

Dave Tosh Is Appointed As Golf Pro And Manager Of Golf And Country Club

Expected to Assume Duties June 1; Wife Will Be Manager of Dining Room

Announcement was made late last week that the Chowan Golf and Country Club had employed a golf pro in the person of Dave Tosh. He is scheduled to assume his duties as golf pro, manager and superintendent of the local club on June 1.

Mr. Tosh will be accompanied by his wife Kathryn who is also a golf enthusiast and will be in charge of the dining room at the country club. She comes highly recommended as a caterer.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Tosh are natives of Scotland, but they met in this country when Mr. Tosh was at the Sunset Ridge Country Club and Mrs. Tosh at the Indian Hill Country Club, both in Winnetka, Illinois. Mr. Tosh came to the United States in 1920 from Caronistie and Mrs. Tosh is from Glasgow, Scotland.

After they were married the couple worked as a team. Several exclusive clubs they managed are Paducah Country Club in Kentucky, Litchfield Country Club in Connecticut, Cheraw, S. C., Colorado Springs and Denver, Colorado and Maysville, Kentucky.

The local country club is now having a house built next to the country club building which will be occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Tosh. The house is expected to be completed in four or five weeks.

20 Years Ago

As Found In The Files Of The Chowan Herald

Due to apparent friction and lack of cooperation and confidence on the part of Edenton police, a shake-up in the Police Department seemed certain following a lengthy executive session of Town Council. During the meeting each member of the police force was called separately before the Councilmen for questioning.

Continued on Page 4, Section 1

Commencement Exercises At Holmes High Begin Friday

Commencement exercises will begin at John A. Holmes High School Friday night, May 31, when Class Night will be held in the school auditorium at 8 o'clock.

During the program Virginia Ann Wells will read the class history and Patsy Lee Penny will present the last will and testament. Betty Jo Elliott and Barbara Whichard Townson will act as giftors and distribute gifts to members of the senior class.

Leading Students At Holmes High School

JO ANN LEARY
Valedictorian

ANNIE LAURA WHITEMAN
Salutatorian

Fifty-one seniors at John A. Holmes High School will receive their diplomas at a graduation exercise Monday night, June 3. Jo Ann Leary is valedictorian of the class and the salutatorian is Annie Laura Whiteman.

Dinner Is Planned To Honor Chowan Gold Star Parents

Affair to Be Held at VFW Building Tuesday Night, June 4 at 8 O'clock

William H. Coffield, Jr. Post No. 9280, Veterans of Foreign Wars, and its ladies' auxiliary will have a dinner honoring the Gold Star parents of Chowan County.

The dinner is scheduled to be held Tuesday night, June 4, at 8 o'clock at the VFW Post Home on the old Hertford Road. Wesley Cullipher of Elizabeth City will be guest speaker.

Invitations have been sent to all white Gold Star parents that are known by the post. If any parent does not receive an invitation, please contact either Mrs. Doris Toler at 482-3474, Mrs. George Conner at 482-4178 or Noah Goodwin, Jr., at 482-3039.

Transportation will be furnished if desired, by calling the above numbers.

91 Make Perfect Attendance At John A. Holmes High School

Cecil W. Fry, principal of John A. Holmes High School, reports that 91 students in the school had perfect attendance for the school year and will be presented perfect attendance certificates.

The 91 included the following: 7th Grade—Judy White, Carol Bryant, Ellen Cutrell, Carroll Lassiter, George Ronnie Harrell, Billy Perry, Billy Wallace, Buddy White, Harriet Barrow, Margaret Nixon, Jane Parks, Steve Davenport, Louis Harrell, Kent Haskett, Frankie Kalkaveck, Douglas Maxwell, Darrell Park-

New Schedule Of Hours At Library

During the months that school is closed hours at Shepard-Pruden Memorial Library will be as follows:

Monday through Saturday 9:30 to 12:00; Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday, 2:30 to 5:30; Monday and Thursday evenings, 7:30 to 8:30.

The library will be closed Wednesday and Saturday afternoons.

Fishing Area Is To Be Doubled

Project Five Miles West of Edenton to Cost $18,700

Congressman Herbert C. Bonner last week announced that five projects under the accelerated public works program had been approved in the First District by the Fish and Wildlife Service of the U. S. Department of the Interior and the State of North Carolina.

Switzerland Youth Visiting In Chowan

Charles-Louis Besson, IFYE delegate from Echallens (VD) Switzerland, arrived in Chowan County on May 17. He will visit the county through June 12.

The International Farm Youth Exchange (IFYE) is a 4-H people-to-people program for selected young people from the United States to live and work with young people in other countries; and for young people from cooperating countries to come to the United States for a similar experience.

New Management For Sinclair Station

Another change in service station management has taken place with the Sinclair Service Station at the corner of Broad and Queen Streets changing hands recently.

The station, formerly operated by Erwin Griffin, is now under the management of John B. Simpson and C. C. Baker, Jr. Mr. Simpson is proprietor and Mr. Baker is general manager. The station will be known as Simpson Sinclair Service and both new operators invite the continued patronage of old customers as well as new ones.

Jerry Tolley Stars At East Carolina College

Pictured above is Jerry Tolley of Edenton, who scored 69 1/2 points for the East Carolina College track team this spring. The East Carolina Pirates posted a winning season with a 5-4 record. Tolley garnered his score in the 100, 220, relay, hop-step-jump and broad jump.

Fishing Contest In Progress For Youngsters Under 16 Years Old

Will the youngsters beat out their dads in the current fishing contest sponsored by the Edenton Chamber of Commerce?

Dr. Ed Bond, chairman of the Recreation Committee, in reviewing the current title holders in the senior contest which also runs through the end of June, said that the largemouth bass to beat is one boated by Murray P. Bond, Route 3, Edenton, whose bass weighed in at 8 1/2 pounds and was 23 inches in length.

In the speckled perch classification the present title holder

Continued on Page 5—Section 1

Auction Block To Open On June 3rd

Evan Griffin of Williamston Will Be Auctioneer

The Chowan Cooperative Exchange is scheduled to open its auction block at Valhalla Monday afternoon, June 3, with auction of current vegetables such as snap beans, cabbage and squash beginning at 1 o'clock.

Evan Griffin has been secured to serve as auctioneer this year. Mr. Griffin is a well known auctioneer from Williamston who is well acquainted with the job of selling farm products.

All produce will be sold at auction this year with sales beginning at 1 o'clock each day.

L. C. Bunch is president of Chowan Cooperative Produce Exchange, with Roy Byrum, vice president and Paul Ober, secretary and treasurer.

BPW Club Meets At Smith Cottage

The Edenton Business and Professional Women's Club will meet Wednesday night, June 5, at 6:30 o'clock at the cottage of Mr. and Mrs. Percy L. Smith. This will be a covered dish supper and each member is urged to be present and to bring a guest.

34 Seniors To Graduate Friday At D. F. Walker High School

A graduation exercise will be held at D. F. Walker High School Friday night, May 31, when 34 members of the graduating class are scheduled to receive their diplomas. The exercise will be held in the gymnasium beginning at 8 o'clock. Diplomas will be presented by Superintendent Hiram Mayo.

Sarah Mae Carter is valedictorian of the class and Alonza Augustus Slade is salutatorian, both of whom will deliver addresses on the program. Prayer will be offered by Melvin White and Superintendent Hiram Mayo will be the graduation speaker. Special music will be rendered by the school band. Members of the 1963 graduating class include: Welma Augustus Arnold, Barbara Ann Blount, Cleveland Augustus Blount, Sarah Mae Carter, Lois Jean Carter, Robert Lee Copeland, Lloyd Alvin Coston, David Scott Felton, Vann Frederick Fleming, Jeanetta Hall, Clarence Earl Hardy, Calvin Jernigan Holley, Doris Lee Jenkins, Brenda Dean Johnson, Thomas Earl Johnson, Marshall Israel Jordan, William Kelly Jordan, George Delma Mizelle, Dorothy Louise Morris, Rosa Mary Nixon, Emma Jane Owens, William Edward Perry, Yvonne Earline Riddick, Maggie Louise Simpson, Alonza Augustus Slade, Susie Ann Stallings, Ruechell Sutton, Clarence McKinley Vaughn, Wanya Lee West, Frank White, Lawrence Eli White and Melvin Ray White.

Continued on Page 5—Section 1

Fashion Show To Feature Meeting Of Woman's Club

Mrs. George A. Byrum Appoints Division and Department Chairmen

A fashion show will highlight the luncheon meeting of the Edenton Woman's Club Wednesday afternoon, June 5 at 1 o'clock at the Edenton Restaurant.

Sportswear will be featured by Belk-Tyler's. This will also be the club's annual planning meeting for the year. Mrs. George A. Byrum, new president, urges all club members to be present.

Mrs. Byrum has announced the following department and division chairmen:

American Home: Marian Downum. Garden, Carolyn Raines; Religion, Lucille Bond; Pilgrimage, Lena Harrell.

Communications: Kit Forehand. Yearbook, Alice Twiddy; Program, Mary Esther George; Pressbook, Patsy McGee; Publicity, Jackie Ricks; Scrapbook, Continued on Page 3, Section 1

14 Edenton Teachers Tender Resignations From Faculties

At least 14 Edenton school teachers will not return for the next term of school, for that number have tendered their resignations, according to Superintendent Hiram Mayo. A goodly number of the vacancies have already been filled and Mr. Mayo expects little difficulty in having a full faculty when school reopens next fall.

Among the resignations are: Elementary School—Ruby

Continued on Page 3, Section 1

20% Of Savings Bonds Quota Sold In Chowan County

R. Graham White Reports April Sales at $4,457; Sales $22,314 For Quarter

R. Graham White, who heads the U. S. Savings bonds program in Chowan County, reports that sales in the county during April amounted to $4,457. Thus far this year county sales amount to $22,314. The quota for 1963 is $111,320, so that the county has sold 20 per cent of its annual quota.

During April new purchases of Series E and Series H Savings Bonds in North Carolina amounted to $4,223,799. This is 4.7 per cent above April a year ago. Totals for the first four months of 1963 show cash sales of E and H Bonds amounted to $18,037,776, which is 4.6 per cent above the same period of last year.

Continued on Page 3, Section 1

Mayo Speaker At Pamlico Exercise

The speaker for commencement exercises at the Pamlico County High School at Bayboro, N. C., was Hiram J. Mayo, superintendent of the Edenton City Schools.

The commencement address was delivered on Monday evening, May 27. Mr. Mayo is a native of Pamlico County and graduated from the high school in 1940.

License Examiner Has New Hours

J. E. White, driver license examiner, announces a change in the hours he will be in his office at the Edenton Police Department.

Effective Monday, June 3, through August 30, the office hours will be from 8 A. M., to 5 P. M.

EASTERN STAR MEETING
Edenton Chapter No. 302, Order of the Eastern Star, will meet Monday night, June 3, at 8 o'clock. Mrs. Elton Boswell, worthy matron, urges all members to be present.

Industrial Leaders Of Chowan County Honored At Dinner Tuesday Night

Saluted By Seniors

R. H. COPELAND

Serving as principal at Chowan High School for nine years, R. H. Copeland has tendered his resignation and the May issue of the school paper, "The Chowanian," pays high tribute to him.

Large Number Gather In American Legion Building Tuesday Night

Sponsored by the Edenton Chamber of Commerce, leaders of various industries in Chowan County were honored at an Industrial Appreciation Banquet held Tuesday night at the American Legion Building. The dinner was served by members of the American Legion Auxiliary and followed a delightful cocktail hour during which most of the industrial leaders of the county enjoyed fellowship with other members of the Chamber of Commerce. The cocktail hour was sponsored by individual business concerns.

George A. Byrum, Chamber president, presided over the meeting and expressed his pleasure that so many of those engaged in industry were able to attend. He paid special tribute to them for their progress and important contribution to the economic condition of the county.

The invocation was made by West Byrum, Jr., vice president of the Chamber of Commerce and Bruce Jones recognized special guests.

Following the dinner special and very delightful jazz music was furnished by an Edenton trio consisting of James Cozart at the piano, Lyman Partin on drums and Jimmy Barnhill playing a bass violin. They were given a generous round of applause.

Continued on Page 5—Section 1

CIVIC CALENDAR

The Wildlife Resources Commission will hold a public hearing in the Chowan County Court House Friday night, May 31, at 7:30 o'clock to consider proposed hunting and trapping regulations for the 1963-64 season.

A Memorial Day service will be held at the Bethel Baptist Church Sunday night, June 2, at 8 o'clock.

Gold Star parents of Chowan County will be honored at a dinner to be held at the VFW building Tuesday night, June 4, at 8 o'clock.

Edenton Chapter No. 302, Order of the Eastern Star, will meet Monday night, June 3, at 8 o'clock.

Continued on Page 2—Section 1

33 Seniors Will Graduate At Chowan High School Tonight

Commencement exercises began at Chowan High School Sunday night, when the baccalaureate service was held in the school auditorium at 8 o'clock.

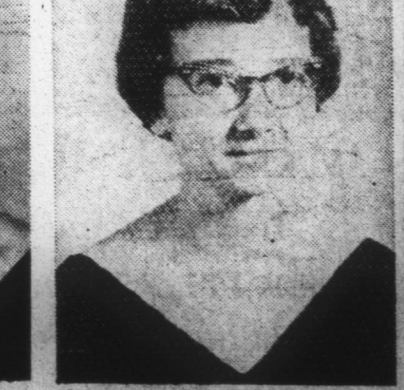

The baccalaureate sermon was preached by the Rev. George Cooke, pastor of Ballard's Bridge Baptist Church. The invocation was by the Rev. Warren Rollins, pastor of Warwick Baptist Church and benediction by the Rev. Henry Napier, pastor of Center Hill Baptist Church.

Special music for the program was provided by the Glee Club.

Class Leaders At Chowan High School

JUDY ANN HASTE
Valedictorian

FRANCES LEIGH JORDAN
Salutatorian

Thirty-one seniors will graduate tonight (Thursday) at Chowan High School. Judy Ann Haste, daughter of Mrs. Eleanor Haste Taylor, is valedictorian with an average of 96.42. Frances Leigh Jordan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Elton Jordan, is salutatorian with an average of 94.32. The two girls will give the welcome and farewell addresses tonight.