

WITH THE FARM WOMEN

By MAIDRED MORRIS

Wills And Inheritance Laws

Do you understand the wills and inheritance laws? An attorney in Wilson, Cyrus Lee, spoke at a county-wide Home Demonstration Club meeting in Wilson County. Lee discussed property disposition according to the 1960 Inheritance Law and underlined the recent changes in the statutes. Miss Naomi Morris, gave a detailed study of making wills.

Mrs. Ona Humphrey, home economics agent, says the meeting climaxed a month's study by area clubs on the importance of having wills.

Sells Home Products

"There's more than one way to sell a product," says Mrs. Bill Folkerts and Mrs. W. M. Robertson of the Chapel Hill Club in Washington County.

Mrs. Folkerts had an abundance of pecans she hadn't sold, so she is making pecan pies to sell and has more orders than she can fill. Mrs. Robertson is getting a better price for her eggs by using them in cakes than by selling them by the dozen. Mrs. Frances Darden, home economics agent, says Mrs. Robertson bakes and decorates birthday and wedding cakes on special order.

Reports On Foods

Food leaders in Lee County are going all out to reach the people in their county with information on foods. Miss Mary Estelle Doyle, home economics agent, says the food supply leaders are encouraging the production of vitamin C and A foods in the gardens.

The conservation leaders are getting an early start by giving reports on the use of the pressure canner. They are also giving information on how to freeze grapes, juices and peanuts of which many families have an abundance.

Homemakers Digest

The "Homemakers Digest" has been placed in an industrial plant in Hayesville. Mrs. Justine Rozier, home economics agent, says the "Digest" is a bulletin board containing items of interest to working homemakers.

Since many homemakers are now working, Mrs. Rozier thinks this will be a good way to help them stay in contact with the Agricultural Extension Service.

Landscaping Plans

Since February is a good month for transferring plants in the yard, many homemakers have been busy. Miss Martha Purvis, assistant home economics agent in Sampson County, says

Mrs. W. C. Moore, Clinton, has been working on a plan for her yard.

Due to many different size windows in her house and many corners, she has been transferring azaleas to a side yard and is planting new shrubs around the house.

Tailoring Workshops

Many tailoring workshops are going on through the state. In Forsyth County, they have started another series of meetings. Miss Elizabeth Jo Edmondson, assistant home economics agent, says 29 women attended the first session of the spring tailoring class.

Mrs. Russell Spikula, a member of the fall tailoring class, is assisting in teaching this class. She has made demonstration material to use in teaching. Miss Edmondson is also teaching a tailoring class on television in an effort to reach a larger audience.

Hopkins Captain Of College Golf Team

Edenton friends will be interested to know that Steve Hopkins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Hopkins, is captain of the Central Missouri State College golf team. The team has played five spring matches and won all five.

Hopkins has turned in scores of 70-67-68-73-70 for matches. His team has played matches with Northwest Missouri College, Lincoln University and Grace-Land University. Hopkins is a sophomore at Central Missouri State. His wife is the former Shelley Overton of Hertford, who is teaching in the public school system.
