Edenton merchants have agreed to remain open Saturday, July 4, observe Independence Day.

In connection with the store opening, merchants have planned three big days of savings in order to attract shoppers to Edenton. These big days will be observed today (Thursday) Friday and Saturday, during which many special bargains will be offered to shoppers. During the three days many timely items have been drastically reduced which will prove to be money-saving purchases. Edenton merchants have d clared an all-out war on prices on timely merchandise for the home and family, and they are
