

The Whirlpool Of Sin

By Terry Jones

"And they that passed by rail- ed on him, wagging their heads and saying, 'Ah, thou that de- stroyest the temple, and buildest it in three days, save thyself, and come down from the cross.' —Mark 15:29-30.

A few days ago I heard an ex- pression used concerning the people who mocked Jesus on the cross. I thought the expression "the whirlpool of sin" was very descriptive of the scene around the cross. For as Jesus was dy- ing the people walked around and mocked Him by shouting all sorts of insults at Him. The Bible says that even the chief priests were there mocking Him, saying, "He saved others; Him- self He cannot save."

There was a group of people who thought they were doing their duty towards God: that of putting to death one who insult- ed God by claiming to be His Son. I'm sure as they filed around the cross that day they felt perfectly self righteous. Bu I wonder how they would have felt if they had known that the young man hanging on the cross really was the Son of God. So they were actually not throwing insults. They were throwing "insults." They were caught in the whirlpool of sin and didn't even know it.

There are a great many people living today who think that the things they are doing are right- eous, yet they, too, are caught in the whirlpool of sin and are too blind to see it.

How can we tell if we are in the whirlpool of sin? There is only one way—if Christ is ab- sent from our daily living, then He must not be present in our hearts either. And if He isn't in our hearts, then we are filing around the cross in the whirl- pool of sin. "He that is not with me is against me." — Matthew 12:30.

YEOPIM 4-H CLUB MEETS

The Yeopim 4-H Club held its regular meeting July 8 at the new 4-H Club House. The meet- ing was called to order by the president, James Brabble. The pledge of allegiance was given and the 4-H Club pledge was repeated. The Scripture was given by Sue Brabble, after which the Lord's Prayer was prayed. The secretary, Connie Overton, read the minutes and called the roll.

James Brabble gave a brief report on the 4-H District Dem- onstration Day which was held in Chowan County on June 10 at Chowan High School. Harry Venters gave a talk on 4-H Club Week which is held at Raleigh. Members played a game and following that very delicious re- freshments were served by Con- nie, Debbie and Nancy Overton. —Tommy Brabble, Reporter.

ROMANTIQUE COLORS BY MASURY

Masury—The House of a hundred thousand Colors presents its new collection of Romantic Colors for the discriminating decorator. These colors, available in a complete line of superior interior finishes are the end result of years of observation and collecting in this country and abroad. Here are colors to reflect your good taste today... and for many tomorrows.

PERFECTION Alkyd Flat Enamel

The most durable of flat wall finishes. Perfection alkyd flat offers a finish which combines a rich flat surface and unusual resistance to wear and washing. A true alkyd enamel with a flat finish. It may be applied with roller, brush or spray, dries in from one to two hours, and is odorless.

WANDA PERFECTION Semi-Gloss Finish

The sheen of polished satin in Masury's Romantic Colors. This finish, with its easy to wash, easy to dust surface is selected by discriminating decorators for woodwork, kitchens, baths, laundries and play-rooms, or wherever beauty and the easiest of cleaning must be combined. An odorless finish which dries overnight.

LA MODERNE WANDA Queen of Rubber Base Flat Wall Finishes

It goes on swiftly and easily with roller, brush or spray, and dries with- out paining in a half hour or less. Requires no priming and may be used over plaster, wallboard, composition board, masonry or practically any paintable interior surface. Equipment washes up with soap and water.
