The Herald Kitchen

By MILDRED HUSKINS

This is the season of brilliant foliage, crisp weather, bountiful harvest and hearty appetites.

Through the ages, the baking of bread has always been associated with abundance and well-being.

Today, many modern homemakers still enjoy baking bread for family treats and special occasions and for the personal satisfaction of producing a warm, crusty, fragrant loaf rich in homemade flavor.

Fruits, nuts and pumpkins are especially appropriate seasonal fare. This recipe for Date Nut Pumpkin Bread was developed in the Borden Products Company kitchens and used these popular ingredients. We like to use those wonderful diced dates for our holiday goodies to cut down on the chopping chore. If you haven't tried them, please do.

By the way, the home economics say this bread freezes well so you can make a few loaves and tuck them away for another day.

Date Nut Pumpkin Bread
1 cup butter.
1½ cups sugar.
4 eggs.

2 cups canned pumpkin.
3 cups sifted flour.
1 teaspoon salt.
2 teaspoons baking powder.

½ teaspoon baking soda.
1 tablespoon cinnamon.
1 pkg. (8 oz.) dates cut up or diced.

1 cup raisins.
½ cup chopped pecans.
Cream butter and sugar.

Add eggs, one at a time, beating after each addition. Add canned pumpkin and mix well. Sift flour, salt, baking powder, baking soda and cinnamon together. Add to pumpkin mixture and beat well. Add dates, raisins and pecans; mix until well coated and dispersed through mixture. This can be baked in regular loaf pans, in one pound coffee cans, 13 ounce salted peanut cans. All containers should be buttered before batter is added. Fill containers three quarters full with batter. Bake at 375 degrees for 60 to 75 minutes or until bread tests done. Makes two loaves.

We're real muffin fans and would welcome them at any meal of the day. Piping hot, of course. If you have breakfast skippers in your family, arouse their jaded morning appetites with these tasty, fragrant Country Sausage Muffins. They are made in the modern manner to make it easy. Perk the coffee and pass the butter!

Country Sausage Muffins
½ lb. pork sausage.
1 cup self-rising flour.
1 cup self-rising corn meal.

1 jar (2 oz.) pimiento, chopped and drained.
1 cup (8 oz. carton) French onion dip.
½ cup milk.
2 tablespoons pan drippings.

Fry pork sausage until crisp; drain, reserving drippings. Stir together flour, corn meal, cooked sausage and pimiento. Combine onion dip, milk and pan drippings. Add liquid
