1970 Feed Grain Program
The 1970 feed grain program will be basically the same program as in 1969. The major change is that there will not be any advance payments, which means that participants will get all of the payment next fall, both the diversion and price support. The rates will be approximately the same as in 1969.

Other provisions are: The minimum diversion for participation is 20 per cent of the base, the maximum diversion is 50 per cent of the base for farms above 25 acres. Farms with 25 acres or less may divert the entire base. There will be no payment for the first 20 per cent diversion for farms above 25 acres, however, farms with bases of 25 acres or less will receive payment for the first 20 per cent diversion, plus a higher rate for the remaining acreage. The sign-up period for this program will be February 2 through March 20. Notices of bases, yields and payment rates will be mailed within a few days.

1970 Cotton Program
Features of the 1970 cotton program are similar to the 1969 program. The following are the major provisions of the 1970 cotton program:

1. Price support loans will be available to cooperators at 20.25 cents per pound for one-inch middling cotton at average location.
  2. The price support payment rate has been established at 16.8 cents per pound. This payment is made to co-operators on acreage planted within the domestic allotment. The domestic allotment is 65 percent of the total farm allotment.
  3. Small farms, or those farms with allotments of 10 acres or less, may plant the entire allotment, and in addition to the price support payment, receive payment of 11.95 cents per pound on 35 per cent of their allotment. This small farm payment can be earned even though no cotton is planted.
- The 1970 yields and allotments have already been mailed to cotton producers. The sign up will begin February 2 and go through March 20, 1970.

Litterbugs Pay High Price In '68

At least 991 litterbugs in North Carolina found someone was watching in 1968.

All of the arrests were made by highway patrolmen, according to Lt. D. R. Emory of the North Carolina Motor Vehicles Department. He said no figures were available on the number of convictions.

A corresponding number of violators were arrested this year. Figures for the first six months shows that 533 litterers received citations, Lt. Emory said.

He pointed out that 57 per cent of the arrests were made in 24 counties, or roughly one-fourth of the total number of counties in the state.

The tally by counties was: Edgecombe County ran second with 44 arrests. Shakespearean Play Scheduled

"Your Own Thing," the prize-winning musical coming to the Center Theater in Norfolk, Va., on January 23 and 24, is the seventh stage success of the last 25 years to be adapted from a Shakespearean play—but only the second one to be published in a double-version book permitting readers to compare the original and the adapted versions in one volume.

The first instance was in 1958 when the book and lyrics of "West Side Story" were published in one volume with the original play on which it was based, Shakespeare's "Romeo and Juliet." Now, in the fall of 1969, the book and lyrics of "Your Own Thing" are being published by Dell Publishing Company in one volume with Shakespeare's "Twelfth Night," from which it was adapted by Donald Driver, with songs by Hal Hester and Danny Apolinar.

This double-publishing bit did not occur in the case of "The Boys From Syracuse" (which came from "The Comedy of Errors"), "Kiss Me, Kate" (which came from "The Taming of the Shrew"), nor from such non-musical adaptations as Ustinov's "Romanoff and Juliet," Barbara Garson's "McBird" or Tom Stoppard's "Rosencrantz and Guildenstern Are Dead" (which came from "Hamlet").

The Center Theater box office will be opened from 10 A. M. to 6 P. M. daily beginning Monday, January 19 or tickets may be ordered from Center Theater, 9th and Granby Streets, Norfolk, Va. 23510.
