Though now at home from the hospital, the body is too weak to be up long enough to fill this column again this week.

To put my feet on the ground again
Is a blessing I won't forget,
I loved each blade of grass I saw
And every spring bulb I met.

Some serious lessons we must learn
As through this life we plod,
The little things we scarcely see
Are precious gifts of God.

Carter's Ink Supports Visit By Bloodmobile

One-fourth of all prospective donors during a recent visit of the Red Cross Bloodmobile came from The Carter's Ink Company, says Burt Hughes, volunteer bloodmobile chairman for the sponsoring Edenton Jaycees.

Hughes said 88 persons volunteered to donate blood and 22 of them were from the local industry. A total of 18 persons were rejected, so the visit fell 30 pints below the quota.

The chairman said this is the second straight visit that the quota has not been met.

Those who visited the bloodmobile included:

Mrs. S. W. Moore, Jr., Jim Jenkins, Anna Jane Ambrose, Francis Spruill, Loretta Phelps, Ann Ambrose, Frank Habit, Mrs. Jackie Mansfield, Mrs. Faye O. Harrell, Troy Toppin, Lloyd W. Evans, Willie L. CARD OF THANKS

We wish to take this opportunity to thank all of our friends for the kindnesses and sympathy extended to us during the illness of our mother, Mrs. Mary Blount. We sincerely thank each and everyone.

The Blount Family.

At It Again
Those that drive school busses for a living are again at it, say the small fry.
