

BROAD STREET BULLETIN...

By Kate

If you really think you ought to diet, And don't quite have the pluck to try it, Just go on a shopping spree for clothes, You'll go back home with the "bulgy" woes. To think of the clothes that you can't wear Is punishment far too great to bear. So go on a diet and try to remember New fashions you'll be wearing come this September.

By this you'll know that I look is a reminder. How I've been shopping but, oh, ever, when we returned me, what a shock it is to find that it takes a larger size than it did even last spring. Now I can't decide which is more important right now—corn on the cob or a size 14.

I was delighted to be introduced this week to the Lloyd Burton family from Houston, Texas, who are visiting Mrs. Julia Burton and Miss Aurelia Layden. They are indeed a fine looking family, happy to be visiting here and seeing their former friends.

Seems as though most people who visit in Edenton like to try their fishing luck, as it was this week when Kathleen Ross's sister and grandchildren who are spending several days here. This morning I saw all of them on their way with excitement in their eyes and fishing poles in their hands. The Hector Luptons' grandsons from San Diego, Cal., who are visiting their grandparents, also went a fishing. Sure hope they all had better luck than the Bufflups the last few fishing trips.

Corrine Thorud has come up with a novel idea. She votes that we have a National Returning Day, when everyone either comes to collect dishes, borrowed books, etc., or that everyone tries to remember to return all such items begged, borrowed or stolen.

A Few Hints
When serving ice cream, chill the dishes first in freezing compartment and cream will not melt nearly as fast.
Peas, carrots and corn or beans get a flavor boost if a little light corn syrup is added during cooking.

ALL DRESSED UP AND NO PLACE TO THROW

by HENRY GIBSON

I was all dressed up in my new blue suit And I'd revved up Daddy's car on my first big date. Then I felt a tug at my elbow And knew that my darlin' had finished her fudgicle. I went to toss her stick out the limousine window When suddenly I noticed her staring in horror! Then I remembered my litter-bag. Dropped in the stick and started to smile. We had not cluttered up the landscape. We had just kept America Beautiful!
