

Court House Green Now Dressed Up

Pictured above is a view of the Joseph Hewes monument on the Court House Green, around which a plaza has just been completed by the Edenton Woman's Club. In front of the monument a neat brick sidewalk has been constructed and brick steps are on the green, as well as at the entrance to the Green in front of the Court House on King Street.

Dr. William Whitehurst Guest Speaker At Edenton Woman's Club Meeting On September 11

Edenton Woman's Club will hold its first meeting of the fall season Wednesday afternoon, September 11. The meeting will be held at 1 o'clock at the Edenton Methodist Church.

A feature of the meeting will be an address by Dr. G. William Whitehurst of Norfolk, whose subject will be "Some Reflections of the Twentieth Century."

Dr. Whitehurst is a native of Norfolk. He was educated in the public schools there. He served three years with the naval air forces in the Pacific Theater in World War II, after which he attended Washington and Lee University. He received his B.A. degree from Washington and Lee in 1950. In 1951 he was awarded a M.A. degree in history at the University of Virginia and a Ph.D. degree in American Diplomatic History at West Virginia University in 1952. He joined the Department of History at Old Dominion College in 1960 and was appointed dean of students in 1962.

Peanut Support Rates Announced

The final support prices for 1963 crop of peanuts has been announced by the Department of Agriculture. The Virginia type is $238.86 per net ton. A 45 cent premium will be paid for each one percent of extra large kernels.

This compares with 80 cents in 1962. The lower premium on extra large kernels for 1963 is offset by the higher sound mature kernels rate of $3.164 compared with $3.112 for 1962.

Discount rates for damaged kernels will be essentially the same as those for the 1962 crop.

Chowan Home Agent Arranges Plans For N. C. Research Tour

Man has 5,000 taste buds. A chicken has only 24, yet a chicken can taste things a man cannot taste. In fact a chicken can taste things a cow can't taste! A chicken (not necessarily just the smart chick) will go thirsty rather than drink warm water.

Research being done by the Poultry Science Department of North Carolina State College, Raleigh, was a part of a Research Study Tour N. C. Home Agents attended recently.

A. P. Godwin, Jr. Speaker For DAR Meeting Sept. 10

Meeting Will Be Held At Edenton Restaurant Beginning at 6:30 P. M.

Adolphus Pilston Godwin, Jr., of Gatesville will speak on the United States Constitution at a dinner meeting of the Edenton Tea Party Chapter, DAR, Tuesday night, September 10, at 6:30 o'clock at the Edenton Restaurant.

The letter was forwarded in appreciation of Young Twiddy's outstanding work with the 1963 ROTC summer camp.

"May I also express my appreciation to you for a job well done," the letter stated. "Your attitude and professional competence not only reflects highly upon you as a soldier, but enhances the position of the school in the field of CBR training here at Fort Bragg."

Craft Demonstrations Feature Chowan County Fair Sept. 16-21

Craft demonstrations will be featured each night at the Chowan County Fair scheduled for the week of September 16-21, at the American Legion grounds on the Windsor highway.

In addition to the demonstrations fair goers will be able to view the prize winning exhibits entered by Chowan County residents in the main fair building. A training school for personnel accepting entries for the fair will be held Thursday morning at 9:30 o'clock at the fair building by Miss Pauline Calloway.

Working with the entries will be members of the American Legion Auxiliary and Home Demonstration Club members. The craft demonstrations by Home Demonstration members will be held each night from 7 to 9 o'clock beginning Tuesday night with a demonstration of needlecraft by Mrs. Jesse Harmon. Wednesday night Mrs. Fred Bunch will demonstrate copper tooling. Mrs. Bunch and Mrs. Harmon will both demonstrate tin craft and crystalized marble Thursday night and on Friday night they will feature stuffed and plastic toys. Saturday night Mrs. W. H. Saunders will make mint candy.

Home Demonstration Club members will visit the fair to learn about judging quality products instead of having their regular monthly meeting. Club members will view the ribbon exhibits and learn why they were selected.
