

Winners Announced In Needlework Contest Held At Chowan County Fair

Mrs. T. B. Williford Is Awarded Trophy For Exhibit of "Best of Fair" Afghan

Winners of the preliminary judging for the 1963 national wool needlework contest at the Chowan County Fair last week have been announced.

Blue ribbon winners in all categories are now expected to compete for further honors in a second judging, which has been designated as the Sweepstakes Fair for entries from this state.

Conducted for knitters and crocheters, with five categories for each type of needlework, the contest attracted a goodly number of entries, from which the blue ribbon winners, one for each category of knitting and crocheting were selected. The winners are:

Knitting: Sweater—Mrs. Nola Smith.

Crocheting: Afghan—Mrs. T. B. Williford.

Judges also awarded a special engraved trophy, presented by the National Hand Knitting Yarn Association and the American Wool Council, joint sponsors of the contest, to Mrs. Williford whose winning design was adjudged "Best of Fair."

At the Sweepstakes judging all blue ribbon winners will be in competition with first prize winners from other fairs throughout the area. First prize winners in the Sweepstakes Fair competition will then be eligible to compete for the grand national prize of a free trip to New York, a three-day stay for two and $1,000 cash, as well as for the other national cash prizes and ribbon awards.

Miss Elnor Julek, VEPCO home economist of Williamston, judged the contest at the Chowan County Fair.

At the preliminary judging, second place winners who received red ribbons were:

Knitting: Sweater—Mrs. T. B. Smith.

Crocheting: Afghan—Mrs. Liva Stallings.

Third place winners who received white ribbons were:

Knitting: Sweater—Mrs. Harold Layton.

Crocheting: Afghan—Mrs. Louise Pratt.

20 Years Ago

As Found In The Files Of The Chowan Herald

Meeting in special session a majority of Town Councilmen went on record as favoring a Zoning Ordinance for Edenton, after the proposal was hanging fire for a long time.

Sportsmen were not so enthusiastic for the opening of the squirrel and deer season due to facing the prospect of very little hunting due to the lack of shells.

In order to assist in harvesting the Chowan cotton and peanut crops, Edenton schools went on a short schedule, so that students could help due to the shortage of labor.

Due to remodeling of the Presbyterian Church and the resignation of the Rev. W. C. Benson, pastor of the Methodist Church, who resigned to enter the ministry on Page 7, Section 1.

Mrs. W. B. Gardner Employed As Attendance Counselor For Edenton And Chowan Schools

A new official has been added to the Chowan County and Edenton school units in the person of Mrs. W. B. Gardner. Mrs. Gardner began her duties Monday of last week as attendance counselor which is in reality the duties of a liaison officer. The position was allotted to the county by the State Board of Education.

She will devote three days a week with the Edenton schools and two days with the county unit. According to Superintendent Hiram J. Mayo of the Edenton unit, Mrs. Gardner will be furnished names of absentees

Chowan Boy In Tractor Contest

Lewis Evans To Compete For State Honor At State Fair

Three 4-H'ers from the Eastern district, all winners in the 4-H district tractor driving contest held earlier this year, will compete for the State Championship at North Carolina State Fair, October 14-19.

The boys are Gene Godfrey, Moyock; Lewis Evans, Route 1, Edenton; and Dallas Simmons, Route 3, Columbia, first, second and third place winners respectively.

The 4-H youths will face stiff competition from the three top winners in each of the state's five other 4-H districts.

Contest directors J. C. Ferguson and John Glover announced that the standard 4-H obstacle course would again be used this year, but that competition would be limited to two-wheel driving events.

The contest will be held on Friday, October 18, in the Dorton Arena on the State Fairgrounds. Total prize money to be awarded in this year's event is $150.

Officers For Chowan Cancer Unit Elected Tuesday Night

The annual meeting of the board of directors of the Chowan County Cancer Unit was held Tuesday night in the Municipal Building, with Dr. L. P. Williams, Jr., president, presiding.

Present at the meeting was Mrs. Bert Tyson, field representative. Mrs. Tyson pointed out the importance of adequate organization of cancer units and the need to put forth every effort to secure funds to combat cancer. She also stressed the growing need to fight leukemia, which is gaining ground among the disease killers. Mrs. Tyson was very complimentary about the work done by the Chowan Chapter and expressed the hope that this work would continue. "Our ultimate goal is to save

Continued on Page 3—Section 1

New '64 Chevrolets To Be Shown Today

New Models On View At George Chevrolet Company

George Chevrolet Company will observe open house today (Thursday) at which time the new line of 1964 Chevrolet cars and trucks will be displayed for the first time. The showroom at 1100 North Broad Street will be open until 9 o'clock tonight and salesmen will be on hand to show and explain the features of the new 1964 models.

For 1964 Chevrolet Motor Division will offer a total of 43 models in five separate passenger car lines with each line distinguishable by its own styling and wheelbase.

N. J. George, manager of George Chevrolet Company, says he is delighted with the new models and extends a cordial invitation to the general public to visit the showroom to inspect the new model Chevrolets. Free favors will be distributed during the open house period.

District Governor Lions Club Guest

Leroy Woodcock Calls Attention To October Anniversary

Leroy Woodcock of Washington, N. C., was a special guest at the Lions Club meeting Monday night. Mr. Woodcock is governor of District 31-J, Lions International and he brought to the attention of local Lions plans for the 46th anniversary of membership development month which will be observed during October.

Mr. Woodcock said Lions was the largest service club in the world as of June 1, 1963. He stated that there are over 700,000 members in 17,300 clubs which are scattered over 120 countries.

Three new members were inducted into the club, Warren Twiddy, the Rev. E. C. Shoaf and William Easterling.

Dr. A. G. Byrum, Jr. Going To England

Doctor (Captain) Albert G. Byrum, Jr., of Edenton, who recently came on active duty, has completed the orientation course for officers of the United States Air Force Medical Service at Gunter AFB in Alabama.

The doctor, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert G. Byrum of Edenton, was given instruction in specialized aerospace medical subjects and administrative procedures of the USAF Medical Service.

Captain Byrum is being reassigned to Chicklands RAF Station, England. He will join the medical staff there for practice as a dentist.

Doctor Byrum attended the University of North Carolina. He is a member of Zeta Psi and Delta Sigma Delta.

The doctor's wife, Patricia, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Beams of Martinsville, Va.

Top Winners At Chowan County Fair

Chowan Citizens Purchase 58.1% Of Bond Quota

Sales In County During August $17,769; Sales In State 67.9% Of Quota

R. Graham White, volunteer chairman for sale of U. S. Savings Bonds in Chowan County, reports that Chowan County citizens have purchased $64,688 of U. S. Savings Bonds through August, which is 58.1 per cent of the county's quota for the year of $111,320.

Sales for the month of August amounted to $17,769.

Sales of U. S. Savings Bonds in North Carolina increased substantially during the month of August. With sales amounting to $4,171,138, North Carolinians purchased over 10 per cent more bonds than they did in August of 1962.

Series E Bond sales for the month reflected a gain of nearly 10 per cent, while Series H Bonds showed an increase of over 25 per cent compared to the same month a year ago.

Through August North Carolina's performance continues to run ahead of its sales pattern for this year. "If this trend continues," says Mr. White, "North Carolina is sure to achieve 100 per cent of its quota for 1963."

Three counties in the state have already achieved their quota for this year, while 34 other counties have as of August 31 attained two-thirds or more of their annual quotas.

In top picture appear, from left to right, Mrs. T. B. Williford of Edenton, county winner in the 1963 national wool needlework contest held last week at the Chowan County Fair; Miss Pauline Calloway, Home Economics Extension Agent, and W. A. Perry, president of the Chowan County Fair. Mrs. Williford's winning afghan will be exhibited at North Carolina State Fair at Raleigh October 14 through 19 and judged with other county winners to determine a state winner which will enter the national contest.

In the bottom photo is pictured, left to right, Mrs. Florine Nixon and Mrs. Marvin Smith. They represent Gum Pond Home Demonstration Club, which was judged best all around booth at the fair. At right is Tom Shepard, who is presenting the women the trophy awarded by Home Feed & Fertilizer Co.—Rich's Photos.

State Senator N. Elton Aydlott Praises North Carolina Women For Part Taken In Government

The Chowan County Democratic Women held a dutch luncheon meeting at their first meeting of the fall season at the Edenton Restaurant on Tuesday, September 24, at 12:30 o'clock.

Mrs. Carrie Earnhardt, newly elected president, presided over the meeting and called on Mrs. Corinne Thorud to lead the pledge of allegiance to the flag, after which Mrs. Lena Leary gave the invocation. Mrs. Earnhardt recognized visitors and guests and called upon Mrs. Frances Hollowell to introduce Douglas Twiddy, president of the Chowan County Teen-Dem organization, who in a few brief remarks expressed his appreciation to the Chowan County Democratic Women for making it possible for him to attend the Teen-Dem convention in Raleigh in June of this year. A note of appreciation was also read from Mary Thorud, vice president of the Chowan County Teen-Dem organization.

Mrs. E. G. Bond, Jr., called attention to the Democratic Women's convention to be held in Raleigh in October 11 and 12 and urged all Chowan County women to attend.

Mrs. Dorothy Graham, program chairman, introduced N. Elton Aydlott, State Senator, who in a few brief remarks expressed his appreciation to the Chowan County Democratic Women for making it possible for him to attend the Teen-Dem convention in Raleigh in June of this year. A note of appreciation was also read from Mary Thorud, vice president of the Chowan County Teen-Dem organization.

Mrs. E. G. Bond, Jr., called attention to the Democratic Women's convention to be held in Raleigh in October 11 and 12 and urged all Chowan County women to attend.

Mrs. Dorothy Graham, program chairman, introduced N. Elton Aydlott, State Senator, who in a few brief remarks expressed his appreciation to the Chowan County Democratic Women for making it possible for him to attend the Teen-Dem convention in Raleigh in June of this year. A note of appreciation was also read from Mary Thorud, vice president of the Chowan County Teen-Dem organization.

Mrs. E. G. Bond, Jr., called attention to the Democratic Women's convention to be held in Raleigh in October 11 and 12 and urged all Chowan County women to attend.

Aces Squeeze By Williamston's Green Wave In 6 To 0 Victory

Edenton Aces narrowly slipped by Williamston High School in Williamston Friday night, thus chalking up their third victory in as many games played thus far in the 1963 football season. The score was 6-0 but the Green Wave was seriously threatening in the waning moments of the game until the Aces recovered a Greenie fumble on the 12-yard line. The Green Wave had advanced from their own 43-yard line to the 17-yard line in 10 plays which netted three first downs. But the drive petered out when the Greenies fumbled when in striking distance.

Both teams played a ragged brand of football with probably the biggest thrill being a 48-

Plans Under Way To Repair Roof At Edenton Armory

Armory Commission Advertises For Bids To Make Necessary Repairs to Building

Announcement is made this week that North Carolina Armory Commission will receive bids for repairs to be made to the Edenton National Guard Armory. The bids will include a price for furnishing labor, materials and equipment entering into the construction of roofing and roof repairs to the building.

The work includes approximately 50 squares of new built-up roofing, approximately 680 lineal feet of metal flashing, approximately 680 lineal feet of cant strips, water proofing parapet walls and roof deck repairs.

Sealed proposals will be received in the office of the Adjutant General in Raleigh up to 2:30 P. M., on October 9. After that hour the bids will be publicly opened.

Complete plans, specifications and contract documents will be open for inspection at the Edenton Armory or can be obtained by those qualified and who will make a bid from the Engineer-Inspector, the Adjutant General's Department, P. O. Box 12255, Raleigh, N. C.

County ASC Committee For '64 Elected By Township Chairmen

The chairman of the three community townships met in the local ASCS office Friday, September 20, and elected the County ASC Committee for 1964 as follows:

A. C. Griffin, chairman; E. E. Boyce, Jr., vice chairman; Ray Byrum, regular member; Leonard Hare, first alternate, and W. L. Brabble, second alternate.

This committee will take office October 1 and serve until September 30, 1964, or until successors are elected and have qualified.

The local ASCS office wishes

C. of C. Banquet Scheduled To Be Held October 18

An Interesting Program Being Arranged; Drive For Members Following Day

Edenton's Chamber of Commerce will hold its annual banquet at the Chowan Golf and Country Club Tuesday night, October 15. The banquet will precede a kick-off breakfast the following morning for the annual Chamber of Commerce membership drive.

An interesting program is being arranged for the annual banquet for which an interesting speaker will be secured. George Alma Byrum, Chamber of Commerce president, is hopeful that the banquet will attract many present Chamber members and that the membership drive will be successful so that the work of the Chamber of Commerce will be able to continue.

Refinishing Picture Frame Workshop Is Planned For Oct. 3

A refinishing picture frame workshop will be held at Wards Community Building Thursday, October 3, from 9 A. M., to 4 P. M.

Mrs. Edith McGlamery, house and house furnishing specialist, North Carolina State College, will conduct this workshop, according to Pauline Calloway, Home Economics Extension Agent.

Home Demonstration Club members and non-club members are invited to attend. Those attending should bring picture frames (and clean thoroughly), paint brushes, old tooth brushes, lint free cloths and small jars for holding supplies. The specialist will have all other materials and supplies needed for refinishing the picture frame.

English teachers of the South-

Six New Members Elected To Board Of Directors Of Chamber Of Commerce

New '64 Fords Go On Display Sept. 27-28

New Models Shown at Albemarle Motor Company

Albemarle Motor Company announces the showing of the 1964 Ford cars which will go on display in the company's showroom on West Hicks Street Friday and Saturday, September 27 and 28.

A cordial invitation is extended to the general public to visit the showroom for this occasion to witness the new Fords, Fairlanes, Thunderbird, Falcon and trucks.

Refreshments will be served during the display and there will be gifts for the youngsters.

Increased durability, lower maintenance and operating costs and greater versatility highlight the 1964 Ford line of cars and trucks, says Bruce Jones, manager of Albemarle Motor Company.

A meeting of the Chamber's board of directors will be held today (Thursday), Byrum said, Continued on Page 3, Section 1

President George A. Byrum Reports Past Year Was Progressive and Resultful

The Election Committee of the Edenton Chamber of Commerce met Monday at the Chamber office to tally the votes for election of six new members on the board of directors to serve until 1965 from a slate of 12 nominees voted on by the membership.

President George A. Byrum announced that as a result of the balloting the following six new directors had been elected: Scott Harrell, Edenton Tractor & Implement Company; Alton Elmore, general manager, Belk-Tyler, Edenton; William Perry, proprietor of Perry's Texaco Service; Claude Griffin, proprietor of Griffin Musicenter; Leo Katkavek, superintendent of Edenton Cotton Mills and Warren Twiddy, vice president of Twiddy Insurance & Real Estate, Inc.

A meeting of the Chamber's board of directors will be held today (Thursday), Byrum said, Continued on Page 3, Section 1

Little Mike McMullan Breaks Leg In Fall

Mike McMullan, 6-year-old grandson of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Campen, had the misfortune to break a leg Wednesday afternoon. The accident occurred on the Baptist Church parking lot, where the youngster was riding a bicycle. He fell off the bicycle and in some way the leg was caught which caused the fracture.

The Edenton Rescue Squad was summoned and he was rushed to Chowan Hospital on a cot in the Rescue Squad truck. He was released from the hospital Thursday.

The boy's mother and grandparents express their appreciation for the services rendered by the Rescue Squad.

CIVIC CALENDAR

Red Cross bloodmobile is scheduled to visit Edenton Friday, October 4, at the Edenton armory.

The annual Chamber of Commerce banquet will be held at the Chowan Golf and Country Club Tuesday night, October 15 with a membership drive scheduled to be held the following day.

A refinishing picture frame workshop will be held at Wards Community Building Thursday, October 3, from 9 A. M., to 4 P. M.

Continued on Page 5—Section 1

Former Edentonian In Who's Who Of American Women

Edenton friends will be delighted to learn that Mrs. A. Vason Hamrick, Jr., of Shelby, the former Miss Rebecca Hollowell of Edenton is included in the third edition of Who's Who of American Women which recently came off the press. Mrs. Hamrick is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Hollowell, formerly of Edenton; granddaughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. N. J. Hollowell and niece of Miss Minnie Hollowell and Mrs. Hector Lupton.

Mrs. Hamrick holds an A.B. degree and a master's degree in English from the Woman's College of the University of North Carolina, and teaches senior English at Shelby High School.

She has for a number of years assumed leadership in the American Association of University Women and is currently in her third year as secretary of the North Carolina Division of the Association. Before her election to this office, she had served as elementary and secondary education chairman of the state division.

Mrs. Hamrick has also served as president, vice president and secretary of the Shelby branch of AAUW. She has just completed a term as president of the English teachers of the South-

MRS. A. VASON HAMRICK, JR. western District of NCEA. She has served on the state board for Business Women of the Baptist Woman's Missionary Union and as president of Business Women of the Kings Mountain Baptist Association.

Mrs. Hamrick is an active member of First Baptist Church at Shelby, the Great Books Discussion Group, Cleveland Choral Society, Junior Mothers Club and Beta Sigma Phi Sorority. Her talents extend into the realms of both music and painting and she has taught art classes for camp and club groups.