District BPW Posts Are Filled

Two members of Edenton BPW Club were installed as district officers Sunday and a talk was given on Historic Edenton at the district meeting held at Roanoke Rapids.

Mrs. Julia Hassell was installed as District 10 director for 1969-70, and Mrs. Ida Waff was elected secretary-treasurer. Miss Edna Snell presented an enjoyable talk on Historic Edenton.

In addition to Miss Snell, Mrs. Hassell and Mrs. Waff, Edenton club members attending the event included: Beulah Boswell, Clara Tolley, Beulah Perry, Catherine Aman, Beulah Privott, Anne Jenkins, Goldie Niblett, Myrtle Cuthrell, Marguerite Lassiter and Lena Leary.

PARTICIPATE IN ARBOR DAY—Members of the Garden of Eden Club's junior gardeners were joined by Mayor John A. Mitchener, Jr., and Rev. F. B. Drane for the planting of a tree in commemoration of Arbor Day. The tree was planted beside the Barker House on Edenton Bay.

BROAD STREET BULLETIN

I am in love with this wonderful world,
Each bird and flower and tree,
With Nature in all its beauty,
God's gift, Spring's ecstasy!

It's here! At last, it's really Spring! It's no wonder that so much real poetry has been written about Spring. It just makes one happy. If I could have one special wish come true, it would be that I could express what I feel about Springtime like many famous poets have written.

Right now the Bufflap homestead reeks with the smell of paint, as we're having the hall painted. Which will make me swear once again never to get in the painting mood—again.

If you want an afternoon of relaxing fishing, in a pretty setting, just go up to Bennett's Mill Pond, make yourself comfortable on the cement wall or on the banks of the stream, with a cane pole, a few worms or minnows and the warm sun shining through the trees. That's peace, 100 per cent!

Another thing about Spring. All over town there's much painting, additions and rejuvenations. Last weekend I noticed so many people working in their yards, replanting shrubbery, digging and planting flowers. I took my spring fever out in fishing, but with a more or less guilty conscience because the flower beds need weeding. However, just as soon as I come across a nice sized fishing worm—there I go again. Of course, right now all the creeks, streams and ditches around here are muddy, except for the mill pond, which does affect the fishing somewhat.

Put On A Pretty Face

By Aubrey McDonald

Dear Aubrey: I'd love to wear some of the exciting new eye shadows and highlighters, but I want to avoid the harsh look of too much, ill-chosen and improperly applied cosmetics. Can you suggest a natural-looking eye make-up?

R. H. Rockford, Ill.

Dear R. H.: Eye shadow or, for that matter, any eye make-up, should never over-power the eyes. Always keep in mind that eye shadow should softly suggest, not shout, its delicate color.

To achieve a natural-beauty look, I recommend Fashion Two Twenty's eye shadows which come in a wide spectrum of soft shades. If you prefer a brush-on, use our Mystic Shadow line to add depth and sparkle. Applying Mystic Shadow is effortless with the silky brush that nestles securely in a petite mirrored lilac compact. Using the brush, gently stroke Mystic Shadow directly under your brows. The brush allows you to apply Mystic Shadow so perfectly that it's impossible to apply too much. And Mystic Shadow's rich, smooth texture is ideal for the delicate tissues around your eyes.

One of the shimmering shades, called Platinum Mink, is a silvery creamy magic that may be used as a highlight or regular shadow, and will blend perfectly with any eye or costume color.

Use this technique for beautiful make-up and watch your eyes—and his—light up.

I'll be happy to answer your beauty questions. Just send them to me care Fashion Two Twenty, Box 195, Aurora, Ohio. 44202.
