MRS. LARRY ALAN HANNIBAL

Miss Rogerson Weds

Edenton Baptist Church was the setting for the high noon wedding of Miss Helen Bernice Rogerson of Bethel to Larry Alan Hannibal of Raleigh on Saturday, August 30.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mack Gilbert Rogerson of Bethel, formerly of Edenton, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lester L. Hannibal of Greenville, S. C.

The bride was given in marriage by her father.

The wedding music was provided by Miss Cecelia Willoughby, organist, and Mrs. Robert Thomas, soloist.

The bride wore a formal gown of delustered satin. The bodice was covered with Viennese lace with a scalloped neckline accentuated by an array of seed pearls and crystals. The full length A line skirt was accentuated with lace appliques edged with seed pearls. The bell shaped sleeves were of Viennese lace with a scalloped edge accentuated with seed pearls and crystals, as was the detachable lace chapel train. The headpiece was of lace petals outlined with crystals and seed pearls with a veil of silk illusion. The bride carried a bouquet of white bride's roses, stephanotis centered with a white orchid backed with ivy leaves. The bride designed her dress and it was made by her mother.

Mrs. Harold Hudson Weaver of Raleigh was matron of honor. Miss Gail Cozzens of Edenton was maid of honor. The bridesmaids were Miss Sarah Jane Hutchins of Raleigh, Mrs. George Stiles Liven-good of Rocky Mount and Miss Nola Marie Rogerson of Williamston, cousin of the bride.

The honorary bridesmaids were Miss Mary Neal Sener, Mrs. Eddie Baker, both of Raeford and Miss Mollie Fitch of Charlottesville, Va.
