Bob Scott
for Governor

WHAT ARE THE REAL ISSUES?

Read What Mr. Scott Clearly And Decisively Has Said All Over North Carolina

EDUCATION

Bob Scott is a past chairman of the United Forces for Education and has proposed teacher salary increases, more fringe benefits, and reduced teacher load. His mother and his wife are former school teachers. The five Scott Children attend Alamance County Public schools. Mr. Scott says "As Governor, I would urge our state to establish a school bus program for city and urban children comparable with the one we now have for our rural children." (Washington speech, April 10)

ROADS

Bob Scott's Daddy, the former Governor Kerr Scott, "got us out of the 'mud' ". Bob now wants to "get us out of the 'rut' ". More four-lane highways and more paved roads for farmers and re-surfacing present secondary roads that are in bad condition. Bob Scott says "for our state to progress, we must give major attention to our rural roads and primary highways. Forty seven percent of our rural roads are still unpaved." (Washington speech, April 10.) . Paragraph IV.

BROUGHTON'S ROAD RECORD IN ENC NOT A GOOD ONE

"But here in Eastern North Carolina his (Broughton's) reputation as a roadbuilder is not one that commends him too highly.

Of course, Broughton had very little to say about what went on in the highway department while he served as its chairman, since the shots were being called by Luther Hodges, just as Hodges now has dragged Broughton back into the spotlight of North Carolina politics.

But it is too shortly ago to forgive Broughton for his silence during those years when he was a silent partner to the rape of Eastern North Carolina and during which the single county of Forsythe got more money for roadbuilding than Columbus, New Hanover, Pender, Bladen, Sampson, Wayne, Duplin, Jones, Onslow, Carteret, Craven, Pamlico, Lenoir, Greene, Pitt, Beaufort, Martin, Washington, Hyde, Tyrrell, Dare Edgecombe, Bertie, Hertford, Gates, Chowan, Perquimans, Pasquotank, Camden, and Currituck counties COMBINED."

LAW & ORDER

Bob Scott says "as your governor, I will make it crystal clear that willful violations of our laws will not be tolerated, whether it be by individuals or groups, organized or unorganized, black or white, rich or poor. I shall make every effort to see that life and property, both public and private, are protected. We don't issue licenses to steal. We either condone the act of violence—the burning, lootings, sniping—or we do not. I do not now and I will not condone them as your governor." (Wash. speech, April 10).

TAXES

Bob Scott is against tax increases of any nature and believes that the State will have sufficient money under the present tax structure to operate on. He says "when we bring our teacher salaries up to national average, begin a public kindergarten program, provide industrial education and vocational programs in 7th and 8th grades to combat our 45% school dropout rate—that's progress." (Wash., N. C. speech, April 10). paragraph VI.

SHAKE UP TOP ECHELON OF THE HIGHWAY COMMISSION

This statement brought an immediate retaliation from the Honorable Joe Hunt, Chairman of the N. C. Highway commission. Mr. Hunt has consistently insulted the East with phrases like "you don't have the people; you don't have the traffic, and you don't have the industry for four-lane highways. This statement was made to an area road delegation from Elizabeth City, Hertford, and Edenton which went to Raleigh asking for consideration of U.S. 17. (Reported by Elizabeth City Daily Advance). Ask Mr. Hunt who he is supporting for governor! Further, ask Mr.

Broughton isn't Mr. Hunt supporting him. Under Mr. Broughton would it not be logical for Joe Hunt to continue as Chairman of the N. C. Highway Commission? And if that happened, wouldn't we be SET FOR ANOTHER FOUR YEARS OF NOTHING IN ROAD PROGRESS IN OUR AREA?

Mr. Scott says "for several years the highway department has been controlled and supervised in a cloak of scholarly secrecy—open only to a chosen few. The control over roads has been removed from the counties and the highway districts. It has been removed further from the people and placed somewhere behind the multitude of closed doors in the Highway building. The time has come for these doors to be opened and let some fresh air into the carpeted, paneled offices in the ivory tower of the Highway building. When we make our highway program a people's program and when we bring once again some common sense thinking into highway matters—that's progress." (Wash. speech, April 10) .

BOB SCOTT IS HIS OWN MAN

Bob Scott was not brought out by any individual or group of people. It was his, and only his, decision to run for Governor. Therefore, he will not be beholden to any group such as the top echelon of the Highway Commission or any other State agency. "He says there were no petitions or draft Bob Scott movements. No one came knocking on my door at Haw River urging me to run for governor. I'm running—

I'm running hard—Because I want to be governor of N. C. I want to bring new life and fresh enthusiasm to our state government." (Wash. speech, April 10)

Mr. Broughton says he stands on his record as a former Chairman of The N. C. Highway Commission. In all sincerity we ask "WHAT RECORD" — Mr. Broughton?
