Window Dressing
 "Could I try on that red dress in the window?" asked the bright young thing.
 "There's no need to do that," the elderly shop assistant answered coldly, "we have several fitting rooms."

Yet, he noted, persons from all the troubled spots of the world seek citizenship in America "in order to live under the blessings and freedoms here."

Griffin said many racial, church and college leaders advocate mass civil disobedience and intentional violation of any law which a person dislikes and used the word "tragic" to describe rampant crime in the nation's capital.

"How long will it be before the black power leaders and other leaders of discontent discover that the real power in America comes through knowledge and skill acquired through education and experience; that achievement is better than destruction—that building is better than burning—that bread earned by the sweat of the brow is better than that stolen at the point of a gun?"

Griffin called maintenance of "law and order" one of the basic principles on which this country was founded with the rights of minorities and majorities equally respected.

He pointed the finger straight to the Communist as fanning the flames of disrespect and disorder in this country, declaring their main objective is to create confusion so that the leaders of Communism can step in and take over control of this country.

"Today . . . the Communists are taking full advantage of the turmoil in our country whether it be labor, racial or student unrest," he said. "Their leaders believe that Communism is destined to control the world and their timetable is up to date."

"Before it is too late in this country," Griffin warned, "we must stop the march of Communism. We must demand that students have respect for law and order on our college campuses. We must train our children from infancy through the public schools to have respect for our country and our flag. They should be thoroughly trained in the priceless value of citizenship in this country."

"Freedom came to us at the price of spilled blood," Griffin concluded, "and its retention can be had at no less price . . . the paying of which is our patriotic duty."

Participating in the program were Mrs. Beulah Boswell, BPW vice president; Walter Noneman and Mrs. Julia Hassell. An appropriate program of patriotic music presented by Alton Elmore, soloist, with Mrs. Elmore at the piano, was a feature of the banquet.

Total Loss

Vicar—Ah, Mrs. Thompkins, we never realize the value of anything until we've lost it.

Widow—No, sir, but I shan't realize anything—my 'usband wasn't insured.

State Truck Taxes

WASHINGTON — State highway use taxes paid by one large truck on the average are the same as taxes paid by 32 passenger autos.
