20 Years Ago

As Found In The Files Of
The Chowan Herald

In an Associated Press story sent from Washington, D. C., Leslie Carroll Alexander, 17, a second class seaman, was among 10 seamen to receive a letter of commendation for outstanding performance of duty during enemy attacks.

In a radio broadcast Food Administrator Claude Wickard and Elmer Davis, director of War Information, announced a ration scheme would go into effect early in February which would affect all kinds of canned goods, dried and frozen fruits and vegetables.

Hardly without exception, Edenton merchants reported the most generous Christmas business in their careers.

In the neighborhood of 25 needy families were made happy on Christmas when they were presented baskets of groceries and fruits by the Edenton Lions Club.

Another fatal accident occurred near Edenton when Paul E. Seal-ard of Norfolk was killed in an automobile accident on the Windsor highway.

Ralph Parrish, owner and operator of the local Western Auto Store, left Edenton for Williamsburg, Va., to accept a position as office manager for the Boney Construction Company.

S. C. Mills was installed as master of Unanimity Lodge No.
7, A. F. & A. M., to succeed
L. E. Francis.

Postmaster C. E. Kramer reported that the year's Christmas business was by far the largest ever experienced in the local post office.

Chowan and Perquimans county citizens owning land in the Bear Swamp section were notified that drainage of the area was postponed due to the war emergency.

Aces Suffer Two Setbacks During Holiday Tourney

Winning Ways Terminated By Gates and Knapp High Schools
Over Holidays

By KEN D. HOPKINS
The John A. Holmes High Aces suffered their first defeat of the season to the Knapp Knights in the third annual Knapp Holiday Festival Classic by a slim margin of 52-49. The Aces saw their winning streak snapped at five straight.

Leading 21-17 at intermission, the Aces' potent offense spluttered along with some silly mistakes in the final half. Knapp, like a good team will, took advantage of this and went on to win a real thriller.

The Aces' biggest weakness was at the foul line, where they beat themselves. They shot a very ridiculous 20.8 percent, making 5 out of 24 attempts.

The Aces' big gun of the night was 6-7 Jay Ross. Ross pumped in 27 points, high for the night, shot a remarkable 52% and cleared the boards for 19 rebounds. He led the Aces in all these departments. Incidentally, Ross' 27 points was high for the entire classic.

Bill Ervin was runner-up to Ross in scoring and rebounding.
He collected 10 points and hauled in 13 rebounds.

Knapp was led by sixth man Sandy Sanderson who scored 19 points. Lucien Griffin, probable best performer in the classic, had 11 as did Dave Gregory, Clark Hampton, 5-3, best small man around, tallied 8 to his credit.

The Aces were defeated for the second straight time in the tournament, losing to consolidated Gates County by a score of 53-45. It was the Aces' second defeat after racking up five consecutive victories.

The Aces beat themselves again. They scored only four points in the first quarter and it took them over three minutes to get a shot away. They were throwing bad passes, walking with the ball, and in the lane too long. After that hectic first quarter they settled down a little but trailed at half time.

Again the Aces were poor at the foul line. Tossing in 7 out of 21 tries for a 33.3%. Here is one of the biggest reasons for the second straight night they whipped themselves. In this Knapp Classic they have made a total of 12 out of 45 attempts for a dismal 26.6%.

Melvin Barnett, Jay Ross and Bill Bootwright bucketed 10 apiece to pace the loser' attack.
Dickey Cobb had 8 to his credit.
Ross grabbed 13 rebounds and shot a 66.3 from the floor. He led the Aces in all these departments for the entire event. Bill Ervin was runner-up to Ross in rebounding, battling for 11.

Big 6-7 Elmer Hobbs stuffed the nets for 26 points, collecting 14 in the third frame to lead the way for his team. Carl Taylor was runner-up with 10 and Richard Hoffer had 6.

The Aces will be trying to get back in the win column when they again face the strong Gates County school at home January 4 in a conference battle.
