CHILI PORK AND BEANS make a delightful combination for these cold winter days. Served with broiled weiners, it becomes a well-balanced meal.

By MILDRED HUSKINS

Beans and wiener time is upon us again. Through February and even March homemakers are trying to figure ways to feed their families nutritious, flavorful foods at low cost.

A recent national survey showed that while the population increased 19 per cent during the last 10 years the sale of pork and beans went up 47 per cent.

So, we have put together for you a few recipes for using beans and weiners. We hope they will help you plan your meals these winter days.

Through Years

Here is one answer—saucy pork and beans with a wiener accent. The flavors blend perfectly. Pork and beans furnish an ample supply of calcium, iron and protein along with many of the important vitamins and weiners accent it with a tasty flavor.

Through the years pork and beans have been a basic food for our boys in combat because of their appetite appeal, nutritional value and good source of food energy. Beans date back as far as prehistoric days when primitive man first used the dried beans for bullets and later learned of their important role in feeding the family.

Today we find many a homemaker personalizing her beans and weiners dish by adding a special touch of fruits, spices or herbs—while others prefer the original mildness of the juicy weiners nestled deep into the pork and beans. Either way, it is a wholesome combination and an answer to the modern homemaker for a flavorful, nutritional and convenient meal.

There are many approaches. Here are a few:

Chili Pork And Beans
 1/2 cup chopped onion,
 1/2 cup chopped green pepper,
 2 tablespoons butter or margarine, melted,
 1 can (1 lb. 5 oz.) Van Camp's Pork and Beans,
 1 can (15 1/2 oz.) Van Camp's Chili Beans,
 1 can (8 oz.) Stokely's

Finest Tomato Sauce,
 1 bay leaf,
 1/2 teaspoon chili powder,
 1 teaspoon cumin powder (optional),
 1/2 teaspoon sugar,
 1/2 teaspoon garlic powder,
 6 weiners.
 Saute onion and green pepper in melted butter. Add remaining ingredients except weiners and simmer on medium heat for 15 minutes. Serve with broiled weiners. Makes six servings.

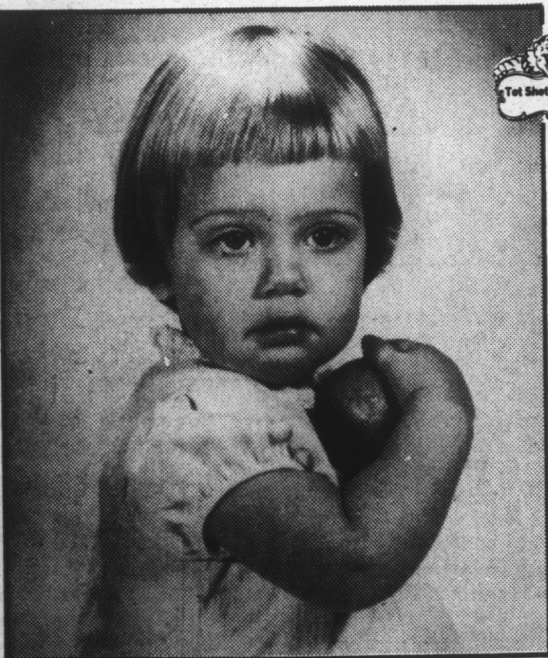

Dandy Bean Dogs
 Place pork and beans in shallow baking dish. Split weiners lengthwise; spread each with mustard or horseradish and fill with a strip of cheese. Place weiners on top of beans and bake at 350 degrees for about 20 minutes. Serve with juicy pickles.

Fireside Pork And Beans
 3 slices bacon,
 2 tablespoons celery, finely chopped,
 2 tablespoons onion, finely chopped,
 2 tablespoons green pepper, chopped,
 1 can (1 lb. 5 oz.) Van Camp's Pork and Beans,
 2 tablespoons Stokely's Finest Catsup,
 1 tablespoon brown sugar,
 1 tablespoon molasses,
 2 drops Tabasco sauce,
 Lightly brown bacon; remove from skillet. Saute celery, onion and green pepper in bacon drippings until tender. Combine with remaining ingredients in a 1-quart casserole. Top with bacon. Bake at 350 degrees for one hour. Makes 4 to 5 servings.

India Curry Beans
 1 can (1 lb. 5 oz.) Van Camp's Pork and Beans,
 2 tablespoon onion, chopped,
 1 teaspoon curry powder,
 1 teaspoon parsley flakes,
 2 teaspoons vinegar,
 4 weiners, finely chopped.

Combine all the ingredients in a 1 1/2-quart casserole. Bake at 375 degrees for 25 minutes. Makes 4 to 6 servings.

Kline-Partin Wedding Held In Winston-Salem

Miss Rhoda Joanne Kline became the bride of Jim Pittman Partin, Jr., of Edenton on January 28 in the First Christian Church, Winston-Salem. Dr. Kermit Traylor officiated.

Mrs. Partin is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Burdette Kline of Boulder, Colo. She attended Wake Forest University, where she was secretary of the S.O.P.H. Society and a member of Phi Sigma Iota romance language fraternity.

Mr. Partin, son of Mr. Partin of Edenton and the late Mrs. Partin, was graduated from Wake Forest, where he was a member of Pi Kappa Alpha fraternity. He is presently a member of the faculty at Chowan High School.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore an empire skimmer in ivory bridal satin. The bodice, designed with elbow sleeves and scalloped neckline, was of re-embroidered Alencon lace.

The "A" line skirt had a pyramid of lace in front. The removable chapel train was embroidered with lace. She wore a shoulder length mantilla edged in matching lace and attached to a pill box of peau silk. She carried a bouquet of white rosebuds and valley lilies.

Miss Susan Rivenbark of Greensboro was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Rosalind Duck of Mars Hill, Miss Becky Stevenson of Hickory, Miss Jenni Jacober of Westerville, Ohio, and Miss Cora Herl of Vienna, Va. Their gowns, of chiffon in orange ice, were cage style, high scooped neckline and short sleeves with low scooped back from which flowed a wattleau panel. Their headpieces were velvet leaves with fingertip illusion. They carried bouquets of yellow and bronze chrysanthemums.

Karl F. Tutt of Winston-Salem was best man. Ushers were Gus Hughes of Durham, David Pugh of New Bern, Phil Harrell of Edenton and Al Viehman of Inman, S. C.

A reception at the American Legion Home on Miller Street was held after the wedding.

After a honeymoon at The Homestead in Hot Springs, Va., the couple is making their home at Bluegill Circle in Edenton.

Tips Tell How To Modernize

Is a bathroom remodeling project on the agenda? Here are some tips.

1. In addition to the conventional three fixtures of tub, lavatory and water closet, more and more bathrooms are including bidets. This personal hygiene device, pronounced "bee-day," is installed next to the water closet. For more information, write Plumbing Fixture Manufacturers Association, 1145 19th Street, N. W., Washington, D. C. 20036 and ask for free bidet flyer.

2. Top-quality bathroom fixtures are stain- and acid-resistant, easier to keep clean, maintain luster longer. For information on how to recognize quality, the Plumbing Fixture Manufacturers Association (address above) has a free flyer entitled, "What You Should Know about Plumbing Fixtures for Your Home."

3. Don't have space for a bathroom? Investigate the possibilities of a compact powder room. Most older homes have such space in a closet, under a stairwell or at the end of a hall.

A powder room can be installed in a space as little as four-by-five feet, says the Plumbing - Heating - Cooling Information Bureau.

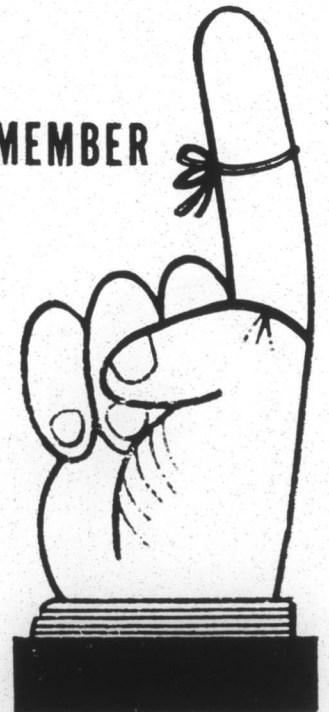

COUNTERTOPS ARE DO-IT-YOURSELF

Now on the market is a new do-it-yourself kitchen counter-topping which the home owner can handle. It's pliable vinyl, which the manufacturer says is easy to cut, bend and adhere to old surfaces.

The vinyl is much like vinyl tiles that handymen have been putting on floors for years, only it isn't quite as thick, for ease of handling. Wearing surface is just as tough as the floor surface.

The countertoppings have sculptured, textured and smooth surfaces, color-coordinated with vinyl floor patterns.
