejeune Fire Department and Clay Walker of the Alamance Fire Department.

The course included practically all phases of fire fighting and proved to be a great help to the local firemen in promoting greater progress and efficiency in firemanship training.

Local 4-H Delegates Make Good Showing

Continued from Page 1. Section 1. The state contest will be submitted for competition to select a state winner who will receive an expense paid trip to National 4-H Congress in Chicago this fall.

Lester Ray won an expense paid trip to State 4-H Club Week as district winner in the poultry barbecue demonstration contest and was awarded a $50 savings bond for winning the state contest. These awards were given by the Sears-Robuck Foundation, sponsors of the district and state poultry barbecue demonstration contests.

Judy Evans represented Chowan County in a special recreation class conducted by Miss Huldah Lineberry with the North Carolina Recreation Commission. As county winners, Judy Evans and Johnny Winborne represented Chowan County in the state health pageant on Thursday night. Johnny Winborne also served on the "Clover Leaf" staff, a daily publication put out by 4-H Club members during 4-H Club Week.

State officers were elected Friday afternoon. Lean Evans cast Chowan County's five electoral votes. Wilson W. Lowery, Jones County, was elected State 4-H Club president and Nancy Coles Basnight, Dare County, was elected State 4-H Club secretary. Both of these outstanding 4-H'ers are from the Eastern District.

Also attending 4-H Club Week as delegates from Chowan County were Richard White and Gene Harrell. The group was accompanied by Miss Pauline Calloway, home economics agent, and Harry Venters, assistant agricultural agent.
