Edenton Police Learn First Aid

Members of Edenton Police Department have successfully completed a first aid course, according to Chief J. D. Parrish.

The 12-hour course in basic first aid methods was taught by Murray Ashley, director of Civil Defense. Chief Parrish said techniques learned in this course will enable members of the department to render better service at times of emergencies.

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to take this opportunity to thank everyone for being so kind to me while I was a patient in the Albemarle Hospital and since returning home. For the prayers, cards, visits and every act of kindness, I am sincerely grateful. May the Lord bless each of you.

Mrs. William Corpew.

General Council of the Assemblies of God; Rev. Theodore L. Tucker, Chairman, Africa Council, National Council of the Churches of Christ in the United States of America; Dr. Arnold T. Olson, President, Evangelical Free Church of America; Dr. Howard Moody Morgan, Pastor Chambers - Wylie Memorial United Presbyterian Church; His Eminence Archbishop Iakovos, Greek Orthodox Church, North and South America; Dr. Edwin H. Tuller, General Secretary, American Baptist Convention; Dr. Clyde W. Taylor, General Director, Evangelical Foreign Missions Association in change—Mr. Lindaman helped organize a nationwide series of Theonetics Symposiums to encourage church leaders to enter into dialogue with the change makers of the nation. To this end he has brought top executives of science, industry, education and government into direct confrontation with leaders and theologians of several denominations.

Others participating in the program included: Dr. Thomas F. Zimmerman, General Superintendent, Commission for Africa, serving as chairman of the ECA sessions in Addis Ababa. Referring to the Apollo executive speaker, Mr. Madsen said that "while deeply involved in the industrial phase of the Apollo program, Mr. Lindaman has spoken on human values in an age of expanding science and technology to civic, educational, industrial and religious groups throughout the United States. As national president of United Presbyterian men, he has discussed the relationship of science to religion with laymen across the nation. Coining the word theonetics—the study of God in change—Mr. Lindaman helped organize a nationwide series of Theonetics Symposiums to encourage church leaders to enter into dialogue with the change makers of the nation. To this end he has brought top executives of science, industry, education and government into direct confrontation with leaders and theologians of several denominations."

Chowan's Student Council met Friday to plan an assembly program for the student body to be held tomorrow. A constitution will be presented to the students for a vote.

The Ciampi String Quartet of Duke University performed in the Ernest A. Swain Elementary School auditorium Monday. Chowan High School was privileged to attend the concert.

Performed by the quartet were excerpts from Mozart Quartet in Eb Major; Beethoven Quartet, Opus 18; Ravel Quartet in F Major; Walter Piston Quartet. The program proved to be both interesting and entertaining.

Many hours of practice have gone into preparing for a Christmas cantata to be presented by the Glee Club Sunday, December 10 at 4 P. M. in the Chowan High School auditorium.

Chowan's PTA float won first place when it was presented in the annual Christmas parade in Edenton Monday afternoon.

Chowan's Bulldogs play the Camden Rebels tomorrow night in the Chowan gymnasium. Beginning at 8 o'clock will be the JV game. The varsity girls' game starts at 7:30 and the varsity boys follow.
