Two Honored In Raleigh Rescue Seminar Set For June

Journalists and newspaper advisers were honored at "The Most Valuable Staffer Award" banquet in the Hotel Sir Walter last Thursday night in Raleigh.

Jo Ella Copeland, recipient of this award, and Mrs. Marvis Hendrix, Chowan advisor, attended.

Coastal Events Are Scheduled

VIRGINIA BEACH, Va. —From the "Unlocking of the Atlantic Ocean" in Atlantic City, New Jersey, to a Potato Festival in Elizabeth City, N. C., or a Sun Fun Festival in Myrtle Beach, S. C., there's activity galore along the scenic Ocean Hiway this Spring and Summer.

The new Spring and Summer Events folder, just printed by the Ocean Hiway Association lists nearly 200 happenings along the Atlantic Coastal Region.

A copy of the events folder and the popular Ocean Hiway strip map along with the new edition of the Motorists Guide to places to visit, hotel-motel accommodations, outstanding restaurants and other services, may be obtained free by writing the Ocean Hiway Association, P. O. Box 167, Virginia Beach, Va. 23458.

Each award was in the form of a plaque. Frank Daniels, Jr., general manager of The News & Observer, presented the award.

Claude Sitton, editorial director of The News & Observer Publishing Co., was the speaker for the evening.

Jim Whitfield, state editor of the newspaper, presided at the banquet. Also present were Frank Daniels, Sr., president and publisher of the News & Observer, Associate Editor Tom Inman; and Managing Editor Woodrow Price.

along the Chowan River including $12,000 worth of new twine, between 150,000 and 200,000 herring and a tractor load of salt. The fishery was the oldest in operation in Chowan County and was built during the 1800's and represented the efforts and investments of several generations.

Mrs. Sidney Campen announced that plans were under way for staging the second annual flower show sponsored by the Edenton Junior Woman's Club.

Thomas C. Byrum, Jr., was elected president of Edenton Junior Chamber of Commerce.

In an effort to relieve Edenton's housing shortage ground was broken and building material arrived at Albemarle Court for what was expected to be construction of 56 houses if the demand for living quarters in Edenton continued.

Another forward step in improving shipping facilities for local merchants and business people was effectuated with the opening in Edenton of a branch shipping terminal of the Thurston Motor Lines of Wilson.

Mrs. J. Frank White, Sr., had the misfortune to fall and break her leg at her home on West Eden Street.

John Cheshire Badham, 75, died at his home on Broad Street.

Mrs. Grady Morgan of Elizabeth City was named manager of the Betty Sheppe, succeeding Miss Sadie Day, who resigned due to her forthcoming marriage.

In an impressive ceremony in St. Ann's Catholic Church, Miss Adelaide Tuttle became the bride of Grady M. Chesson.

Rye On The Rocks

Once sterile mine tailings at the operations of the International Nickel Company of Canada, Limited are being successfully seeded with grain and grass as a result of years of research by the company's agricultural department—one of the few such departments in the mining industry.
