

Sunday School Lesson

Christ. We all desire the Eternal Life promised by the Son of God; forgiveness of our sinning. But sometimes the pressures of living are too great—life is too sophisticated.

We need to remember that God created the world; that He gave us so many things to be thankful for, that riches cannot buy—the senses of sight, of hearing, of movement, of emotion. We need to reduce ourselves to ESSENTIALS, and go on from there.

We will not—of necessity—be asked to give up our corporal life for Christ in this day and time (as were so many of the early Christians) but we MAY be asked to look outside our lives, to the world, and sacrifice some of those things that we hold most dear.

How will we respond? Will we—like the rich young man—go away sorrowing, but determined to hold fast to what we have—or will we gladly renounce the sum total of our accomplishments in answer to His call?

Weekly Summary

According to summer theater general manager and associate producer James Slaughter, 27 local residents Wednesday became charter members, installing Greenville physician Ed Clement as president.

Dr. Clement said the forthcoming summer theater season will be "the finest in its history," and described the booster's club as an organized effort "to secure the summer theater as the continuing yearly cultural highlight of this area."

Scheduled for production during "Summer Theater '69" are "The Pajama Game" (July 7-12), "The Pirates of Penzance" (July 14-19), "Bye Bye Birdie" (July 21-29), "Carousel" (August 1-9) and "A Funny Thing Happened on the Way to the Forum" (August 11-16).

Season tickets are now on sale at the summer theater box office at ECU. Membership in the booster's club is open to all interested theater patrons.

missioners were re-referred to committee for further study and possible evolution of a compromise measure. Two recently introduced local bills—one to allow Buncombe County to vote itself a one-cent sales tax, and another (proposed by Rep. Williamson of eastern Columbus County) to repeal the Mecklenburg local sales tax authorized in 1967—also seem likely to provoke controversy in committee if not on the floor.
