We often use excuses,  Telling ourselves with a sigh

 We can use an alibi.Sometimes 1 Itink all of week and we really enjoy. or we are oo apt to blame course, tobing was on the mistakes. We, as parents, caught tish. Then Lance set this example and then fixed expect our children to appliances which didn't aave the trait of responsi- work and which didn't better to really is so much tained me, or I entertained "Alibi" is an empty, fo

Isn't this wonderful weather we're having? C I I decided to chean a cupights for sleeping, then boand, on account of Mr. ater the sun's warm rays most. When I was alaround us. We are so for- inings, and was on a stool nate in having the large cleaning a top shelf, Mr. ver, it pays to us. How- Mouse jumped out, ran pared for these emergen- and made a quick exit cies, so don't let us get to Naturally, I screamed and teeling too smug, it CAN did a jig, which turned out happen here! Trm sorry to After a while it was funny Trm sorry to hear that to me, too Later on we Miss Connie Williford, our caught the culprit in a trap. librarian, is leaving. She Next week this time we lady and so very helpful in will hear the chatter selecting books and getting will hear the chatter of all them on request if at all again and Im looking forpossible. Which reminds ward to it. You'd be surWitt Cooper of Richmond, to watch them going by Indiana, was quite impress- On the other hand, you'll ed by the library on a re- realize how old you are. high in the praises of Miss We were glad to see Miss Williford also, and I know Lena Jones back in town will be sorry to hear she is leaving.
diry ther dim glad to have Forgot to mention it be- her for a friend. She sent fore, but many thanks to Is Is Happiness" by Christine Mr. Cooper for remembering me with a birthday of my treasures. At the card. Buff's $\begin{aligned} & \text { end there's a quote by } \\ & \text { Lincoln: "Most of us are }\end{aligned}$ daughter Dorothy $\begin{aligned} & \text { spent } \mathrm{t} \\ & \text { several days with us lat minds to be." }\end{aligned}$ John Winborne en Biscuits, Southern StytCommissioned Perhaps some of you will FT. BENNING, Ga.- 2 cups enriched flour. John H. Winborne, 23, son 1 tsp. salt. of Mr. and Mrs. William 2 thsp. butter. $\begin{array}{ll}\text { H. Winborne, } & \text { Route } 1,1 / 2 \text { cup water. } \\ \text { Edenton, N. C., was com- } & \\ \text { Spoon flour into dry }\end{array}$ missioned an Army second measuring cup level. into dry Stir from the Infantry Officer Cut in butter until mixture Candidate School, Ft. Ben- resembles coarse crumbs. ing, July ${ }^{25}$. 23 Blend in water. Turn onto During the 23 -week lightly floured surface and course, he was trained in knead thoroughly one to leadership, tactics of small two minutes. Run dough infantry units and use of through food grinder until infantry weapons. He also elastic four or five times. received instructions in Roll out $1 / /$ inch thick. Cut map and aerial photograph out biscuits with a two reading, guerilla warfare cutter. Prick tops with and counter insurgency op- fork. Bake in 350 degree erations.

Yhe PARTYYINE F

Is it your turn to entertain 50.75 cocktails (five to six $3 / 4$ larmed at the small size of bon, Gin. Vodka, Scotch and | your house, how youlll serve hot |

| :--- |
| food to so many people and how | The magic words in your circumstances are: Buffet Sulp A littances are-planning. and youp you an "get the show on the road" joy the party as much as your problem of the pre-supper Hinks and how much supper liquor uy. In a recent survey by ex in most paspularealed cocktails are: ey Sourtin, Daiquiri. Martanarita, odka Martini. You can aritaid lot of strain, and he wre xied corktails. Marm of prype- Heub .

lin with full-strength

Fresh Chicken Breasts and Legs

Cwies b $\quad$ mpiciele

Shop the Friendliest Sto re In Town . . . S & H Green Stamps, of Course

