Bomb Reports Tracked Down

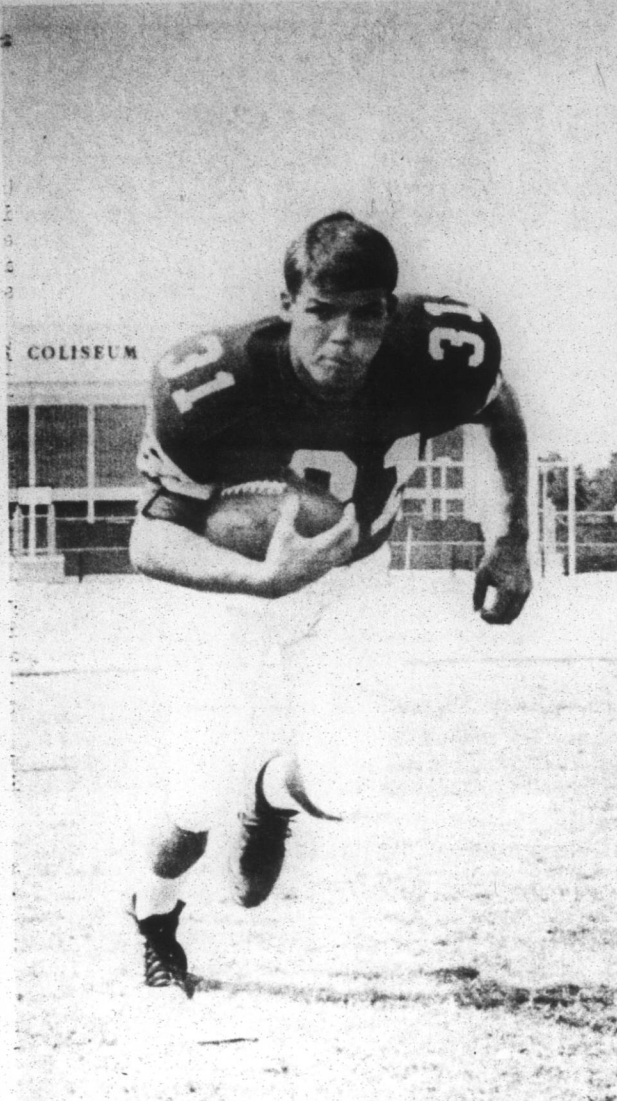

Two teen-agers have admitted the bomb threats made last week at Edenton and Bertie County schools, according to Police Chief J. D. Parrish.

Chief Parrish identified the youths as Ralph Boone McCrery, Route 2, Cole-rain and Joseph Scott Harrell, Jr., of Edenton. McCrery will be tried in Chowan County District Court and Harrell will be tried in Bertie County, Chief Parrish said.

The telephone call to John A. Holmes High School was allegedly made by McCrery at 1:05 P. M. Tuesday. The school was cleared and a search made for the reported bomb.

Chief Parrish said Harrell admitted making a call to Bertie County High School in Windsor on Monday.

The police chief said the teen-agers said they did not know the seriousness of the calls.

SEES PLENTY OF ACTION—Bill Wallace of Edenton, a 183-pound fullback, showed much potential this season with the East Carolina University freshman football team. Although not a starter, he saw a lot of action and will be bidding for a varsity position next year. He was an outstanding player at John A. Holmes High School.
