Department Heads Join Chowan Hospital Staff

Kyle McCall of Elizabeth City and Frank Pearce of Goldsboro have recently joined the staff of Chowan Hospital as department heads, according to Thomas Surratt, administrator.

McCall is head of food service and supply and Pearce is chief in the lab. Surratt said he is pleased to have these two well qualified men become associated with the local medical facility.

McCall recently retired from the U. S. Coast Guard after serving for 21 years. At the time of his retirement he was chief commissary man at the Elizabeth City base. He is a graduate of the advanced commissary school in Newport, R. I.

Williams Joins Navy Exercise

USS WILTSIE at Sea—Seaman Apprentice Calvin M. Williams, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joel C. Williams, Jr., Route 2, Cape Colony, Edenton, N. C., participated in Operation Bell Jangle while serving aboard the destroyer USS Wiltzie.

The third major naval exercise off the coast of California this year, Bell Jangle is a First Fleet operation designed to emphasize the tactics needed in both Southeast Asian operations and Western Pacific deployments. Highlights of the eight-day exercise which ended March 20 included an amphibious landing at Camp Pendleton, Calif., and flight operations from the aircraft carrier USS Oriskany. Carrier aircraft conducted air-to-air missile exercises using drone planes and flew bomb strike missions in both the Chocolate Mountain and Twenty-nine Palms bombing ranges, Camp Pendleton.
