Phillips, Bateman, Bond Are Winners

Coroner Barham Defeats Williford

By L. F. Amburn, Jr.

Two of three incumbent members of Chowan County Board of Commissioners went down in defeat Saturday in the Democratic Primary Election which saw a record number of voters go to the polls to cast their ballots.

Chairman W. E. Bond, who has served on the board for 14 years, survived the contest with Clarence Z. Shackelford, a political unknown. Bond won by 54 votes, gaining his margin of victory in the two Edenton precincts, in the race for commissioner from the First Township. The final vote was 1,168 for Bond and 1,114 for Shackelford.

David T. Bateman, seeking his first political office, ousted veteran commissioner C. J. Hollowell by 99 votes.

C. A. Phillips, veteran of several years on the Edenton Town Council, defeated incumbent commissioner Dallas L. Jethro and Cabell Pruden for the Fourth Township seat. The vote was: Phillips, 1,176; Jethro, 731; and Pruden, 368.

Another close race was for county coroner with incumbent Marvin S. Barham squeezing by H. B. Williford, Jr., 1,190 to 1,118.

The other contest on the local ticket was for the State House of Representatives, Seat No. One. Rep. W. T. (Bill) Culpepper, Jr., of Elizabeth City, in Chowan balloting with C. D. (Keppie) Ferrell, Sr. Culpepper received 1,688 votes while Ferrell was getting 449.

Upon until the final week there had been little discussion of the local races, with the state governor's nomination gaining the spotlight. However, a lot of excitement was generated around the Chowan County Court House Saturday night as the returns trickled in.

Shackelford led Bond by more than 100 votes in Yeopim, Center Hill, Wardville and Rocky Hook. Bond made a good showing in the Edenton boxes to capture a four-year term on the five-member board.

Hollowell was on the block vote ticket but Bateman rolled up such a lead in the rural boxes that the incumbent was unable to overcome it. The only two precincts Hollowell carried were in Edenton but the difference of the vote in these two boxes was not sufficient to close the gap.

Mrs. Pruden was on the block vote ballot but Phillips completely outdistanced both her and Jethro to gain a four-year term.

Incumbents with two more years to serve are J. Clarence Leary and C. M. Evans.

Bob Scott

Scott Is Winner

Lt. Gov. Bob Scott carried Chowan County and the State of North Carolina Saturday in his bid for the Democratic nomination for governor.

At 2:30 A. M., Sunday it was reported from 2,001 precincts out of 2,191 in the state, that Scott led Mel Broughton and Dr. R. W. Hawkins by a good margin. Shortly after midnight Broughton went on TV to state that he would have no announcement about the future until later Sunday.

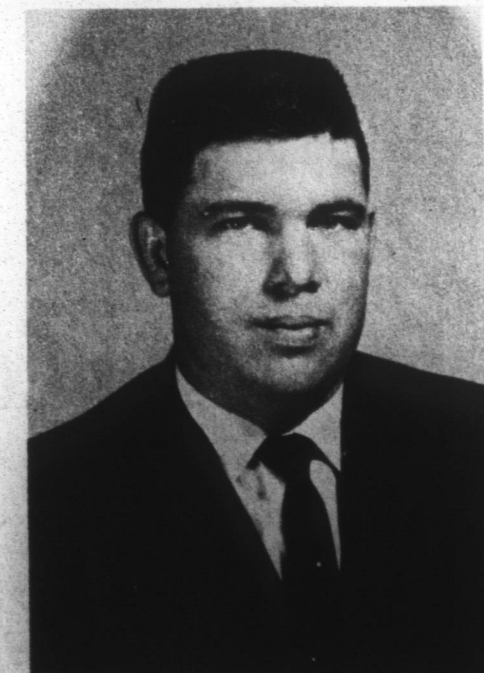

Scott had 295,187 votes in the state to Broughton's 201,585 and Hawkins' 106,272.

In Chowan County, Scott held a 2-1 margin over both Democratic contenders. The vote was 1,312 for Scott; 629 for Broughton and 473 for Dr. Hawkins. Scott led in every precinct in the county.

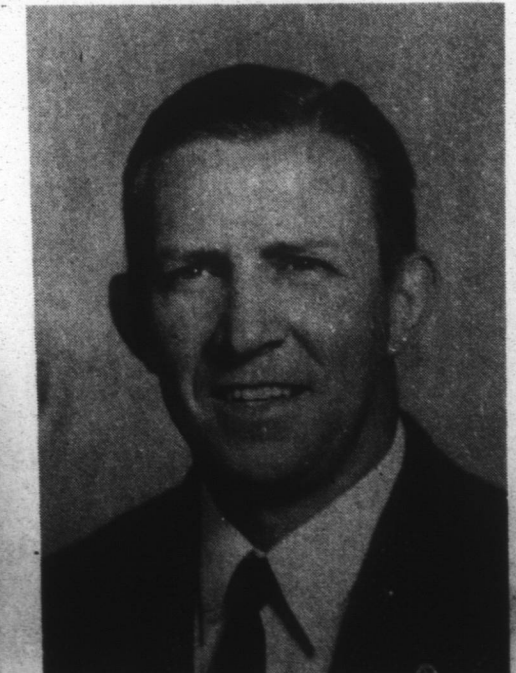

Chowan County went big for Robert Morgan in his bid for attorney generalship and H. Pat Taylor, Jr., in his race for lieutenant governor. In the second spot in the state, Taylor had 1,268; 677 for Mrs. James M. Harper, Jr., and 158 for Frank M. Matlock. Morgan polled 1,374 votes to 689 for incumbent Wade Bruton.
