

BROAD STREET BULLETIN...

By Kate

Now is the time for sunshine,
When November skies are gray;
Just think of all the good things
That have come to you today.

Sometimes it takes an effort,
To turn away the gloom;
But if you try the sun will shine
And brighten up your room.

From one who has tasted the bitter and the sweet—I KNOW the sun will shine again.

"It rained and the wind was never weary" is a good description of this past weekend—a good two days to stay inside — to read, sleep or watch the never-ending football games, which most men enjoy and for most women — if you can't beat 'em, join 'em. Next time be happy that your man is HOME and go in the kitchen and bake a cake.

You know, it's sort of a disappointment for a tourist or a visitor to our town, especially to one who is interested in the history of the South and of which Edentonians are so proud, when they arrive here on a weekend and perhaps stay a day or two in order to visit historic sites, then to find out that Monday is an "off" day for tourists. From what I've been told, this has happened several times, when everyone concerned has been too busy to bother. Is there a remedy?

Looks like something's being started on the vacant lot on the corner of Church and Broad Streets. I've seen surveyors there and stakes with little red flags. I hear by the grapevine that we'll have a new bank building there.

To Mrs. Vivian Mooney of Raleigh: Thanks for being so patient and forgiving for my losing the recipe you so graciously gave me. Finally I found it and I'm sure that many of our ladies will use it, as it is delicious.

Crustless Coconut Pie
4 eggs.
1 1/2 cups sugar.
1/2 stick butter.
1/2 cup self-rising flour.
2 cups milk.
1 tbs. vanilla.
2 cans unsweetened coconut (3 1/2 oz.)
Beat eggs thoroughly, add sugar and melted butter. Blend well, add flour
