

Mr. Stark To Preach At Methodist Revival

A preaching mission and revival services will be conducted in Edenton Methodist Church next week, March 24-28, each evening at 7:30 o'clock. Rev. Rufus Stark, pastor of Home Memorial Methodist Church, Clayton, will deliver the sermons.

Mr. Stark is a native of Greenville and a graduate of Duke University and the Duke Divinity School with the B.D. degree in 1956. He is married to Betty Louise Siegle and they have four children.

An elder in the North Carolina Conference, he has served pastoral assignments in Leasburg, St. Paul's, Burlington, Swepsonville, in addition to his current pastorate in Clayton.

He is a member of the Methodist Board of Missions and chairman of the Conference Annual Mission Studies Institute. He is also a member of the board of trustees of the Methodist Home for Children in Raleigh. He is currently vice president of Clayton Community Improvement Council, Scoutmaster and member of the Lions Club.

The revival services will feature evening prayers, fellowship, singing, special music, come-and-go altar time as well as sermons on the general theme "The Secret In a Seed." A nursery will be provided for pre-school children each evening.

Other activities associated with this religious renewal program include neighborhood group meetings in residential areas for all Methodists during the week of March 18-22, a men's breakfast on Wednesday morning, March 27, and a Lenten luncheon on Tuesday, March 26. The public is cordially invited to share in these services and activities, according to the pastor, Rev. E. C. Shoaf.

Winfall Church Plans Revival

Revival services are scheduled to begin Monday, March 25, at Epworth Methodist Church in Winfall, according to Rev. Donald Budd, pastor.

The services will be held at 7:30 o'clock each day through Friday, with Rev. Edwin L. Earnhardt of Hookerton as guest evangelist.

Mr. Earnhardt, a minister for 15 years, is a son of Rev. D. E. Earnhardt, who retired after 41 years as a Methodist minister.

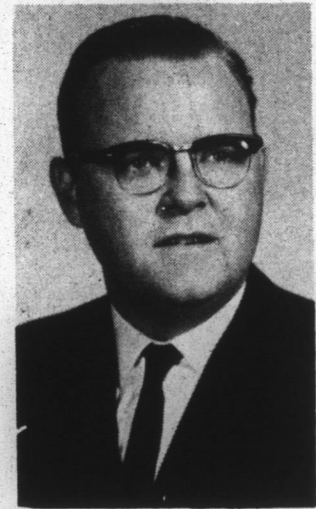

Mr. Earnhardt was admitted to the Eastern Conference in 1952 at Burlington. He was ordained a deacon in 1954 and an elder in 1957. This is his sixth year at Hookerton-Rainbow charge.

what do you think of a super market's own brands?

You know they cost less, but you don't think they're as good as the nationally famous brands?

Well, we can't speak for all super market brands, but we can tell you there is one that's as good as the nationally famous brands. Yes, that's right... the A&P Brand.

Prove it, you say.

All right, take our A&P Frozen Vegetables in Butter Sauce.

They're prepared only from Grade "A" vegetables, the best... you can't use better.

The butter sauce is made from 93 score butter.

And you can't buy a higher score butter.

Quality like this is typical of every product that bears the A&P Seal.

You see, A&P Brand products have everything the nationally famous brands have... except the higher price.

Since the A&P Brand can be bought only at A&P, shouldn't A&P be your store?
