Local Soldier Is In Vietnam

DA NANG, Vietnam—Marine Private First Class Elvin L. Spivey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elvin L. Spivey, Route 2, Edenton, N. C., is serving with Marine Air Base Squadron 16, Marine Aircraft Group 16, First Marine Aircraft Wing near Da Nang, Vietnam.

His squadron furnishes airbase facilities and services (except airfield construction) for supported units, and supplements airbase facilities and services when attached to air stations or facilities.

In addition to attacking enemy personnel and installations, aircraft of the First Marine Aircraft Wing airlift troops to battle zones, evacuate personnel, fly resupply missions and provide close air support for U. S. Marine and allied ground forces engaged in combat operations.

Shopping With You In Mind

A fascinating place to go is the Griffin Musicenter, where music really "fills the air." Zenith and Decca stereos in consoles, table models and portables, giving the finest tones in music. A complete line of the latest in all recordings. Tape recorders and the popular 4 and 8 track stereo tapes are now available at the Griffin Musicenter.

There's a new and different batch of extra specials at the P & Q Super Market each week, but seems that this week's values top them all. Imagine fresh, tender fryers at 22c a pound; pork chops at 59c; Chatham pork sausage, 3 pounds for $1; 12-ounce Armour Star bacon at 49c. I like that Hall's bread, too, which is selling for 10c a loaf. Applies at their best, 4 pounds for 39c. One counter especially good to see is the one with the assortment of fruits and nuts, just in time to stock up for fruit cake making—at the P & Q Super Market.

CARD OF THANKS

A very special thank you to the many, many friends in Edenton who remembered me with such beautiful cards, gifts and prayers during my lengthy stay in the hospital in Richmond, Va. Your kindness will always be remembered in a very special way.

Sincerely,
LINDA LEARY,
(Mrs. T. W. Beach)
