

Over Twenty Places To Be Open For '63 Pilgrimage In Edenton April 19-20

Deerfield and Rocky Hock Church Will Be Open to Visitors For First Time

Over twenty historic houses and buildings will be open during the three day Pilgrimage of Colonial Edenton and Countryside, April 19-20. The Pilgrimage will be sponsored by the Edenton Woman's Club in connection with the Carolina Charter Tercentenary observance.

Opening for the first time is the colonial countryside home, Deerfield, built between 1700 and 1780 and just restored by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Williams. Also to be open for the first time will be the Rocky Hock Baptist Church, organized in 1825.

Hayes, the home of Samuel Johnston, early governor and first senator from North Carolina and one of the most outstanding houses in the Albemarle, will be open for the first time in over 10 years.

Two houses not open for the last tour, which will be open at Pembroke Hall and the Paxton House.

Hours for the tour will be Friday and Saturday from 10 A. M. to noon and 2 P. M. to 5 P. M. Continued on Page 4—Section 1

20 Years Ago

As Found In The Files Of The Chowan Herald

The Rev. W. C. Benson, Chairman of the Service Men's Recreation Committee, was notified that the New York office had passed favorably on the recommendation to designate a USO Club for Edenton. The YMCA was selected as the agency to manage the operation.

Dr. J. M. Jackson assumed the duties of health officer for the Bertie-Chowan Health District. He succeeded Dr. J. S. Chamblee, who resigned to accept a similar position in Nash County.

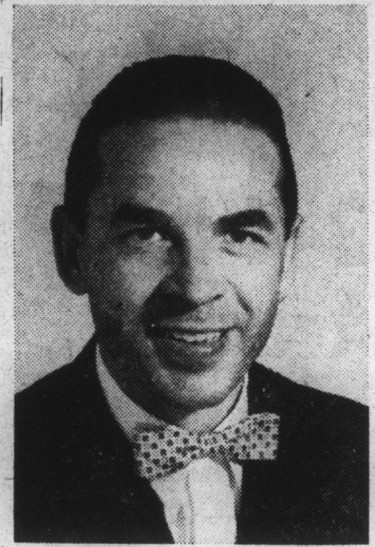

Because no further WPA aid was available, the possibility loomed that the Chowan High School lunch room would be discontinued. Continued on Page 3—Section 1

Urgent Need For More Equipment For Loan Closet

Group Meets to Consider Enlarging the Amount of Equipment Now on Hand

Because of the urgent need for a well equipped Loan Closet, representatives of several organizations as well as interested citizens, with Dr. L. P. Williams, Jr., president of Chowan County Cancer Unit, presiding, met at the Edenton Restaurant to discuss the possibilities of enlarging the amount of equipment now on hand.

The present Loan Closet is being operated, on a voluntary basis, by T. B. Williford, who personally provides storage and repairs of equipment as well as loan service. At the present time all equipment is on loan plus numerous requests that have to be turned down due to lack of equipment.

Dr. Williams stated at the meeting that the greatest need was for beds and that equipment. Continued on Page 6—Section 1

Chowan County's Quota Of Savings Bonds Is $111,320

Sales in January Total $5,869, Which Is 5.3 Per Cent Of Quota For 1963

R. Graham White, Chowan County volunteer chairman for the sale of U. S. Savings Bonds, reports Chowan County's 1963 quota is $111,320.

Purchase of E and H bonds by Chowan County citizens in January amounted to $5,869, which is 5.3 per cent of this quota.

The 1963 quota for North Carolina is $50,600,000. January sales in the state amounted to $4,874,874, which is 9.6% of the state's quota for this year.

Series E Bond sales in North Carolina during January were the greatest for any month since January, 1957. The combined E & H Bond sales during January in the state were the third highest for any month since 1956. Due to a drop-off in H Bond sales, the total of E & H Bonds sold in January were 4.6% behind sales made in January, 1962.

Spring Revival At Rocky Hock Church Week Of March 25 - 31

The spring revival services at Rocky Hock Baptist Church are scheduled for the week of March 25 through March 31.

Dr. Rogers Smith of Richmond, Va., serving as Administrative Associate to the Executive Secretary of the Foreign Mission Board of the Southern Baptist Convention, will be the speaker for the week. The preaching services will be evangelistic.

On Monday, Wednesday and Friday nights following the preaching services, Dr. Smith will conduct a period of missionary information, at which times slides from some of the tours which he has made to foreign mission fields and will give an account of the work observed. On Tuesday and Thursday nights, following the regular service, there will be a special period devoted to young people, giving the young people an opportunity to ask questions concerning common problems facing young people during these days. For about 14 years, Dr. Smith worked with college young people in Tennessee. Services will begin at 7:30 each evening, with special music being scheduled for each service. The pastor and people of Rocky Hock Baptist Church extend a cordial invitation to those who would desire to attend.
