

For And About Women

PAGE THREE THE CHOWAN HERALD, EDENTON SEPTEMBER 19, 1968

Nixon - Byrum Vows Exchanged

In a setting of candle-light, gladioli, chrysanthemums and pompoms, Miss Phyllis Louise Nixon became the bride of Jimmy Preston Byrum August 24 at the Woodville Baptist Church.

Rev. William S. Brown officiated during the double ring ceremony. Mrs. Tildon Whitehurst and Theodore Sawyer provided nuptial music.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David L. Nixon of Hertford. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. John Way-flower petals edged with seed pearls attached to bouffant illusion veil and carried a white Bible, topped with a white orchid and stephanotis.

Miss Irene Elliott of Hertford was maid of honor.

Bridesmaids were Miss Elaine Nixon of Hertford, sister of the bride, and Mrs. Harold Byrum of Hertford. Miss Paula Gibbs of Hampton, Va., was junior bridesmaid.

Mr. Byrum was his son's best man.

J. W. Byrum, Jr., of Winfall, Harold Byrum and Michael Byrum of Hertford, brothers of the bridegroom, and J. V. Godwin of Hertford were ushers.

Mrs. J. W. Byrum, Jr., and Mrs. Edward A. Sanders, sister of the bride, were co-mistresses of ceremony.

The mother of the bride chose an autumn rose embroidered knit dress, harmonizing accessories, and wore a white orchid corsage. The bridegroom's mother wore a knit dress of peacock blue, matching accessories and also a white orchid corsage.

A reception was held in the fellowship hall of the church immediately following the ceremony. After a wedding trip to the mountains of Virginia and North Carolina they are making their home in Windsor.

The bride attended Campbell College and is a November candidate for graduation from East Carolina University.

The bridegroom attended Chowan College and graduated from Durham Institute of Barbering.

Pre-Nuptial Parties
The bride was entertained at the home of Miss Deanie Boone Haskett by Miss Irene Elliott in Greenville. The after-rehearsal party was given by Mrs. Edward A. Sanders and Mrs. J. W. Byrum, Jr., at the home of the bride's parents.

Couple United In Home Ceremony
Mr. and Mrs. Donald Ray Thomas of Edenton announce the marriage of their daughter, Donna Rae, to Joseph Charles Davenport, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Clyde Davenport of Creswell.

The wedding took place Saturday at 4 P. M. at the home of the bride's parents. Rev. Russell Rice performed the ceremony.

The newlyweds will make their home in Creswell.

More Fires In Winter
NEW YORK—The winter months are the worst for fire losses, according to the Insurance Information Institute. Although other factors are involved, this is mainly the result of heating hazards.

Choral Society Holds Meetings
Albemarle Choral Society is now holding regular weekly sessions at the Parish House of St. Paul's Episcopal Church. The group meets at 7:45 P. M. on Mondays.

There were 21 at the first rehearsal of the new year and Dr. Clifford Bair, director, was much encouraged by this turnout.

Choral Society membership is open to people of high school age and over who like to sing. New members are invited to join the group.

MRS. RONALD LAFAYETTE ROUNTREE
Miss Skiles Marries Ronald L. Rountree

The marriage of Miss Susan Barrow Skiles to Ronald Lafayette Rountree was solemnized Saturday morning at 10 o'clock in Edenton Methodist Church with Rev. E. L. Earnhardt officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Kathleen B. Skiles and John S. Skiles of Elizabeth City. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Hallett L. Rountree.

Mrs. E. Taylor Brown, organist, and Miss Jacqueline Mooney, vocalist, provided the wedding music.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, John T. Skiles.

She wore a gown of white satin trimmed with Alencon lace, fashioned with short sleeves and a scooped neckline. The train also featured lace appliques. Her veil of silk illusion fell in full layered tiers from a white satin bow. She carried a bouquet of white French carnations trimmed with bakers fern which surrounded a white orchid lift-out.

The honor attendants were Jacquelin Mooney of Raleigh and Martha Leary of Edenton.

Terry L. Wheeler of Edenton served as best man. Groomsmen were Howard A. Collins and Clyde S. Adams, both of Edenton.

The mother of the bride wore a three-piece suit in ice blue trimmed with small pearls, with matching accessories and white cymbidium orchids. The bridegroom's mother wore a dress of rust embroidered "A" line design with matching accessories and yellow cymbidium orchids.

For a wedding trip, the bride changed into an orange knit dress with brown patent accessories.

The couple will reside in Rocky Mount, where the bridegroom is employed by Mitchell Engineering Company.

Pre-nuptial parties included a miscellaneous shower at the home of Mrs. C. Trotman Leary and her daughter, Martha. An after-rehearsal party was given Friday night by Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Daniels and Jacquelin Mooney at the Daniels' home.
