

The Roundup

By WILBORNE HARRELL

NOW!
Get it done today, lad, for who knows? Tomorrow may be too late. The wind blows Today, but it may die tomorrow, Leaving you a fistful of sorrow. Now, now, now let the word echo and ring Like anvil blows. If you've a song to sing, Lift your voice unto the skies today; And let your heart and deeds become a lay, A challenge NOW—let them not die aborning. Grasp the early dew, the sunrise while 'tis yet morning.

We are all more or less creatures of habit. We very easily fall into a routine that becomes so much a part of our life, we are like fish out of water if we have to do otherwise. As I write this I am on vacation, days of rest and loafing that I looked forward to. But you've heard the old saying: You want what you want until you get it, and then you either don't want it, or don't know what to do with it, now that you have it. That's me. I've got time on my hands that I don't know what to do with. Of course, there's lots of work around me to be done—but who wants to work on a vacation? I like to read, but I can't read all the time. I like TV, but a guy would go nuts looking at TV all the time. I've tried catching up on some of my writing—but writing is work, and I mean work. Maybe I'll just try relaxing and taking it easy—if I haven't forgotten how. No wonder so many people just fade away when they retire. I believe the whole trouble is, vacations never coincide with the times when a person really needs a rest.

PHIL OSOPHER SAYS — The only real asset a person has is time. But even that is only a loan and can be called in any day!

In ancient times, a Greek once said, "There is no mortal whom sorrow and disease do not touch." But we moderns have made progress! Not only has mankind found ways to cure many diseases and alleviate some sorrows, but we in the United States have established an orderly way to provide most people a substantial degree of protection against the economic consequences of prolonged and severe disability.

Under the Social Security Disability Insurance Program, monthly benefits may be paid to disabled workers under age 65 and to their dependents. The wife of a disabled worker is eligible for benefits at age 62, and she may get benefits regardless of her age if she has in her care a child who is eligible for benefits—either under 18 or over 18 and disabled since before age 18.

A worker's right to Social Security Disability Insurance Benefits is earned through work under Social Security for five years in the ten-year period before he became disabled. Childhood disability applicants must be the survivor of a fully insured worker or an old age or disability insurance beneficiary.

About 50 million workers have earned disability insurance protection for themselves and their dependents — under this law which also provides that to be eligible for Social Security Disability Insurance Benefits, the worker must have an illness or injury that makes him unable to "engage in any gainful activity." This does not mean just the old or regular job, but any other substantial, gainful, work. In addition, the illness or injury must have lasted for six full calendar months and must be a condition from which the person is not expected to recover in the

Miss Emily Claire Leary Becomes Bride Of Harvey M. Nock At Rocky Hock Church

MRS. HARVEY MONCELLE NOCK

The marriage of Miss Emily Claire Leary, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Stillman Leary of Edenton, to Harvey Moncelle Nock, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Everette Nock of Hallwood, Virginia, took place Sunday afternoon, August 18, at 4 o'clock in the Rocky Hock Baptist Church.

The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Thurman W. Allred, pastor of the church, and the Rev. Bill Leary of Maple, N. C., brother of the bride, in a setting of palms, fern, and arrangements of white mixed flowers.

Each applicant for Social Security Disability Insurance Benefits is responsible for furnishing medical evidence to support his claim. Sources for medical reports include private physicians, hospitals, clinics, or other institutions where the applicant has been treated.

The physician providing a medical report for his patient is asked only to provide objective medical facts and findings. He is not asked for his opinion on his patient's disability. The finding of "total disability" is an administrative and legal decision. This determination is made by an office of the Department of Public Welfare in North Carolina.

Heart Facts

Question: Is there any certain relationship between diet and heart disease?
Answer: Many health authorities believe that factors in the human diet are related to heart disease—and especially to heart attacks. This relationship is not fully proved, but there are some things which are certain: that overweight, under-exercise, over-worry are bad for you and your heart.

Mrs. Robert Harrell, organist, presented a program of nuptial music prior to the ceremony and accompanied Miss Jo Ann Leary, cousin of the bride, who sang "O Perfect Love", "The Sweetest Story Ever Told", and "The Wedding Prayer" as the benediction.

The bride wore a wedding gown of white silk organza and chantilly lace, fashioned with scalloped neckline, long lace sleeves pointed over the hands and bud tight bodice. The controlled bell skirt of tiers of lace in the front and organza back was accented by a bustle effect and formed a chapel length train. Her veil of French illusion fell from a demi cap edged with sequins and pearls. She carried a cascade of white stock and lilies of the valley centered with white orchids.

Miss Ruth Leary, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a cattilion blue dress fashioned with a bell skirt, self-covered buttons down the back and an organza waist length jacket. She carried a cascade of bronze mums.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Vann Small, sister of the bride; Mrs. Frank Evans, Mrs. O. C. Long, Jr., Mrs. Cameron Boyce, Mrs. Carey Hollowell, Mrs. Rodney Harrell, Mrs. Willie Saunders, Mrs. Kermit Perry, Mrs. Roland Ashley, Mrs. Gilbert Harrell, Mrs. Alphonso Spivey, Mrs. Vann Small, Mrs. Clarence Leary and Mrs. West Leary.
