A LIFT FOR TODAY

If any man among you seem to be religious, and brideth not his tongue, but deceiveth his own heart, this man's religion is vain.—James 1:26.

Characteristics of a true Christian are self-control, charity, love, purity and holiness. Does our religion measure up to this standard?

O God, we re-consecrate our lives to Thee. May we always concentrate on those things that are praiseworthy in Thy sight.

Doubled In Spades — or Guns

It is one of the ironies of modern society that preparations for war invariably lead to great advances in times of peace — in medicine, for example; in chemical developments, and above all in transportation.

Recently, to meet the demands of present-day brushfire warfare, Lockheed Aircraft delivered the first of its C-141 Star-Lifter jet carrier planes, designed to carry twice the load of any previous airfreighter; to fly faster and to go farther non-stop. The planes are now in operational use, and their effect on the logistics of warfare in remote places like Vietnam may well be imagined. No less dramatic are their possible application to peacetime and commercial usages.

Imagine a disaster, flood or earthquake, anywhere in the world. The new jet carriers could fly tractors or bulldozers to clear the wreckage and begin immediately the work of reconstruction within hours anywhere in the world. A complete hospital could be rushed to the scene, with needed surgical equipment, therapeutic machines, hospital beds and tents, as well as doctors and nurses, to give long-range therapy as well as emergency aid to the victims.

Air freight has proved its commercial value, particularly in the shipment of perishable goods and emergency equipment. In the area of general cargo it has opened up new international markets, tapped new sources previously too remote for practical trade. The new planes, when in mass operation, would put air freight into the wholesale business on a scale hitherto unimaginable.

All this is still in the pioneer stage, to be sure. But some idea of the speed of progress, stimulated by war orders, may be gained from the fact that even before the first of the C-141 StarLifters had been delivered, MATS (Military Air Transport Service) called for bids on a C-5A, 725,000-pound cargo plane capable of carrying a 100-ton payload, whose size was twice again that of the C-141. This was in turn twice that of any previous airfreighter.

Lockheed, a veteran in manufacturing airlift planes, even while it was getting into production the C-141, was shaping up to meet the specifications on the C-5A, which will be the world's largest aircraft — capable of carrying six Greyhound buses at one time.

Military orders may run into more than a billion dollars. The heavy cargo trade lanes of the future will soar above the Seven Seas.

One of life's peculiarities is that when you are busiest a friend drops in to talk about his stomach-aches.

If the average person thought less about getting and more about giving, this might be a better world for everybody.

If you can keep from being envious and jealous of your fellow-man you are approaching the outskirts of civilization.

Hard work is probably a good thing for mankind but there are many people who want very little of the good things.

The best way to become financially independent is to learn how to say "no" to yourself and keep your money for future

Heard & Seen

"By Buff"

Now that the North Carolina General Assembly has closed shop for the 1965 session one reads that the legislators enacted 1,209 bills of the 1,804 considered. It was about the average for other recent sessions and with so many laws gradually put on the books, how many of us know when we are violating one of 'em? Sort of brings to mind the old country constable who stopped a car and told the driver he was under arrest. "For what?" asked the motorist. "Well, I don't exactly know," replied the constable looking at the state license tag, "but you couldn't have traveled this far without breaking some of our laws."

Friend Leroy Haskett has been a patient in Norfolk General Hospital for about a week. I understand he was examined from the longest hair on his head to the sole of his feet. He told his wife he expected to be released last Sunday. Later he said it would be Monday, then Tuesday and the latest was that he would come home Wednesday of this week. Here's hoping he made it, for he said he wanted to come home—and the sooner the better. Well, who blames him?

Sunday should be a big day at the Rocky Hock Baptist Church, when the congregation will observe the 130th anniversary of the founding of this very popular church. Preacher Thurman Allred hopes a huge crowd turns out for the affair and was kind enough to invite yours truly. The ceremonies begin at 10:30 o'clock Sunday morning and Mr. Allred will be served on the grounds at 12:30. Here's hoping that I can make it and that a lot of others will enjoy the festivities of a group which is very proud of their church.

Methodists in Edenton are well pleased with the appointments made at the recent conference held in Raleigh. Rev. E. C. Shoaf was returned to the local church, which is to the liking of just about every member and a lot of other friends as well. Tony Miley substituted for Mr. Shoaf last Sunday and delivered a very interesting sermon, but Mr. Shoaf is scheduled to be back in harness next Sunday and, of course, he'd like to preach to a large crowd.

Alton Elmore presented a very interesting film at last week's Rotary meeting which had to do with the problem of shoplifting. It was surprising to see just what methods are used in pilfering all kinds of merchandise, which included women stuffing many kinds of items in their panties, which must have been a few sizes too large or else very stretchy. Then same tucked items between their legs and a number of other slick ways were shown of how people swipe all kinds of merchandise. And it is a fact, too, that there's some shoplifters' right here in Edenton. The film pointed out the importance of merchants and clerks to be on the lookout for people who are wont to steal, some of whom are able to pay for what they conceal without forking up the dough.

Sgt. Fred K. Harrell, Marine Corps recruiter, was a delighted fellow Wednesday when he called from Norfolk to tell me four local boys had enlisted in the Marine Corps, the first recruits he had gotten from Chowan County in over three years. The quartet includes Ernest L. Nixon, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Nixon, Route 2; Wilbur R. Wheeler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Grover Wheeler, 809 North Oakum Street; James S. Arnold, Jr., son of Mrs. Gladys Arnold, 202 First Street, and Wilbur S. Craig, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Craig of Atlanta, Ga. Young Craig has been living with his grandmother, Mrs. Charlie S. Morgan, 111 Oakum Street. The boys arrived at Parris Island, S. C., Wednesday morning of this week for 12 weeks of training, after which they will be sent to Camp Lejeune for four weeks before being assigned to other bases. Here's hoping the new Edenton Marines will like their Marine duties and bring honor to themselves as well as Edenton.

Town Councilmen wrestled with fig-

is needed since the two existing employees spend most of their time with Electric & Water Department affairs, leaving necessary administrative work undone. In the police department, the council approved salary increases for all policemen. The chief's salary remains the same. Funds were also allocated to replace all old parking meters with new ones.

Volunteer firemen, who have been paid a token $1 per call in the past will now get $2 as well as additional money for fires which last a considerable length of time. Gardner called this the most important raise in the entire budget.

Regular firemen also were given salary adjustments. Plans were also made to buy a new fire truck at an estimated cost of $20,000. On a lease-purchase plan, the town budgeted $5,000 for this year to go towards the truck.

The street department has a budget of $95,240 with the salary of all employees being adjusted. Included in this budget for new equipment is a street sweeper and stump cutter to enable the department to rid the town of existing eye-sores.

At the conclusion of the meeting Mayor John A. Mitchener read a letter of resignation from Mrs. Kathryn Goodwin from the zoning board. The resignation was accepted with regrets.

Also, the council received a letter from H. McKay Phthisic, Jr., requesting them to repeal the recommendation of the zoning board concerning some property he has purchased on US 17 north.

ures until about the midnight hour Tuesday night, when they approved the town's budget for the fiscal year 1965-66. The Councilmen considered every item in the budget, which consumed a lot of time and which was sort of disappointing for J. D. Elliott. J. D. hoped to get through by about 10:30 for a very special reason, but who ever heard of a town budget being considered and approved in a mere two hours and a half? Anyway, the councilmen were able to come up with figures which resulted in the same tax rate as last year—an even buck.

Here's one, like some other people in Edenton, who has had a lot of company lately and expects more. It's very nice to have company and the Bufflap household enjoys having 'em. However, the watches of some visitors apparently stop, for in some cases it's usually in the wee sma' hours that a fellow can "hit the hay," and daylight arrives when it seems we've just gotten to sleep. Anybody else have the same experience? The trouble is that there's so much to talk about in so little amount of time.

Just in case you do not know it, my calendar lists Monday of this week, June 21, as the beginning of summer.

Short Docket Heard In Court

Two Merry Hill Negroes were convicted Tuesday in Chowan Recorder's Court for speeding in excess of 80 miles an hour and speed competition.

Eugene Wilson, 22, and Fred Rudolph Robbins, 18, both of Route 1, Merry Hill, were given identical sentences by Judge William S. Privott.

They were given 60 days for speeding, but this sentence was suspended upon payment of $40 fine and court costs. For speed competition, the Negroes were given 90 days, suspended upon payment of $50 fine.

State Trooper R. W. Rawls testified that he arrested the defendants on June 6, three miles north of Edenton on U. S. 17.

In other action during the short session of court, Desota Hurdle was convicted of assault on a female. He was sentenced to six months on the roads, but the sentence was suspended upon payment of $25 fine and costs. He was also ordered not to assault his wife for two years and buy her a new pair of glasses.

Lloyd Roberts, charged with failing to have an operator's license, was called and failed to appear.

The following waivers, all for traffic violations, were recorded:

Nancy Allen Madlin, Earl Myles, Terry Alfred Nixon and John Horace Sharpe.
