

JUST ANOTHER MEMORY

By MARY LIZZIE LANE

When I put my pen down on paper tonight I haven't got the slightest idea what I'm going to write. I can remember way back years ago, When little children didn't seem to bother so.

But now there's so much work to be done, And so many things we try to shun, Everything must be kept just right; We hardly have time to pray at night

Have you ever stopped to think how sad it would be If there were no little children to love you and me? You have to undress them and put them to bed, But after they're grown you'll remember what they said.

They'll hold to your hand until they fall asleep, It gives them a thrill from their head to their feet. They feel so secure when you hold them in your arms, And you'll remember their little faces with all of their charms.

Children and flowers the pleasure they bring, It's just as much pleasure as when the wedding bells ring. They make the home gay and keep it bright, They're right there with you from morning until night.

But when they grow up they'll be gone, Then it won't be the same any more at home. Their rooms will be there vacant and cold, Just another sad memory as we watch and grow cold.

But it's got to be understood they've got to leave home And start out in this world on their very own. They've got to build homes similar to a bird, And bring up a family of little boys and girls.

Let's remember the little children and help them along, Jesus loves them and to Him they all belong. Try to bring them up in the way they should go, And when they've grown older then they will know.

1040 U.S. Individual Taxpayers Ask IRS

This column of questions and answers on federal tax matters is provided by the local office of the U.S. Internal Revenue Service and is published as a public service to taxpayers. The column answers questions most frequently asked by taxpayers.

Q) I'm a full-time college student and think I will get a tax refund, if I don't have to count a $750 scholarship as income. Is it income?

A) Scholarships are generally not taxable and do not have to be reported for tax purposes. Since there are many different types of scholarships, you will want to check with the organization that gave you the scholarship to see if they have information on its tax status.

Q) Why did IRS drop the short form 1040A?

A) One important reason was to make it easier for taxpayers to claim all the credits, deductions and exclusions they were entitled to under the tax laws. In recent years more and more taxpayers have found it to their advantage to itemize deductions as their income increased.

The new Form 1040 is one basic page and actually calls for just about the same information that had to be entered on the front and back of the old card form. Over 30 million returns will need just the one-page Form 1040 to be complete, while another 22 million will have to attach only one additional schedule.

Copies of the schedules taxpayers will most likely need were included in the tax package mailed to some 75 million taxpayers.

Q) I got married in December. Can my wife and I file a joint return for 1969?

A) Yes, if you are married on the last day of your tax year, you can file a joint return. Your wife then cannot be claimed as a dependent on the return of another taxpayer.

Q) Does the new tax form make any difference in the way a farmer handles his credit for sps used on the farm?

A) No, the gas tax credit should be claimed as it has in the past by attaching Form 4136. The amount of credit claimed should be entered on line 21 of Form 1040.

Q) What is the surcharge rate for 1969 and how do you figure it?

A) The income tax surcharge is 10 percent for 1969. Tax surcharge tables are included in the tax packages and can be found on page T-1. These tables show the amount of surcharge based on the amount of tax liability and your filing status.

Remember that Schedule T, the tax computation schedule, will be just a worksheet for most taxpayers and need not be sent in with the Form 1040. Only if the taxpayer claims a special credit such as retirement income, investment or foreign tax, or has to pay self-employment tax, should Schedule T be sent in with the return.

Q) I rent out some land to a farmer nearby. Do I include the rents I receive as farm or rental income?

A) Enter the rents you receive from your land on Schedule E, as rental income, and attach it to your Form 1040 when you file. Unless there is material participation in the business of farming, the rents you receive are not considered farm income.

Q) Are there any tax benefits for those 65 and over? I'll be able to file that way this year.

A) Yes, there are several benefits for those 65 years of age and over. For example, there is an extra $600 exemption for age, and special provisions covering the sale of a personal residence.

These are explained in Publication 554, Tax Benefits for Older Americans. Send a post card to your District Director for a free copy.
