 Addie Lee Meador spoke on "A Comparison of Our Value Pattern With Those of Other Countries — Southeast Asia," giving a geographical, industrial, religious and cultural background of Asia. Since World War II so many of these small undeveloped countries have learned of the changes taking place in the world today. How to make a comparison of our values is the great question. The values each hold have grown out of the conditions of our societies. With modern mode of travel and communications our values will mingle and from this will grow the values of the world.
