

EdentonBPW Club Names Mrs. Bertha B. Bunch As '62 'Woman Of The Year'

Glowing Tribute Paid To Honoree By Mrs. Lena Leary, District Director

Coming as a complete surprise, Mrs. Bertha Bunch was named "Woman of the Year" at the Edenton Business & Professional Women's Club annual "Bosses Night" banquet held in the Masonic Temple Thursday night. The announcement came as a climax to the banquet, when Mrs. Lena Leary, District 10 director, presented quite a lengthy biography which, until almost the very end, kept guests, as well as Mrs. Bunch, in the dark as to who the person would be.

Mrs. Leary traced the life of Mrs. Bunch from her infancy up until she became the first woman to hold an elective office in Chowan County, which inference enabled many in the audience to know who would be named. Mrs. Leary paid glowing tribute to Mrs. Bunch in her local activities and a homemaker, as well as her efficiency and genial manner in which she discharges her many duties as Register of Deeds of Chowan County.

Mrs. Bunch was more or less nonplussed as she was asked to come to the front to receive a beautiful bouquet of red roses. About the only words she was able to say was that she was

Leo Katskaveck Now Heads Varsity Club

The club decided to again sponsor the Varsity Club's sports awards banquet, but no definite date was set for the affair which honors athletes at John A. Holmes High School.

Edenton's Varsity Club at a recent meeting elected officers for the new year, when Leo Katskaveck was elected, president. He succeeds George Lewis. Other officers elected included A. B. Harless, Jr., vice president; Tom Bass, secretary, and Jerry McGee, treasurer.

BANK CLOSED TO OBSERVE WASHINGTON'S BIRTHDAY

The Peoples Bank & Trust Company, as well as the Consumer Credit Branch, will be closed all day Friday, February 22. The day will be observed as a holiday to celebrate the birthday of George Washington.

Winners Announced In Art Show Sponsored By Local Club

The annual Woman's Club Art Show was held Tuesday night at 8 o'clock in the auditorium of the Edenton Elementary School in conjunction with the February meeting of the P.T.A.

Mrs. Harry Venters, art instructor, gave an interesting program on growth of art through the schools.

After a two-day showing at the school, some of the winning art work will be displayed in store windows.

Winners received: Blue ribbon, first place; red, second; yellow, third, and honorable mention.

Winners in this year's show are:

Delaney Jethro, first; Miriam

World Day Of Prayer Will Be Observed At St. Paul's Ma...

Women From Various Churches Will Participate In Service At 4 P. M.

World Day of Prayer for all churchwomen in Edenton will be observed with special services at St. Paul's Episcopal Church Friday afternoon, March 1, at 4 o'clock.

Women leaders of all Edenton churches are urged to communicate with either Mrs. Alice Malone, telephone 2163 or the Rev. George Holmes, telephone 3522.

This ecumenical expression in which all churchwomen should participate is to be observed on a world-wide basis. Women from the various local churches will have parts in the service.

Evans On Five More Committees

Clifton Blue, speaker of the House of Representatives, last week named 10 more committees. Of the 10 committees named, B. W. Evans, Chowan County's Representative, was appointed on five. His appointments included the Highway Safety Committee, Roads Committee, Conservation and Development Committee, Library Committee and Wildlife Resources Committee.

Members Of Band At All-State Clinic

Seven members of the John A. Holmes High School Band attended the All State Band Clinic, Eastern Division, at East Carolina College on February 8 and 9. The clinic is an annual affair sponsored by the North Carolina Bandmasters Association.

Representing Edenton in this clinic were Ronnie Sawyer, baritone horn; Ronnie Rountree, trombone; Mac Privott, trombone; Tommy Leary, cornet; Larry Privott, cornet; Charles Wood, Jr., sousaphone, and Jerry Yarborough, French horn.

The clinic bandsmen rehearsed for two days, Friday and Saturday.

Mission Study At Macedonia Church

A Mission Study will be held at the Macedonia Baptist Church Monday and Tuesday nights, February 25 and 26. The meetings will begin at 7:30 o'clock, when the home mission book, "The Chains Are Strong", will be studied. The book will be taught by the pastor, the Rev. Gordon Shaw.

In connection with the study, a very interesting film "Under Shadows of Steel" will be shown.

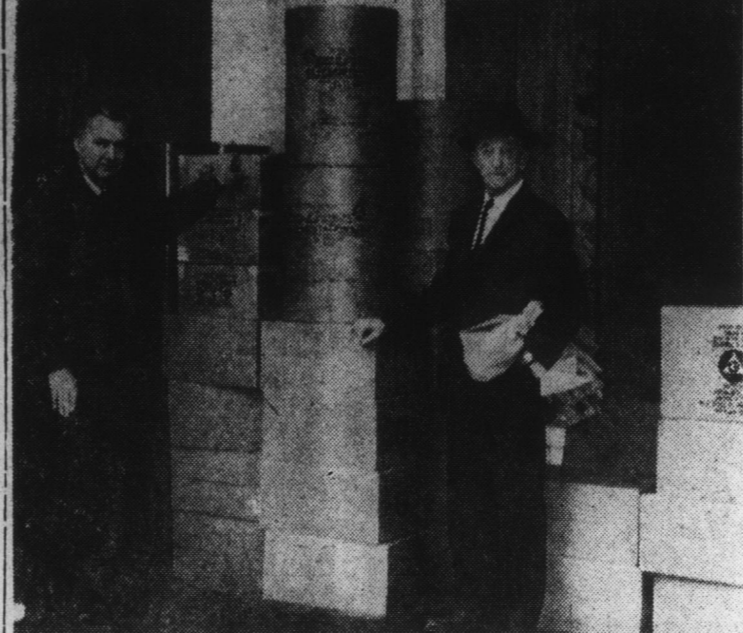

Stabbing Fatal To Local Colored Man

Lee Dunlow, Jr., 31-year-old colored man died Tuesday night as the result of being stabbed in the heart.

Charged with the murder is Lee Dunlow, Jr., 33-year-old white man, who was arrested following the stabbing and is now confined in the Chowan County jail.

According to Edenton police, Dunlow and a group of young colored men were riding in his car and after all but Raynor left the car, an argument ensued which resulted in the stabbing. The police say Dunlow shoved Raynor out of his car near the

Shelter Stocking Under Way In Edenton

In photo W. E. Bond, chairman of Chowan County Commissioners and Murray O. Ashley, Chowan-Edenton Civil Defense director, are shown in the basement of the Edenton Post Office checking supplies for shelters meeting requirements as public fall-out shelters in this area. These supplies, which include radiological instruments, medical kits, sanitation kits, water containers and food stocks, were received February 5 and have been placed in public shelters.—(Photo by Ricks).

Heart Council Organized In Chowan County To Help Year Round Heart Work

Various Officers and Chairmen Are Announced To Cover All Of County

Completion of a Heart Council for Chowan County has been announced by Dr. Ed Bond, president of the Council. It is part of the North Carolina and American Heart Associations, according to Dr. Bond.

Members of the Council are Dr. David Wright, who will serve as medical representative in supplying scientific publications and information to physicians, nurses, and members of other health professions who

Hiram Mayo Attends Meeting Of Educators

Hiram Mayo, superintendent of Edenton schools, returned Wednesday from Atlantic City, N. J., where he attended the annual meeting of the American Association of School Administrators.

Mr. Mayo left Friday for Atlantic City and was accompanied by Dr. William Wagoner, superintendent of Washington schools; Dr. Ben Fountain, superintendent of Elizabeth City schools, and S. D. O'Neal, superintendent of Plymouth schools.

Edenton BPW Club's Woman Of The Year

Pictured above is Mrs. Bertha Bunch, who was named "Woman of the Year" at the Edenton Business and Professional Women's Club annual Bosses' Night banquet held Thursday night at the Masonic Temple. The beautiful bouquet of red roses was presented by Mrs. Lena Leary, District 10 director, who paid a glowing tribute to Mrs. Bunch in recognition of the honor bestowed upon her.—(Ricks Photo).

March 15 Deadline To Release Cotton Allotments For 1963

Allotment Will Be Reduced Unless 75 Per Cent of Acreage Is Planted

Chowan County farmers are reminded that Friday, March 15, is the deadline for them to release cotton acreage in order to protect their cotton acreage history.

Attention is called to the fact that if a farmer fails to plant at least 75 per cent of his 1963 allotment, his cotton allotment will be reduced in 1964. A farmer who plants at least 75 per cent of his cotton this year need take no action to preserve his allotment base.

The released allotment will be apportioned by the County Committee for use by other farmers.

Edenton Employment Office Is Giving Aid In Job Placements

The Edenton office of the State Employment Security Commission has begun an effort to aid placement of top level administrative and management personnel as well as laborers and clerical employees through a monthly listing to select employers in the Edenton area.

Office Manager William A. Hollar reports that he has furnished names and addresses of several top executives in the area to the ESC central office to begin receiving a monthly bulletin, "Top-Flight Personnel", which will be mailed to key executives in various industries.

Edenton Bandsters Attend Duke Clinic

Five band members from John A. Holmes High School attended a band clinic at Duke University on February 12. The clinic was sponsored by the Duke University Music Department and the Minneapolis Symphony Orchestra. Holmes band members attending this clinic were Sanfra Ange, flutist; Nellie Wood, flutist; Carmen Goodwin, flutist; Johnny Floars, clarinetist, and Jimmy Jones, French horn.

This clinic consisted of lectures and demonstrations on all instruments of the orchestra by members of the Minneapolis Symphony. The bandsmen attended these lectures from 9:30 A. M. until 5:00 P. M. Between lectures they visited the Duke Chapel, and other points of interest on the University campus.

In the evening a concert was presented by the Minneapolis Symphony and attended by all band members.

Methodist Men's Club Will Meet Tonight

The Methodist Men's Club will meet tonight (Thursday) at 6:30 o'clock at the church. Nathan Owens, president of the club, announces that a country style steak dinner will be served by members of the Woman's Society of Christian Service. He also states that very important business is to be transacted, so that every member of the club is especially urged to attend.

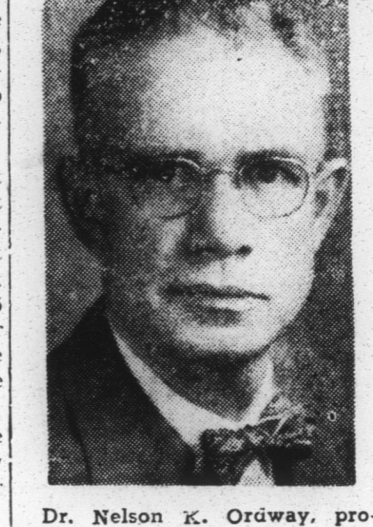

Laymen Of St. Paul's Plan Pancake Supper

The laymen of St. Paul's Episcopal Church will stage a pancake supper Shrove Tuesday, February 26, in the Parish House. This event will begin at 7 P. M., with Ernest Kehayes as chairman.

Special music and slides of the parish and vicinity have been arranged.

James H. Griffin Secured As New Chief Of Police For Edenton Police Dept.

Edenton Speaker

Dr. Nelson K. Ordway, professor of pediatrics, Yale University School of Medicine, will speak at the University of North Carolina School of Medicine's postgraduate course at the Edenton Restaurant Wednesday afternoon and night.

Succeeds George Dail; Plans To Begin New Duties In Edenton on March 1

Mayor John Mitchener announced this week the appointment of a chief of police for Edenton in the person of James H. Griffin of Kinston. Mr. Griffin was appointed to fill the vacancy caused by the retirement of former Chief of Police George I. Dail. Leo LaVoie has been acting as chief of police since Mr. Dail's retirement and will continue with the Police Department as assistant chief.

Mr. Griffin, who is 31 years old, has been a police officer in Kinston for 10 years and has had training under one of the most efficient chiefs of police in the state. He is highly recommended by the Kinston chief of police, law enforcement officers and prominent citizens of Kinston. He is a native of Onslow County and served in the U. S. Army. He has attended many police schools, including schools sponsored by the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

The new chief is expected to begin his new duties in Edenton on March 1. He is a Baptist, married and is the father of four children. He is hopeful of securing living quarters so that he will be able to move his family to Edenton when he reports for duty.

C. Of C. Members Hear Encouraging Chairmen Reports

At the membership meeting of the Edenton Chamber of Commerce held in the Court House Tuesday night very encouraging reports were presented by James Robinson, executive vice president and chairmen of various committees.

At the outset President George A. Byrum called upon Mr. Robinson for a report. Mr. Robinson prefaced his report by pointing out the purpose and functions of Chamber of Commerce and the importance of efficient managers and secretarial staff.

He then rehearsed what has been done in the past 4 1/2

Group Of Committees Reflect Activity During Post 4 1/2 Month Period

County And City Offices Closed On February 22

County and city offices will be closed all day Friday, February 22. The closing is due to the observance of George Washington's birthday. The offices will be open as usual Saturday morning.

Music Workshop Scheduled At Rocky Hock Church Feb. 26th

Dr. Arnold Hoffman of the North Carolina Department of Public Instruction, will conduct a music workshop at Rocky Hock Baptist Church on Tuesday, February 26. Dr. Hoffman is a noted musician in North Carolina and works very closely with the Home Demonstration music program in the state.

Attending the workshop will be representatives from counties in the 25th Federated District of Home Demonstration Clubs. These include, Gates, Perquimans, Pasquotank, Camden, Curri-

Clothing Leaders Meet February 27

"Pressing Equipment" will be the subject for training clothing leaders in each of the local Home Demonstration Clubs at a meeting in the office of Mrs. Pauline Calloway, home economics extension agent, Wednesday morning, February 27, at 10 o'clock.

The type of pressing equipment needed for various types of fabric and the use of these along with general pressing equipment will be demonstrated.

Hopkins '63 Official Of Ford Truck Club

Tom Hopkins of the Albemarle Motor Company has been elected vice president of Carolina-Tidewater Ford Truck Club for the year 1963. The club is an organization of Ford sales leaders in the Carolina-Tidewater area and was organized in 1956.

The club meets monthly and has been very active in improvements and changes of Ford trucks.

Other 1963 officers are: Don Burton, Bruce Flournoy Ford, Norfolk, Va., president; Ronnie Pope, Center Ford, Newport News, Va., secretary; H. C. Winder, Town & Country Ford, Elizabeth City, treasurer; and Jack Clark, Kinnach Ford, Norfolk, Va., chairman of the board of directors.

World Day of Prayer will be observed at St. Paul's Episcopal Church Friday afternoon, March 1, at 4 o'clock.

Dr. R. M. Helms, prominent physicist of East Carolina College, will be at John A. Holmes High School Friday, February 21. Continued on Page 8—Section 1

CIVIC CALENDAR

World Day of Prayer will be observed at St. Paul's Episcopal Church Friday afternoon, March 1, at 4 o'clock.

Rosevear To Attend West Pointer Dinner

The Annual West Point Founder's Day Dinner for alumni of the United States Military Academy will be held at the Fort Monroe Officers Open Mess on Saturday, March 23, Colonel J. H. Wohner, dinner committee chairman, announced.

The dinner, to be hosted by Lieutenant General John K. Waters, Commanding General, Headquarters U. S. Continental Army Command, will commemorate the 161st anniversary of the founding of the Military Academy.

Among those expected to attend the dinner is Colonel William B. Rosevear (USA Retired) of Edenton. Colonel Rosevear is a member of the Academy's class of 1913.

20 Years Ago

Chowan County citizens joined the remainder of the nation in a registration in order to secure War Ration Book II which was issued to each member of a household in order to purchase many items of food which were placed on the rationed list.

Seven Local Boys Selected To Play In Concert

Seven members of the John A. Holmes High School Band attended the All State Band Clinic, Eastern Division, at East Carolina College on February 8 and 9. The clinic is an annual affair sponsored by the North Carolina Bandmasters Association.

Representing Edenton in this clinic were Ronnie Sawyer, baritone horn; Ronnie Rountree, trombone; Mac Privott, trombone; Tommy Leary, cornet; Larry Privott, cornet; Charles Wood, Jr., sousaphone, and Jerry Yarborough, French horn.

The clinic bandsmen rehearsed for two days, Friday and Saturday.

Edenton Aces And Acelets Win Conference Basketball Crowns

With only one more conference game to play, both the Edenton Aces and Acelets have clinched the Albemarle Conference basketball championship for this year.

This means that both teams will draw a bye in the first round of the district tournament which is scheduled to be held in Plymouth starting Tuesday of next week, January 26.

The Aces and Acelets wind up their regular season Friday night when they go to Williamson to play the final game.

The Aces have an overall record for the season of 14 victories and five defeats. The Acelets sport a record of 13-3.

Team standings in the conference follow:

Girls
Team	Won Lost
Edenton	10 1
Gates	8 3
Ahoskie	8 3
Williamston	7 4
Hertford	4 8
Plymouth	2 9
Scotland Neck	0 11
Boys
Team	Won Lost
Edenton	10 1
Gates	8 3
Plymouth	7 4
Williamston	5 6
Ahoskie	4 7
Scotland Neck	4 7
Hertford	1 11