Miss Leary Married To Mr. Domb

The marriage of Miss Jo Ann Leary to William Edwin Domb took place Saturday at 5 o'clock in a candlelight setting at the Edenton Baptist Church. Rev. R. N. Carroll, pastor of the church, performed the double ring ceremony. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert West Leary. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Eugene Domb of Falls Creek, Pa. Wedding music was provided by Miss Shirley Renshaw of Columbia, Md., organist, and Clinton Thatch of Norfolk, Va., vocalist. Purcell's "Trumpet Voluntary" was used for the processional and Stanley's "Trumpet Voluntary" for the recessional. Vocal solos were Frank's "O Loving Father" and Flor Peeters' "Wedding Song" and "Lord's Prayer." The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a wedding gown of white silk organza with an empire bodice of re-embroidered Alencon lace, scalloped Sabrina neckline and short sleeves. The A-line skirt had a shaped Alencon lace border around the hemline. An illusion mantilla, scalloped all around and appliqued, completed the ensemble. The bride carried a cascade of pink sweetheart roses and stephanotis centered with phalaenopsis orchids. Miss Lynn Zeigler of Rochester, Minn., as maid of honor, wore a floor length gown of Fantastique fabric in Fiesta pink. The empire princess line was accented with petite bows in front and back, with a fully draped set-in panel on the back and carried a cascade of Better Times roses. The bridesmaids, dressed identically to Miss Zeigler, were Miss Nancy Davis of Kensington, Md., Miss Barbara Fetrow of Chillicothe, Ohio, Miss Ruth Peterka of Boston, Mass., Miss Peggy Schaffner of Falls Creek, Pa., Mrs. John Isenhower of Chapel Hill and Miss Jewell Small of Edenton, niece of the bride. Miss Mariam Elbualy of Miami, Fla., also niece of the bride, was flower girl. Brock Downard of Greenwich, Conn., was best man. Groomsmen were Robin Klar of Falls Creek, Pa., Anil Mody of Boston, Mass., David Mott of Washington, D. C., John Isenhower of Chapel Hill and Jake Boyce and Danny Long of Edenton. The mother of the bride wore a maize embroidered sheath of imported silk organza. She wore a white ostrich feathered chapeau with matching accessories and carried a corsage of green symplocarpus orchids. The bridegroom's mother chose a pale pink silk and lace ensemble with matching accessories and a corsage of white cymbidium orchids. Mr. and Mrs. Domb are graduates of Oberlin College, Oberlin, Ohio. Mrs. Domb attended graduate school at Boston University and Mr. Domb, Eastman School of Music, Rochester, N. Y.

F. J. Ward, Jr., Claims Bride In Hickory Rites

HICKORY — The Episcopal Church of Ascension here was the scene at 4 P. M. Saturday for the wedding of Miss Helen Jean Tillman to Frank Jefferson Ward, Jr. Miss Tillman is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James E. Tillman of Hickory and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Ward, Sr., Route 1, Edenton. Mrs. Ward is a 1967 graduate of the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill and will be employed next month in the Sanford City School system. Mr. Ward, also a graduate of UNC, received his degree in law in June. In Sanford he will be with the firm of Cameron, Harrington and Love. He was a member of Lambda Chi Alpha social fraternity and Delta Theta Phi legal fraternity. Rev. Richard W. Turkelson heard the double ring vows. The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore an ivory silk peau de soie A-line formal gown designed with a highrise bodice and scooped neckline extending to mid-shoulder in back and scalloped-lace trimmed short sleeves. Her headpiece was an ivory forward cluster of re-embroidered Alencon lace centered with pearls holding a tiered bouffant veil of imported silk illusion. She carried a bouquet of pompom chrysanthemums and white roses backed by baker fern and interspersed with bride's tulle. Following a wedding trip to the coast, Mr. and Mrs. Ward will reside in Sanford.

Miss Rosemary Tillman, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were: Miss Mary Lambeth Tillman of Wadesboro, the bride's cousin; Miss Heidi W. Gramsbach of New York City; Miss Earle S. Ruffin of Virginia Beach, Va., and Miss Donna K. Bell of Hickory. Acolytes were George M. and Lee R. Brandon, both of Hickory. Frank J. Ward was his son's best man. Groomsmen were: James E. Tillman, Jr., of Hickory, brother of the bride; Ralph W. Ward of Virginia Beach, Va., and David L. Ward, brothers of the bridegroom, and John J. Doyle of Knoxville, Tenn. Following the ceremony, the parents of the bride entertained at a reception in the Parish House of the Episcopal Church. Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Ward, Sr., entertained members of the wedding party and out-of-town guests at a formal rehearsal dinner Friday evening. Places were set for 35 guests. At 12 noon Saturday, Mr. and Mrs. Fred S. Tillman of Wadesboro, uncle and aunt of the bride, and Miss Mary Lambeth Tillman of Wadesboro, cousin of the bride, honored the couple at a wedding breakfast. Covers were laid for 40 guests. Following a wedding trip to the coast, Mr. and Mrs. Ward will reside in Sanford.
