Attention Focused On BPW Club

Next week, October 20-26, is National BPW Week and is being observed by 3,800 local BPW Clubs throughout the country to salute the 24.8 million working women of America.

Edenton BPW Club, a most active organization in this community, is joining in this observance. The primary activity will be a prayer breakfast Sunday morning at Edenton Restaurant, honoring the outstanding business and professional women of Edenton.

Devotional speaker at the 8 o'clock event will be Rev. E. L. Earnhardt, pastor of Edenton Methodist Church. The local BPW members will later worship in a group at the church.

This will be the official kick-off for the nationwide celebration of National BPW Week.

The Edenton club held its first charter meeting October 28, 1948, with 60 members present. Of these 60 members there are now seven still active here. They are: Mrs. Beulah Boswell, Mrs. Bertha Bunch, Mary Lee Copeland, Mrs. Myrtle Cuthrell, Mrs. Ann Jenkins, Miss Mildred Munden and Mrs. Goldie Niblett.

Initiated in 1928, National BPW Week spotlights

the accomplishments and ever increasing contributions of women to the vitality and growth of the nation's economy.

Along this line, Gov. Dan K. Moore, in a salute to BPW in North Carolina, recently said:

"I am pleased to call attention of the citizens of North Carolina to the fact that working women constitute 26 million of the nation's working force, and are constantly striving to serve their communities, their states and their nation in civic and cultural programs. Major goals of BPW are to help create better conditions for business women through the study of social, educational, economic and political problems, to help them to be of greater service to their community and to further friendship with women throughout the world."

Four of the charter members of the Edenton club have expressed their thoughts on BPW work in the following articles:

Being a member of the Business and Professional Woman's Club has meant more to me than words can convey. The association with my fellow workers has enriched my life in many ways. Working and serving on committees for the betterment of our community has been most gratifying.

Mildred Munden. Being a charter member of the BPW Club has given me an opportunity to serve in promoting my community in some small way. I consider the BPW Club a form of adult education. It has been an outlet for me to meet with others who have mutual interests.

The BPW has, also, given me a sense of pride to become involved in projects which elevate standards for women in business, all professions, and in promoting the interests of business and professional women of our community.

Mrs. Myrtle Cuthrell. The Business and Professional Women's Club has brought about a spirit of cooperation with women who represent all classes of occupations and the association has promoted my interest in the businesses.

The club has given me a broader knowledge of state, local and foreign affairs. It is a good outlet from your own occupation.

Goldie Niblett. What I Enjoy Most About The BPW

There are, of course, many aspects of the Business and Professional Women's Club that I enjoy, but one reason is foremost in my mind. That reason is being part of something that you truly believe in and enjoying the people that you are associated with. There are many times in one's life when she must do or be a part of something that she feels she must do, but does not really enjoy. This is not true of my association with the BPW.

In my position it is extremely difficult to belong to a number of organizations and still successfully run my business, so I chose many years ago the club that I thought most suited my ideals. The BPW is an organization organized by and composed of women to carry on the fight for women's equality and most deserved position of respect in the business world dominated by men. In the many years that I have been a member of this organization I have seen the status of the professional woman undergo a tremendous change for the good. I'm sure that you will agree that this change has happened through the combined efforts of women such as ourselves. That is what I like most about our club, we're doing something about the world we live and work in.
