A LIFT FOR TODAY

Mary stood without at the sepulchre weeping and seeth two angels in white sitting, the one at the head and the other at the feet, where the body of Jesus had lain.—John 20:11-12.

The Disciples found angels at the grave of Jesus whom they loved, and we should always find them, too, but that our eyes are too full of tears for seeing.—Beecher.

O God, give to all who mourn faith to look beyond the sadness of the grave, and sense the gladness of Eternal Life with Thee.

Story of Judge Morris

It is no longer unusual for women to be elected or appointed to the bench these days, but a story like the rise of Judge Naomi E.
Morris is rare indeed.

Judge Morris was appointed by Gov. Moore last year to serve on the new State Court of Appeals, but behind the appointment is a personal history of hard work, perseverance and ability that would do justice to Horatio Alger.

Judge Morris made her first acquaintance with the legal profession as a clerk in a Wilson law firm, and the story might have ended there except for her exceptional ability. Her talent and industry so impressed the partners in the law firm, which is known as one of the better ones in the east, that they saw to it that she attended law school at the University in Chapel Hill.

At school she ranked high in her class and was an associate editor of the Law Review. After graduation she became an associate member of the Wilson law firm, but her work was so impressive that within two years she was made a full partner.

With such a distinguished record it was only natural that Miss Morris was appointed by Gov.
Moore as one of the nine original judges on the Court of Appeals.
This year six of those judges, including Judge Morris, are seeking election, and we believe that her unusual ability will be as apparent to the people as it was to Gov. Moore. — Winston-Salem Journal.

Is Given Grant

The District Health Department in Elizabeth City has been given a federal grant of $34,863 to be used to improve health services to migrant agricultural workers and their families. The district department includes Pasquotank, Per-quimans, Camden and Chowan counties.

This was one of 20 migrant health projects, located in 12 states to receive Public Health Service Grants. The total grants exceed $798,000.

Projects will use these funds to provide medical and dental care, nursing and sanitation services, health education, and in-hospital care.

Grants are made to state or local public agencies and to non-profit private organizations, which are required to contribute part of the cost of the project.

EDENTON JAYCEES

Pete Dail, Jack Evans and Marvin Shaw, two-year directors; and Louis Craddock, Bobby Bunch, and Carlton Jackson, one-year directors.

Fifteen club members qualified for the Spark Plug Award. They were:

Marvin Shaw, Dr. A. F. Downum, Jr., and Frank Halsey, one year; Junius Britton, Jenkins, Albert Ward, Bob Weintraub and Bert Hughes, two years; John Jethro, Bill Bunch, Jack Evans and Frank Habit, three years; Wallace Evans, four years; Sam Cox, five years; and Pete Dail, six years.

In addition to Craddock, qualifying for the Spoke Award was Joe Hollowell.

Exhausted Rooster Certificates were presented to Charles B. Morgan, Clarence Shackelford, and Billy Ricks.

Halsey was recognized for having perfect attendance during the 1967-68 Jaycee year and the Ways and Means Committee was picked by Habit as Committee of the Year.

Well, it will be a little more convenient now for more people to get a toothache.
Two of our dentists, Dr. W. I. Hart and Dr.
Wallace S. Griffin have just returned to Edenton from their winter homes in Florida—Dr. Hart from Coral Gables and Dr.
Griffin from Fort Pierce. Doc Griffin told me he caught a lot of many kinds of fish, but this winter he spent a lot of his fishing time to adding improvements to his house. He's "sold" on Fort Pierce as a fishing paradise and urged me to try it sometime. As proof that he's been in Florida, he brought me a few grapefruit and oranges picked from his own trees.
Anyway, it's nice to have the two dentists back in our midst.

Though I've been down Nags Head and Manteo way many times, this past weekend was the first time I visited the Elizabethan Gardens. And here's one who was very much and delightfully surprised. My impression was that it was only a small garden with a few flowers—but was I mistaken! The area covers in the neighborhood of 10 acres and in walking through the place one sees countless flowers of many varieties as beautiful as can be seen anywhere. So, if anyone happens to be in that neighborhood, it is well worth the 50 cents admission charge—especially about this time of year.

Maybe a lot of wives of local Masons do not know it, but some of their husbands are stumped down good cooks. This was proven Thursday night when the Masonic Players of Norfolk came to Edenton to present their annual Masonic play. The local lodgemen, of course, had to serve the visitors supper—and so they did. The menu included chicken pot pie, snap beans, slaw, cake and coffee. Maybe the "boys" hadn't anything to do with the cakes, but the rest of the supper was as good as any of the wives could have made. And the meal was very much enjoyed by the visitors as well as local Masons—so much so that some of 'em went back for a second and even third helping.

Then some members of the Chowan Scottish Rite Club are not such bad cooks either. The club had a fried chicken dinner Friday night in the club house on North Granville Street, and while here's one who was out of town I was told that the meal was fit for a king.

And speaking about eating, the Scottish Rite Club plans to have another fish fry Friday, May 10, from 5 to 8 P. M. in front of their club house. The "boys" will fry the fish, so that a good meal will be on deck for a buck.

Then while on the subject of fish, the Methodist Men's Club will hold its final pickled herring breakfast of the season Saturday morning at the church. As usual, the men will be the cooks and waiters and, as in the past, anyone can eat all they want for a greenback.

Jack McMullan's comments when used occasionally in this column very seldom are questioned, but not so regarding his recent letter about the purple martins out his way. In his Ode to the Purple Martins, Jack said they are the only birds whose feet never touch the ground. But Sunk Bell disputes that claim. Mr. and Mrs. Bell, too, have purple martins at their home along the Windsor highway and Sunk says he saw some on the ground, though they didn't remain on terra firma very long. And to prove that he wasn't seeing things, he called his wife to get a glimpse of the birds on the ground. Well, martins don't visit our yard, so I'm keeping out of that bird argument.

A brief letter was received this week from J. Vernon White, who lives at Largo, Fla. "Tom," as I knew him when I first went to the old Edenton Daily News back in 1923, lives at Largo but in the summer manages a motel and Ocean View Trailer Park at Myrtle Beach, S. C. He's now at Myrtle Beach and says he'd be glad to have any Edentonians call to see him when in that neck of the woods. Of course, he wanted The Herald sent to him at Myrtle Beach instead of Largo. Incidentally, his place of business is at Second Avenue South and Highway 17.

Well, we've heard a lot from the candidates who are seeking office in the primary election which takes place on Saturday. I'm not telling anybody how to vote, but it's not only a privilege but a duty to go to the polls and cast your ballot for the person you think is best qualified to perform the duties of the office.
The important thing is to VOTE.

BIG VOTE EXPECTED

Incumbent State Treasurer Edwin Gill is opposed by Sneed High while Incumbent Attorney General Wade Bruton is being challenged by Robert Morgan.

Commissioner of Labor Frank Crane is opposed by John B. Wardell, Jr., and Incumbent Edwin S. Lanier finds opposition from John B. Whitley, George A. Belk and Fred Benton.

The five Democratic candidates for the school post are: Dr. Craig Phillips, Dr. Raymond A. Store, B. Everette Miller, William D. Harrill and Wendell W.
Smiley.

Two judges on the court of appeals—Raymond B. Mallard and Naomi E.
Morris—are opposed by Kidd Brewer and Walter C. Holton, respectively.

Sen. Sam J. Ervin, Jr., is opposed by John T. Gathings, Sr., Charles A. Pratt and Fred G. Brummitt.

Rep. Walter B. Jones of the First District has three opponents. They are:
L. C. Nixon, B. B. Felder and Clarence Gene Leggett.

While there is a Republican race for lieutenant governor, commissioner of insurance and U. S. Senator, the GOP governor's nomination has drawn the most fire. Rep. Jim Gardner and Jack Stickley are vying for this post on the November ballot.

Mayor On Panel

Mayor John A. Mitchener of Edenton was featured in a panel discussion on "Approaches to Planning in Rural Areas" at the 11th Annual N. C. Planning Conference in Chapel Hill recently. Appearing on the panel with the Mayor were James H. Wallace, vice president of The Herald (Ahoskie) and James R.
Hinkley, Director of the Coastal Area Office of the N. C. Division of Community Planning in Washington.

Mayor Mitchener stressed the importance of communications between planning bodies and county commissioners. He also emphasized the extreme value of rural planning on the regional level.
Many references in his presentation were made to the efforts of the Albemarle Area Development Association's planning work. Mayor Mitchener, a proponent of sound planning for the future, is presently chairman of the AADA Planning Commission.

Precinct Meetings

Democrats in Chowan County will hold precinct meetings May 11 for the purpose of electing delegates to the county convention.

Thomas Shepard, county chairman, said the county convention will be held at Chowan County Court House on May 25 with the state convention set in Raleigh on June 6.

Shepard said the precinct meetings will begin at 10:30 A. M., at the respective polling places in the county except at Center Hill where the meeting will be at E. R. Bunch's Store.

SCHOOL BOARD

of their choice for the 1968-69 school term. Supt. Bill Britt said it is impossible at this time to say what increase in integration the recent Freedom of Choice period brought about since some forms have not been returned.

Parents who did not return a form are presently being contacted by a representative of Britt's office to determine their choice of schools.

Edenton-Chowan Schools will participate in the Head Start program this summer. The local application has been approved for 120 students. The program will be operated in cooperation with the 10-county Economic Improvement Council.

Supt. Britt and his staff were authorized to plan future programs under ESEA.
Also, the schools will participate in the summer recreation program as in the past.

Approval was given the American Legion for use of Hicks Field.

Dr. Edward G. Bond presided at the meeting. The board will not meet Monday night due to the Varsity Club banquet honoring athletes.

The Public Parade

voted to accept the county's proposal to renovate space on the third floor for temporary quarters. Then the school board members went a step further.
They requested a $25,000 kitty each year for the next four years to build a separate school administration building.

The board is to be commended for finally burying the hatchet over the superintendent's space. They are also to be commended for their foresightedness in asking commissioners to put aside funds for future construction. However, these funds should not be earmarked for a school administration structure.

The Town of Edenton took advantage of a federal grant to construct not just a necessary building but a Municipal Building adequate for the town's future growth. These funds are still available and with a little downpayment, the commissioners could get a county office complex in keeping with the progressive community in which we live.

Therefore, it doesn't make sense to continue talk about separate quarters for every agency in the county. The first money the county puts up should be used for professional advice. That would be the best money the county could spend at this juncture. For until there is a goal to shoot at the county will continue to be operated on a month-to-month basis. This is, until the boom is lowered.

Indians Are Coming

The Indians are returning to Northeastern North Carolina next week in the form of Agatha Christie's three-act mystery.

"Ten Little Indians" will be presented by Edenton Little Theater in public performances Thursday and Saturday.
A new wrinkle in the dress rehearsal Tuesday afternoon for students at John A. Holmes High School.

Tickets are still available. Got yours?

GOING TO VIETNAM—Recently a Chowan County soldier serving in Vietnam wrote Mayor John A. Mitchener, Jr., requesting a North Carolina flag to display in the war zone. Mayor Mitchener spread the word and Haughton Ehringhaus, right, donated the flag shown here. Skinner White, center, of Sanitary Dry Cleaners cleaned the flag and Mayor Mitchener sent it on its way to Vietnam.

YDC Will Meet

The Chowan County Young Democratic Club will have a brief meeting at 5 P. M., today (Thursday) in the council room at Edenton Municipal Building.

L. F. Amburn, Jr., president, said the meeting is called to discuss forthcoming precinct meetings as well as future activities. Also, one new officer will be elected.

All young Democrats in Chowan County are invited to attend this important meeting.

Public Hearing Set

The Wildlife Resources Commission has scheduled a series of public hearings during May to give Tar Heel sportsmen a voice in setting the 1968-69 hunting regulations for nonmigratory game species.

Regulations for migratory game birds are set by the U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service after consultation with state wildlife officials in the four waterfowl flyways.

Between May 14 and May 24, meetings will be held in the nine districts.
The District One meeting will be held at Chowan County Court House at 7:30 P. M., on May 24.
