Miss Sallie Dixon was among a group seeking state honors in a statewide music contest at Goldsboro, having won highest district honors. The Chowan High School Glee Club also entered the contest.

Edenton's entry in the Albemarle League was gradually being whipped into shape with Floyd Cayton as manager.

Dr. J. B. Pollock, an optometrist, opened offices in the Citizens Bank Building.

A fashion revue of brides of yesterday was presented in the Edenton High School auditorium. During this unique revue there were 32 models wearing wedding dresses dating from 1888 to 1939.

Mrs. C. E. Kramer and Miss Paulina Hassell were winners respectively in a question box and spelling bee held by the Edenton Parent-Teacher Association.

With warm weather prevailing, softball players became interested in resumption of a city softball league.

North Carolina and especially Edenton shared in publicity relating to the fishing sport in the May issue of Outdoor Life.

Though there was a scarcity of shad caught by most local commercial fishermen, H. C. Brickle the latter part of one week caught over 10,000, which surpassed the number he caught all of the previous year.

Henry E. Foxwell, 84, one of Chowan County's oldest citizens, died at his home in the Macedonia section.

Information reached Edenton that the Utilities Commission had granted a franchise to the Edenton-Mackeys Ferry Company, headed by W. A. Everett, to operate a bus line from Edenton to Suffolk.

Half a million young shad about an inch long were liberated by the local U. S. Fish Hatchery and about the same number were placed in the new rearing pond adjacent to the creek.

Marjorie Privott was the winner of the 4-H girls' cake baking contest.

Mrs. Jane C. Skinner died at her home on the corner of Queen and Court Streets. She was 82 years old and had been ill for a long time.

Eleven Edenton students, accompanied by C. D. Stewart, returned from a trip to Washington, D. C.

Miss Evelyn Hare, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Hare of the Greenhall section, was aroused shortly after midnight when someone entered her bedroom. When she screamed and her father arrived, the intruder ran to a front window and jumped off the roof.

20 YEARS AGO

Rep. J. H. McMullan appointed Geddes Potter as chairman of the Chowan County Board of Education, succeeding James E. Wood, who resigned due to business reasons.

Mrs. Leon Leary was elected president of Edenton Parent-Teacher Association, succeeding Mrs. L. A. Patterson.

Edenton and Chowan County's first Garden Club Tour was far more successful from every standpoint than the fondest hopes of members of the Junior Woman's Club, sponsor of the project, as well as many others in Edenton and Chowan County who were interested in the event.

Due to a wave of automobile stealing, Edenton police made an appeal to all motorists to remove the switch key when leaving their cars.

With a number of eastern counties concerned over the condition of the Chowan River bridge, in the neighborhood of 50 people met in Edenton to discuss the situation. It was learned by divers that the concrete piling had deteriorated and that some of the cement had been washed away.

Edenton police were authorized to have printed courtesy cards to be placed on cars of visitors for minor infractions of the traffic laws instead of a ticket requiring them to report at police headquarters.

At the request of the Varsity Club and the Jaycees, Town Council decided to cover the three tennis court with asphalt.

Pete Manning was elected manager of Chowan Tribe's softball team in preparation for a series of games with the Elizabeth City Red Men. Lonnie Harrell was named assistant manager.

Headed by W. J. Daniels, Great Sachem of North Carolina Red Men, members of Chowan Tribe were endeavoring to organize a Degree of Pochontas, women's branch of the order.

KATE

A cute little boy with an infectious grin, freckles on his face and eyes with mischief in. Then a fine young man, sent far across the sea, NOW . . . too soon A Memory.

I'm thinking so much about Kenny Eyer, son of our District Sanitarian and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. K. J. Eyer. Since I have known Kenny when he was a little boy, this sad event of his death in Vietnam brings home the horrors of this disastrous and (to me) unnecessary war in Vietnam. I'm sure that we all extend to the family our deepest sympathy.

The Bufflap family is almost back to normal, at least we're home and so very glad to be here. Given time and a full recovery, we'll be back to our old haunts again—the

I believe that the flowers this year are lovelier than ever, or maybe I appreciate them more. Our friends have given us roses, peonies and other beautiful flowers which do so much to lift one's morale at all times. Both of us really appreciate the thoughts of cards, food, flowers and help from our friends—it's so good to know and have so many friends.

I must stop now—I get tired too quick. Please, if you have any good recipes, send them along and it'll be good to hear from you.

NEW OPERATOR—E. J. Boyce, Jr., above this week opened Boyce Texaco on North Broad Street. The station was formerly owned by Bill Perry. Boyce has been working in Wheaton, Md., for the past 10 years. He is a native of Chowan County and said he is pleased to return to open his own business.
