

BROAD STREET BULLETIN

Keep a smile on your face and a laugh in your throat, As you walk down the street each day. You just might get a chance to use them To brighten someone's way.

No one likes a grouch, Market and food sale on not even you. But I'll bet October 19. you that nine times out of ten, if you give a smile you'll get one in return.

Last week I asked about sweet peppers and I was surprised and very pleased to get quite a few, plenty in fact, to make the Pepper Relish-Jam. Mrs. Fred Drane who, by the way, with Rev. Drane, is traveling, sent me peppers and on Thursday I went down to see Mrs. Edgar Pearce, who had about a peck of peppers—not pickled. Then Mrs. Maude Reaves also came to my rescue with a batch of the things. The relish is very good and I'm planning to give some of it to our Methodist Church to sell at our big Flea

Again on Saturday we went to the beach to fish and we ate all three fish which we caught—two blues and one hog fish. We travelled from Rod-anthe to Kitty Hawk—no fish. However, they tell us that after the storms, the fish will be plentiful—but I wonder where?

One gentleman I'll miss each week on my rounds is Mr. John J. Ross. He always had a smile and seemed such a gentle man. A great attribute to a good life.

In the understandable absence of Mrs. J. J. Ross at the organ of the Methodist Church this past Sunday, Rosemary Holmes, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. George Holmes, substituted for her. She is quite talented, done a perfect job with much ease and confidence.

Society News

Mr. and Mrs. James Bond, Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Nixon, Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Harrell and Mr. and Mrs. Tom Cross spent the weekend at Nags Head.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Moore and daughters and Miss Pat Reaves spent Saturday at Nags Head.

Mr. and Mrs. Larry Williams and daughters spent Sunday in Norfolk visiting Mr. Williams' aunts, Mrs. Willo Banks and Miss Louise Sitterson.

Mrs. George P. Byrum left last week for West Palm Beach, Fla., where she will spend the winter.

Mrs. Edward O. Smith and daughter, Rebecca Hart of Pasadena, Calif., are visiting Mrs. Smith's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hollowell.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Holmes and Mr. and Mrs. Jasper Holmes, Jr., visited Mrs. Jasper Holmes, Sr., at Norfolk General Hospital on Monday.

W. H. Hollowell attended a Lions State Council meeting in Winston-Salem during the weekend.

When hunting peppers last week, a friend and I just happened to stop at Gib Perry's and Robey's Red Barn merely to browse. They both are used to women who are "just looking" and seem happy that you stop—even to being given a cup of coffee or a coke.

I've got a "dry run" on recipes this week and I would certainly love to receive some new ones. Either call me or drop them in to The Chowan Herald.

A Few Hints

To stop an annoying cough or hiccups, try sucking a piece of lemon.

Avoid fat fires while broiling in the oven by placing a few slices of bread under the broiling rack in the oven. The bread will soap up the dripping fat.

"7,000 pounds of peanuts in 70 minutes—at night!"
Edward Vaughan, Murfreesboro, N. C.

"You can depend on the Lilliston 1500 Combine to work fast and well in all harvesting conditions. There have been times when we've used it to pick all night. One night, we picked 7,000 pounds of peanuts in an hour and ten minutes. That's really picking, I think. The 1500 is a well-built machine; it has good engineering in it."

NOTE: Mr. Vaughan is a former champion peanut grower of Hertford County, North Carolina.

"We like everything about the 1500"
Sam and Charles Kitchen, Yale, Virginia

"The speed is fine and it picks good under most conditions. It's a well-built machine, quiet and easy to adjust. 1966 was our first year with the 1500 and we like everything about it. We got 3,300 to 3,400 pounds of peanuts per acre."
