

Beatty Heading Seals Campaign

Jim Beatty of Charlotte takes the reins as head of the annual Easter Seal appeal in North Carolina for the second straight year as the drive gets underway March 1.

Beatty, an internationally known track star and member of the N. C. General Assembly, was presented a national service award by the National Easter Seal Society for his volunteer services for the handicapped last year. He was one of 10 nationally-known athletes cited for their help at the National Society's annual convention in Boston in November.

Beatty joins Carol Burnett, 1969 National Easter Seal campaign chairman, and Scott Kendall, a Wadesboro boy chosen this year's state Easter Seal Poster Child, in support of services to thousands of crippled children and adults throughout North Carolina and the country. This year's drive continues through Easter Sunday, April 6.

The North Carolina chairman was the first man in history to break the four-minute mile indoors. His many honors include the Sullivan Award as America's Amateur Athlete of the Year in 1962 and nomination the same year by the U. S. Jaycees as one of America's Ten Outstanding Young Men of the Year.

In accepting the chairmanship of the 1969 Easter Seal appeal, Beatty will again be working with Dr. Thomas B. Reid, Jr., of Jacksonville, president of the N. C. Easter Seal Society, and the thousands of volunteers in 50 local societies who will be helping in the appeal.

Course Offered At St. Paul's

A study of liturgy with emphasis on theological meaning will be conducted each Tuesday in Lent beginning February 25 at St. Paul's Episcopal Church. Adults are requested to bring sandwiches for lunch during the one-hour periods and beverages will be served.

The course to be led by Rev. George Holmes will be of interest to any churchmen. It will be dramatized and follow the development of the sacrament from the time of Christ to modern times. Men and women of the parish are encouraged to take the five-week course and all adults are cordially invited to participate.

The public is a ferocious beast; one either chain it up or flee from it.

—Voltaire.

STORK SHOWER

MERRY HILL — Mrs. Thomas Cowand and Mrs. Bill Cowand were joint hostesses at a floating miscellaneous stork shower on Tuesday evening, February 11, in honor of Mrs. Reba Cowand White of Edenton at the Midway Community Building. Cake, nuts, mints and punch were served. The honoree received many useful gifts. Decorations were pink and green.

People sure get some funny ideas

Like this one:

"The quickest way to lose a friend is to lend him money." Well, we've been lending money—lots of it—for quite a while now, and all that time we've been making friends. There must be a reason. It could be that to know us is to love us. But it's probably because our Personal Loans are quick and easy, convenient and confidential—as much as $600, up to 24 months. And our rates are low. And we're friendly.
