

Over 1,500 Turn Out For Edenton's Halloween Party Held Thursday

Varied and Novel Costumes Make Judging For Winners Hard to Decide

The Halloween Party Thursday afternoon, with a boost from the weatherman, was one of the most successful in many years.

Costumes were novel and varied, making the choice of the prize winners a difficult one for the judges.

The winners were Kathryn Harless for the prettiest girl; Richard Bass, the cutest boy; Janet Bunch, the most original girl's costume; Terry Thrower, the most original boy's costume; Bud Holmes, the most comical boy and Dabney and Katherine Forehand, the most comical girls.

Frank Roberts was master of ceremonies for the occasion. Lending a helping hand at the party were Jaycees and members of the Varsity Club.

The Woman's Club expresses appreciation to all who contributed to making the party possible.

American Education Week Will Be Observed November 10-16

American Education Week will be observed in local schools November 10 to 16, when the theme for this year will be "Education Strengthens the Nation."

Each day various topics will be stressed that education strengthens the nation, which will be as follows:

- Sunday—Values of Free Men. Monday—Learning Opportunities. Tuesday—Quality Teaching. Wednesday—Balanced Curriculum. Thursday—Community Resources.

20 Years Ago As Found In The Files Of The Chowan Herald

Edenton's Lions Club voted to sponsor another Boy Scout troop and Chief of Police J. R. Tanner agreed to serve as Scoutmaster.

The value of whiskey coupons in North Carolina were cut in half. Under the new ruling each coupon which was good for one pint of whiskey with two coupons redeemable every 15 days was changed to only one pint during the 15-day period.

Mrs. Esther P. Marshburn, assistant USO director, was transferred to Biloxi, Mississippi.

Philip McMullan was appointed tax supervisor for Chowan County by the County Com.

BIBLE LAND TOUR

By MRS. E. L. WARD

Editor's Note: Mrs. E. L. Ward, who during the past summer toured the Holy Land for a period of five weeks, very kindly has written an account of her very pleasant tour.

To walk where Jesus and His disciples walked is to bring the pages of the Bible to life. This is the purpose of the Pilgrimage Associates Tour, of which we were members, to escort us through the Bible lands where associations with ancient people, places and activities are so strong that we would relive the glorious days when the very foundations of Christianity were being formed.

In Who's Who

Miss Frances Holton, daughter of Mrs. David O. Holton of Edenton, has been named to "Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges" from Salem College.

Annual Banquet Of Golf And Country Club November 10

J. C. Pritchett of Windsor Will Present Awards to Tournament Winners

The first annual banquet of the Chowan Golf and Country Club will be held at the Country Club Sunday night, November 10, at 7 o'clock.

Following the dinner trophies will be presented to winners in the recent club tournament.

J. C. Pritchett, prominent attorney of Windsor, will be the guest speaker and will present the awards.

The price of the dinner was collected from the participants in the entrance fee. However, the price of the meal for non-participants and their wives or guests will be $1.50 per person.

Anyone planning to attend the banquet must make meal reservations not later than Friday, November 8.

Chowanian Staff Schedules Variety Show On Nov. 15

Many Features Will Be Presented; Proceeds Go to Purchase Of New Art Board

On Friday night, November 15 at 7:30 o'clock the staff of the Chowan High School, will sponsor a variety show.

The money will also enable the staff to print photographs in more of its issues.

On October 15 auditions were held for this show. At that time the different acts were timed as they were presented and a schedule of events was set up.

Special features of the variety show will include group and individual singing, pantomimes, piano solos, baton twirling, tap dancing and various skits.

Admission will be: Pre-school children, free; grades one through eight, 25 cents; high school students, 35 cents, and adults 50 cents.

The variety show is being directed by Mrs. Robert Hendrix, the commercial teacher at Chowan.

Everyone is invited to come and enjoy an evening filled with local entertainment.

Godwin Speaker At Rotary Today

Scheduled to Speak on Two Very Controversial Issues

Edenton's Rotary Club will meet this (Thursday) afternoon at 1 o'clock in the Parish House.

The program will be in charge of W. J. P. Earnhardt, Jr., who has announced that Philip Godwin of Gatesville will be the speaker.

Mr. Godwin is scheduled to speak on the communist ban bill and redistricting.

Mr. Godwin is scheduled to speak on the communist ban bill and redistricting.

Due to the controversial nature of Mr. Godwin's topics, President Hiram J. Mayo urges every Rotarian to be present.

Land Judging Contest Winners

N. B. Baker, Soil Conservationist in Gates County, is shown presenting a $5.00 check for the Albemarle and Gates Soil and Water Conservation District to the Chowan FFA Chapter for its achievement in winning third place in the Albemarle Future Farmers of America land judging contest held in Gates County Thursday, October 17.

Round-up Time In Edenton

It was round-up time in Edenton Tuesday when an effort was made to capture 33 hogs and 11 steer. It all came about when a cattle truck overturned at the corner of West Queen and Mosely Streets, turning loose the animals, which stampeded all over town.

Edenton police, members of the Street Department, as well as a group of other citizens, joined in the round-up in an effort to capture the animals, many going into yards and even down as far as the business section.

The accident occurred shortly before noon when Vernon Barnett, colored, of Elizabeth City, driver of the truck, quickly applied the brakes to prevent colliding with another truck coming out of Mosely Street, causing the truck to turn over.

Those speaking in behalf of the request were Mrs. Willie Joyner, the Rev. George A. Cooke, Mrs. Kate Boyce, Lester Copeland, Harry Venters and Kenneth Copeland.

Churchwomen To Hold Fall Festival Tuesday, Nov. 12

Highlight of Affair Will Be an Outdoor Carnival to Entertain Children

St. Paul's Churchwomen will hold their Fall Festival Tuesday, November 12, from 11 A. M. to 5 P. M., featuring this year a luncheon, a carnival for children, plants and homemade foods.

A chicken salad lunch will be served from noon to 2 o'clock at St. Paul's Parish House for $1.25 a person.

Admission will be: Pre-school children, free; grades one through eight, 25 cents; high school students, 35 cents, and adults 50 cents.

The variety show is being directed by Mrs. Robert Hendrix, the commercial teacher at Chowan.

Christmas Saving Club Closes Nov. 9

Peoples Bank & Trust Company's 1963 Christmas Saving Club will close Saturday, November 9.

Society Officers Participate In Induction

Pictured above are National Honor Society officers who last week participated in induction of 23 new society members at the John A. Holmes High School.

Edenton Woman's Club Selling Two Kinds Fruit Cakes

One of Ways Club Has Adopted In Order to Raise Money For Various Projects

For the past five years the Edenton Woman's Club has sold Claxton fruit cakes as one of its ways and means projects for the club.

This year the club was contacted by a local organization, the Continental Baking Company, who asked them to sell their cakes, the Hostess Holiday Cake. Since the club had already contracted to sell the Claxton cake for the 1963-64 club year, it agreed to be the sole distributor in Edenton of the Hostess Holiday Cake also.

A list of the cakes available and prices of each is listed below. These cakes can be considered as Christmas gifts as well as purchasers enjoying them.

Commissioners Arrange For Officer At Athletic Contests

Chowan County Commissioners were confronted with a delegation representing the Chowan High School Parent-Teacher Association and the Ryland and Chowan Ruritan Clubs.

The purpose of the delegation was in the interest of securing a deputy sheriff for upper Chowan County and a peace officer at all athletic events at Chowan High School.

Those speaking in behalf of the request were Mrs. Willie Joyner, the Rev. George A. Cooke, Mrs. Kate Boyce, Lester Copeland, Harry Venters and Kenneth Copeland.

Dr. Edward Bond Speaker For DAR

Dinner Meeting Will Be Held at Edenton Restaurant Nov. 13

Dr. Edward G. Bond will address the Edenton Tea Party DAR Chapter at a luncheon meeting Wednesday afternoon, November 13, at 1 o'clock at the Edenton Restaurant.

Dr. Bond, who represents Chowan County on the Advisory Committee of the Albemarle Mental Health Association, will speak on mental health.

Mrs. James P. Ricks, Jr., regent, reminds members to make reservations for the luncheon meeting by Monday.

W. J. P. Earnhardt, Jr., regent, reminds members to make reservations for the luncheon meeting by Monday.

W. J. P. Earnhardt, Jr., regent, reminds members to make reservations for the luncheon meeting by Monday.

W. J. P. Earnhardt, Jr. Assistant To Solicitor

Joining a number of counties, Chowan County Commissioners on Monday employed an assistant to Solicitor Walter Cohoon to serve at the mixed terms of Chowan Superior Court.

W. J. P. Earnhardt was appointed to this position at a salary of $100 per term.

Changes Made For Bookmobile Schedule

Since Thanksgiving Day falls on November 28, the bookmobiles will make the following changes in their schedules and will come on Wednesday, November 13th at the usual time.

Bookmobile No. 1 (Mrs. Alexander, Librarian): Marine Base Road, Indian Trail Road, Highway No. 32.

Bookmobile No. 2 (Mrs. Harris, Librarian): Mexicana Road, Band Road, Rocky Hock, Cannon's Ferry.

Ed Bond Post To Sponsor Observing Veterans Day In Edenton November 11

Band Parents To Sponsor Supper

Effort Made November 15 to Curtail Indebtedness of Band

The John A. Holmes High School Band Parents will sponsor a country ham supper on Friday, November 15.

The menu includes country ham, candied yams, string beans, carrots, pickles, celery and homemade rolls.

Tickets may be obtained from any band parent for $1.00. All proceeds will be used to help eliminate the band's indebtedness.

Commissioners Arrange For Officer At Athletic Contests

Chowan County Commissioners were confronted with a delegation representing the Chowan High School Parent-Teacher Association and the Ryland and Chowan Ruritan Clubs.

The purpose of the delegation was in the interest of securing a deputy sheriff for upper Chowan County and a peace officer at all athletic events at Chowan High School.

Those speaking in behalf of the request were Mrs. Willie Joyner, the Rev. George A. Cooke, Mrs. Kate Boyce, Lester Copeland, Harry Venters and Kenneth Copeland.

Tom Ford Moving To Lexington, Va.

Melvin Braxton Successor as Goodyear Store Manager

Many Edenton friends will regret to learn that Tom Ford, manager of the Edenton Goodyear Store, and his family will soon leave Edenton.

Dr. Bond, who represents Chowan County on the Advisory Committee of the Albemarle Mental Health Association, will speak on mental health.

Mrs. James P. Ricks, Jr., regent, reminds members to make reservations for the luncheon meeting by Monday.

W. J. P. Earnhardt, Jr., regent, reminds members to make reservations for the luncheon meeting by Monday.

Tar Heel Chapter, 30th Infantry Division, Has Reunion Saturday

The Tar Heel Chapter of the 30th Infantry Division Association met in Edenton Saturday, November 2.

W. J. P. Earnhardt, Jr., regent, reminds members to make reservations for the luncheon meeting by Monday.

Crippled Aces Defeated 28 To 0 By Powerful Plymouth Panthers

Edenton's Aces, weakened by the absence of several of their stalwarts, played courageously but proved to be no match for the big, fast and deceptive Plymouth Panthers Friday night in Plymouth when the Panthers won by a score of 28-0.

The Aces keenly felt the absence of Walter Small, Dwight Flannagan and Clyde Adams, who were sidelined by injuries.

The Aces entered the game in the underdog role, but despite the badly crippled team, they threw a scare in the Panther camp after the opening kick-off.

Edenton's Aces, weakened by the absence of several of their stalwarts, played courageously but proved to be no match for the big, fast and deceptive Plymouth Panthers Friday night in Plymouth when the Panthers won by a score of 28-0.

Mayor John Mitchener Calls Upon Citizens to Join In Celebration

Citizens of Edenton and Chowan County are invited to participate in the annual observance of Veterans Day Monday, November 11, sponsored by Edward G. Bond Post No. 40 of the American Legion, with the cooperation and support of John A. Holmes High School.

Post Commander W. A. Perry, in issuing the invitation, announced that a community committee had been appointed to organize this year's observance of this patriotic holiday.

Chairman of the committee is C. A. Boyce, Adjutant. Other members of the committee are J. L. Chestnut and Dick Lovette.

By its participation in this patriotic holiday, Edward G. Bond Post will be joining with the more than 16,000 local Legion organizations throughout the nation and overseas in the observance of Veterans Day.

In its invitation to the residents of Edenton and Chowan County to join in the Veterans Day observance, the committee urges that every effort be made to turn this holiday into a dynamic demonstration of patriotism.

Continued on Page 4, Section 1

Edenton Jaycettes Will Meet Tonight

The Edenton Jaycettes will hold their regular meeting tonight (Thursday) at 7 o'clock at the Edenton Restaurant.

The Elizabeth City Jaycettes will visit the local club at this meeting, and Mrs. Margie Ford, president, urges all members to be present.

CIVIC CALENDAR

American Education Week will be observed in Edenton schools November 10 to 16.

First annual banquet of the Chowan Golf and Country Club will be held at the Country Club Sunday night, November 10, at 7 o'clock.

Churchwomen of St. Paul's Episcopal Church will hold their fall festival at the Parish House Tuesday, November 12, from 11 A. M. to 5 P. M.

Continued on Page 8—Section 1

BANKS CLOSED NOV. 11 Peoples Bank & Trust Company and the Consumer Credit Branch will be closed all day Monday, November 11.

The closing is due to the observance of Veterans' Day, so that important business should be transacted accordingly. Both banks will be open as usual Tuesday morning.

Continued on Page 7—Section 1

Continued on Page 7—Section 1

Continued on Page 7—Section 1

Continued on Page 7—Section 1

Continued on Page 7—Section 1

Continued on Page 7—Section 1

Continued on Page 7—Section 1