

McMullan Boys Help Rescue Unite

Two young contributors demonstrated their good will this week in answering the call for financial assistance by the Edenton-Chowan Rescue Squad.

They were Henry and Mike McMullan, sons of Mrs. Catherine McMullan and grandsons of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Campen, 301 South Granville Street. The boys wanted to do their part, so on their own they conducted a fund campaign within their home. Beginning with a contribution from their own money they then solicited each member of the household.

The boys, justifiably proud, presented to the captain of the rescue squad the money they had collected.

Capt. James P. Ricks, Jr., said, "with this attitude of thoughtfulness for others demonstrated by these boys and others who give the rescue squad will continue its volunteer service to the community."

Ricks reported that the rescue squad fund campaign has just passed

$1,000, but is still short of its goal of $1,800.

Over 2,000 letters seeking financial aid to provide necessary equipment to qualify the ambulance to meet new state law requirements were mailed before Christmas.

About 100 persons have responded to the appeal.

Tax Collections Lag In County

Tax collections in Chowan County are off some 16 per cent over the same period last year, according to W. E. Bond, chairman, county commissioners.

Chairman Bond noted the decrease in collections Monday during the board's monthly meeting at the court house.

Sheriff Earl Goodwin, tax collector, submitted a report that showed during January a total collection toward the 1967 levy amount to $103,310.09. The levy is $484,178.63. Delinquent taxes collected, along with the penalties amounted to $3,704.61.

Pick-ups for the year 1951 through 1957 totaled $297.66.

Enough

BOOST FUNDS DRIVE—The current campaign for funds by Edenton-Chowan Rescue Squad has produced little more than half the $1,800 goal, but got a big boost recently with the contribution of a one-house solicitation by two youngsters. Mike and Henry McMullan, above, present donations collected at the home of their grandparents, the H. A. Campens, to Capt. James P. Ricks, Jr. Ricks said more such evidence of support of the squad's efforts is needed.
