

AROUND THE FARMS IN CHOWAN COUNTY

By C. W. OVERMAN, Chowan County Agent

Your Extension Program: If make your decisions for you. You are now coming to the close of the year 1962. Why not look back and evaluate programs activities, practices employed in production and marketing, family cooperation, community cooperation, your Sunday School and church, other organizations very useful in your community and any other elements that have affected your way of life this year. Consider these carefully and ask yourselves this question, "If every other member in my community was like me, how would my community be? If every farmer and homemaker in my community and my county paid attention to and assisted with the County Extension program like me, what kind of Extension program would it be?" These are rather silly questions, aren't they? But, if we will think about the serious aspect of them, the silliness is removed. As you look back and survey or evaluate 1962 you can also make plans for 1963. Your County Extension workers are now in the process of planning with you your Extension program for 1963. What can we help you do to improve your family income? What can we do to help you improve the home and surroundings? What can we do to help you improve the youth activities for better youth development? What can we do to help you make your community more attractive and a better place in which to live? What can we do to stimulate greater interest in Sunday School, church, PTA and other organizations so important to your family and community?

I hope that every person who reads this column will give serious consideration to the questions listed above. After careful consideration, contact your County Extension workers, individually or in groups, and let them know what you would like to do and how they can help you. Not only are your Extension workers anxious to help you, but also the vocational and home economics teachers in your schools, your Soil Conservation Service personnel, your ASCS personnel, your FHA personnel and any other agencies working in your county. Let's plan a better trip for 1963 than we have had in 1962, use the road signs of improved ways along the way and I believe we will come near to reaching the destination we set out for.

County 4-H Achievement Program November 15: The Chowan County 4-H Achievement Day program will be held Thursday night, November 15, at the Ryland Community Building at 7 o'clock. At this event we will observe some of the important achievements of 4-H Club members during 1962. Achievement Awards will be presented, and though I do not have a program at hand, there will no doubt be entertainment. It matters little whether there are children in a family or not. We have a responsibility to the youth who will follow us in a few short years. The better this youth is developed, the more they will be enabled to do as good, and we hope an even better, job than we have done.

May I urge you to "get out of your shell" on the night of November 15 and attend this very important 4-H event, showing our youth that we are interested in them, that we believe in them, and that we are backing them up. As a result you will be happier yourself and you will certainly strengthen the youth.
