Church Setting Of Local Wedding

The First Presbyterian Church in Edenton was the setting Monday afternoon of a double ring ceremony uniting Miss Nguyen Thi Nhan and John Agrippa Mitchener, III.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Nguyen Thi Day and the late Pierre Latillier of Saigon, Republic of Vietnam. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. John A. Mitchener, Jr., of Edenton.

Rev. Warren G. Nance officiated. Chancel decorations included Gothic candleabra, white poinsettas and palms.

The wedding service featured organ music by Mrs. Taylor Brown.

The bride was given in marriage by M. A. Hughes of Edenton, a close friend of the bridegroom's family. Mrs. J. W. Pike, Sr., of Concord, grandmother of the bridegroom, represented the mother of the bride who could not attend.

The bride wore a formal gown of candlelight peau-de-soie and crepe. The empire bodice was crepe; the high oriental neckline was satin peau-de-soie. Long full sleeves were gathered into a wide satin cuff adorned with tiny covered bridal buttons. The A-line skirt was of matching peau-de-soie. A narrow satin band accentuated the high rise bodice where a tiny bow was attached in front. The headpiece featured a large double bow of candlelight satin peau-de-soie and an elbow-length veil of candlelight bridal illusion. The bride carried a white orchid bouquet with Stephanotis.

Mrs. Joseph Pike Mitchener of New Orleans attended the bride as matron of honor and only attendant.

Mrs. Carole Nance was mistress of ceremony.

Mrs. J. W. Pike, Sr., of Concord wore a dior-blue gown with silver brocade coat and cymbidium orchid corsage. Mrs. John A. Mitchener, Jr., wore a chanel-blue gown with gold sequin bodice. She, too, carried a cymbidium corsage.

The reception was held at St. Paul's Parish House, where decorations consisted of magnolia leaves, candlelight and white poinsettas.

The four-tiered wedding cake topped with bells was served by Mrs. Faye Bindeman. The punch was served by Mrs. Edith Cox and Mrs. Irene Patten.

For the wedding trip the bride changed to a white hand-knitted suit with brown accessories topped with an orchid from her corsage. The couple will reside at West Queen Street in Edenton.

The bride was educated at Marie Curie Lycee, Saigon. Subsequently she completed proficiency examinations from Cambridge and the University of Michigan. She taught French and English for eight years at Les Oiseaux and The London School, Saigon.

The bridegroom graduated from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill in 1963. In 1967 he completed the graduate B.D. degree from Yale University. Subsequently he served as a pharmacist with the U. S. Army.

A Sunday luncheon for the bridal couple was hosted by Mrs. R. Elton Forehand, Jr., and by Mr. and Mrs. Clarence E. Britton.

A Sunday evening cocktail-buffet was given by Dr. and Mrs. Roland H. Vaughan and by Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Wood, Jr.

The wedding luncheon Monday was provided by the bridegroom's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph William Pike, Jr., of Concord.

KEENEYE'S TIPS ON SHOOTING

Select the proper ammunition for the game to be hunted. Get the correct shot size for the game bird or water fowl, and the right bullet for that trophy.

A doctor arrived at a farmhouse to deliver a baby. He found the bedroom was dimly lighted and asked the farmer to hold the lamp. After the third baby arrived, the farmer took off. "Hey, come back with that lamp," shouted the doctor. "Nothing doing," replied the farmer, "it's the light that's attracting them."

Larry Smith of the University of North Carolina at Raleigh, is home for the Christmas holidays. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Adrain Smith.
