Although sunshine makes hearts happy,
And fills the world with cheer,
A gentle rain on a soft gray day
Would be quite welcome here.

Being the sun worshiper that I am, and oh, how I'm loving these beautiful sunny days, I am convinced that a rainy day would be welcome. Of course, some of my reasons for wanting a rainy day are purely selfish, as for instance — then I would stay inside and clean closets and drawers, etc., especially since we expect company from Pennsylvania during the next two weeks. And you know that most Yankees are meticulous housekeepers.

Have you met Miss Williford, the new librarian? She is definitely an asset to the library and the community. One definite improvement which I have noticed at the library since Miss Williford's been here is that she has filed the books alphabetically by authors, making it very easy to select a book by your favorite author. By the way, if you are not a regular visitor at the library, you've missed a lot, for reading is a wonderful pastime.

We've a Bible study class each Tuesday evening at the Edenton Methodist Church which we are enjoying quite a lot. In fact, it's more or less a discussion group with Mr. Earnhardt as our leader. It's so interesting that most of us will not miss the hour's session each week at 7:30—Tuesday nights. Our friends are invited and will be very welcome. Here's what seems like a good recipe:

Sugar Pecan Crisps
2/3 cup sugar.
1 egg.
1 tsp. vanilla.
1/4 tsp. salt.
1 1/4 cups plain flour.
1/2 cup finely chopped pecans.
Cream together butter and sugar until light. Beat in egg, vanilla and salt. Gradually stir in flour. Shape dough into two rolls, each about 1 1/2 inches in diameter. Roll each in 1/4 cup of pecans to coat outside. Wrap in wax paper and chill thoroughly. Bake in slices 1/4 inch thick in moderate oven on ungreased cookie sheet for 15 minutes. Makes 4 dozen cookies.

A Few Hints
A small amount of vinegar added to warm water will remove grease from kitchen floors and give them a bright shine.
Iron-on tape can be used to hem up trouser legs for a growing boy. It's easier to remove and replace the stitches.
To prevent clogging when running dates or raisins through a food chopper, add a few drops of lemon juice.
Too many individuals try to be smart instead of truthful.
