Voter Hints Are Listed

ELECTION DAY NOVEMBER 5th

As election day approaches, the State Board of Elections, along with all 100 County Boards of Elections, considers it appropriate to remind all voters in North Carolina that on November 5th they will have an opportunity to exercise their most important freedom in a democratic society. Free elections can exist only if the people participate in their election process. We urge all citizens to involve themselves on November 5th. The officials also solicit the cooperation of all voters in making election day a successful and efficient process.

The County Boards of Elections and the officials in all 2,198 precincts have spared no effort in preparing for this election day.

In the final preparation officials must receive the determined cooperation of all voters in order to avoid long lines, confusion or delay. The following steps can be of immeasurable assistance and will help to insure that our citizens will be able to vote without undue delay. The public is urged to follow these basic suggestions:

- (1) Decide before going to the polls the candidates for whom you wish to vote.
(2) Cut the sample ballot out of this newspaper, study and mark it for your own guidance. This will speed up the voting process.

- (3) Plan your day on November 5th to give first priority to voting. Make preparations similar to planning a trip. GO TO THE POLLS EARLY. Most employers will excuse personnel long enough to vote if arrangements are made in advance.

- (4) Refer to the sample ballot you have marked when you are in the privacy of the voting booth or machine.

- (5) By all means request assistance if needed from the officials in your precinct.

Voting day must be a 50/50 effort on the part of the electorate and election officials.
