

Know Your Social Security

Of special interest to military men and women and their dependents is a provision in the new social security law which promises greater protection for them and their families.

Under the old law only a person's military base pay was counted toward social security benefits. Starting with January, 1968, an additional $100 will be counted for each month in which the person in the military service is receiving active duty pay. Since social security benefits are based on average earnings over a working career, you and your family may be able to receive higher benefits later because of the additional credits.

The Congress recognized that under the old law, the social security protection of a worker might be impaired during a period when he is in military service, because of the relatively low earnings covered under social security. This new provision seeks to take into account the value of payment in kind—such fringe benefits as food, housing and clothing and medical services which are in effect part of the serviceman's earnings.

These earnings credits will automatically be credited to your social security account, and you do not have to make any kind of application to receive them. They will not mean additional social security contributions from your paycheck, but will be attributed to the general funds of the Treasury.

What is poetry? Why, Sir, it is much easier to say what it is not. We all know what light is, but it is not easy to tell what it is.

—Samuel Johnson.

Safe Secret

"Please remember," said the irate female, "that I am a lady."
"Madam," replied her acid male escort, "your secret is safe with me."

Happiness means so many things, Of Life and Love and Early Spring Happiness is being a Mother, too, With vast rewards the whole year thru.

Sometimes we Mothers really don't appreciate ourselves until Mother's Day comes along. If we've been good Mothers, we go along doing all we can for our families without counting whether there's a very special award like Mother's Day. But then, on the other hand, even the best Mothers make mistakes, many of them, and I suppose that's the reason we Mothers try so hard to keep our children from making the same errors. Sometimes it's pretty hard being a Mother, too, because of the lack of communication between all members of her family. But if Mother stays strong in character and keeps faith, the rest of the family is bound to follow through.

Somehow, it makes me feel quite sad at the death of Mrs. "Governor" Wallace of Alabama. From all reports, she has put up such a gallant fight against cancer, putting on a brave front with cheerfulness and smiles, when I'm sure she must have often been in great pain. I often wondered why younger people must die, but then I read somewhere that perhaps it's because God doesn't want all old people in Heaven. He needs children and young people, too.

Last week someone brought me a large bouquet of lily of the valley, one of my very favorite flowers. One reason, I suppose, is because they remind me of home. I kept them as long as possible, but as it is with all flowers, they fade and even then I hate to throw them away. Then this week another very thoughtful and kind friend brought me a basket of fresh strawberries from her garden, along with two beautiful yellow rosebuds. I can't say which I enjoyed the most, as I just love strawberries and the roses are a delight to see. Thank God, I can enjoy all these nice gifts.

We are very sorry to hear of our friend, Frank Muth, being ill and undergoing surgery in the Charlotte Memorial Hospital. He was taken ill while visiting his daughter in Charlotte. Frank is such a happy, cheerful person, with many friends, who, I'm sure, will remember him in their prayers.

Please remember the food sale at the Episcopal Parish House this coming Friday, May 10. You will be doing yourself a favor by purchasing delicious food and you will also be contributing much to the success of Tommy Kehayes and his ministering to the people of St. Barnabas Mission at Minto, Alaska.

Don't forget, too, the fish fry at the Scottish Rite Club on Granville Street, Friday evening. As always, the fish will be cooked to perfection and you'll enjoy every bit of it.

I do appreciate each recipe given to me for this column. This week Betsy Jones gave me one of her very special recipes, which she says is delicious. I am anxious to try it, as it is something different from the usual everyday food. Thanks a lot Betsy.

Empanadas

Dough:
3 cups sifted flour.
1½ tsp. salt.
½ cup chilled butter.
½ cup chilled shortening.
5 tbsp. cold water.
Sift flour and salt in a bowl and cut in shortening and butter until it resembles coarse cornmeal. Add water and mix. Put dough in refrigerator for an hour. Roll dough very thin on lightly floured board. Cut with biscuit or cookie cutter. On each round put a little filling. Moisten edges of dough with water, fold over and flute edges. Brush tops with beaten egg. Bake in 425 oven about 10 or 12 minutes or until golden brown. Makes about 60 small empanadas.

Filling:
1 lb. ground beef or pork.
1 medium onion, chopped.
1 sweet pepper, chopped.
1 tbsp. capers.
10 stuffed olives, chopped.
1 bay leaf.
2 cloves garlic, chopped.
1 ripe tomato, peeled and chopped.
½ tsp. oregano.
1 hot pepper.
1 hard boiled egg.
1 sprig parsley.
4 tbsp. oil.
Put oil in frying pan and fry meat a little. Stirring with fork to break it up. Add rest of ingredients and simmer for a half hour. Salt to taste. If desired, all ingredients can be put into blender and mixed thoroughly before adding to the meat.

Kitchen Hints

Instead of dredging liver in the usual flour, use one of the dry soup mixes, such as onion or celery—very tasty.

To remove rust from an old cast-iron pan, dip a raw potato in a cleansing powder and then scour.

A tip for packing records: Try packing them between magazines when travelling or carrying them from place to place. It will keep them in perfect shape.

Rinse hair with cold water after washing and before setting. Leaves a beautiful sheen on hair (and a cold water shock).
