

Chowan High News

By CHARLOTTE NIXON

Congratulations to Wanda Morris and Linda Gane, who won the senior division of the Chowan County Typing Contest Tuesday, March 12. The contest was in the typing room at Chowan High School. Students from John A. Holmes won the junior division of the contest. These students will participate in the district contest at Greenville in April.

That long-awaited moment for the seniors finally arrived last Wednesday, March 13. The annual edition of the yearbook, The Chowan Chief, was distributed to the student body. A dedication ceremony was held in the auditorium. Brenda Hollowell, associate editor, gave the first annuals to Mr. Stalls, principal, and Miss Catherine Aman, senior sponsor and sponsor of the annual. Wanda Morris, editor-in-chief of the '67-'68 Chowan Chief, gave the dedication speech and presented an annual both to Mrs. Loraine Rogerson and Everette White, vocational agriculture and home economics teachers, respectively. All faculty members and 25 members of the senior class were invited to a tea in the school cafeteria honoring Mrs. Rogerson and Mr. White.

In addition to annuals, report cards were also distributed Wednesday. The excitement of receiving annuals helped keep many faces from getting too long.

Chowan's baseball season was officially opened Tuesday. The Bulldogs played their first conference baseball games, a double-header with Cape Hatteras High School. The games were played in the Chowan ball park. Scores were not available at press time.

The Bulldogs will venture to Manteo tomorrow to play the Redskins.

The school paper will be distributed to the students tomorrow. The juniors are responsible for this issue of the Chowan.

A talent show, sponsored by the Chowan Beta Club members, will be held in the Chowan auditorium tomorrow night at 8 o'clock. An admission of 50 cents per student and 75 cents per adult will be charged. Prizes will be given for the best talent. Chances are being sold at one for 15 cents and two for 25 cents for a large stuffed bunny to be given away tomorrow night. The Beta members are hoping for a large crowd. Proceeds from the talent show will go to support the trip to Raleigh to the State Beta Club convention in April. Everyone come out and support the Betas!

Another Spring

By MURRELL SMITH

Down the path of a railroad track I heard above a whisper
Spring will be here soon, my dear.
I heard a tractor roar and a reindeer whistle.

Winter is here, my dear, the sparrows are begging again,
Yesterday I fed them but today they are back again.

Don't let your spirits down, my dear, for spring is only a trifle away.
All the birds will be back again when blossoms cover spring.

Soon spring will shed her petals and birds will sing again;
Snowflakes will soar out of sight on the wings of another spring.

Hot ashes in a glowing fire, franks roasting over an open fire, roasted beef in an oven.

Who cares if there's another spring? As for me, I like winter.

Temptation

Taxes eat up so large a part of the rich man's estate, when he dies that he is tempted to go on living just for spite.
