

START LIFE ANEW

By MARY LIZZIE LANE

Let me tell you, my wayward friend,
Recognize your God while you can;
We've been warned in this vicinity of mine
To turn to Jesus and leave Satan behind.

Sickness and death has occurred all around;
Old and young have been cut down,
Stop now and consider how it would be
If God would call for you and me.

Don't wait until you're sick and filled with pain;
We know our health we might not regain;
Walk close to the Lord while you're well and strong,
He's willing for you to lean on His arm.

Humble yourself, my Christian friend,
Not to be proud to speak to your fellowman;
You might say a word of encouragement today
To that lost person along the way.

We'll have to humble ourselves as a little child
And start to live a life that's worth while;
This life may be more rugged for some than for you,
So help them to start their life all anew.

Don't speak words that's not pleasing to God;
You have to give account of yourself after awhile,
You must start right at the foot of the cross
And then you'll make sure your soul is not lost.

What are you going to give in exchange for your soul?
Think about that before you grow old;
Do you ever stop to think what this life is all about,
Are you going through this world living in doubt?

Stop now, my friend, and consider along the way
How will it be with you at the Judgment Day;
If you want to go to Heaven and with Jesus stay,
You must start making preparations without delay.

Least Known S. S. Benefit

One of the least known social security benefits is the childhood disability benefit.

This is the same cash benefit paid for children under age 18 or students between 18 and 22. The major difference is that to be eligible, a child must have become disabled prior to age 18 and continued to be disabled and unable to engage in any substantial gainful work.

The child must also be eligible on an insured parent's record. The parent must be deceased or entitled to retirement or disability insurance benefits. Often the mother caring for the disabled child is also eligible for benefits.

Many workers nearing retirement age have disabled children but do not know that this benefit is available. Because of total family social security benefits payable it is often possible for a worker to retire or work part-time without a reduction in family income.

If you have a child with a severe disability and would like some information about childhood disability benefits, contact your Social Security office.
