VALENTINE SWEETS — Tender butter-flavored-coconut squares are perfect for a teatime or coffeetime party. For Valentine's Day you might send a ribbon-wrapped packet of cookies to the shut-in down the way or to repay a favor.

The Herald Kitchen

By MILDRED HUSKINS

Every family has a few guardian angels that deserve to be thanked on Valentine's Day.

How about that next door neighbor who takes in the mail when you're out of town? Or the friend who can always add your youngsters to her family when you have to run an errand?

Invite them to an afternoon tea. Make it a special occasion by having a single flower corsage or nosegay for each guest. You might rather send these neighbors or the shut-in down the way a small ribbon-wrapped packet of teatime cookies.

Coconut Dream Squares are bar cookies with the rich blend of butter and coconut flavors. They use Baker's Cookie Coconut, a form of coconut developed especially for cakes and cookies. The angel flake variety will work just fine, though.

Fit for angels also are Ambrosia Bars. They are moist, chewy, and rich baked in a jelly roll pan.

Coconut Dream Squares
1 cup sifted flour.
¼ cup firmly packed brown sugar.
1/3 cup soft butter.
1 cup firmly packed brown sugar.
2 eggs.
½ cup sifted flour.
½ teaspoon baking powder.
1 teaspoon vanilla.
1 cup cookie coconut or one and one-third cup flaked coconut.
1 cup chopped nuts.
Combine one cup flour and one-fourth cup brown sugar. Add butter and mix until thoroughly blended. Press firmly into an ungreased nine-inch square pan and bake at 350 degrees for 15 minutes. Meanwhile, beat coconut and nuts. Spread in a greased jelly roll pan. Bake cup brown sugar gradually, at 350 degrees for about 25 minutes or until top is firm and begins to brown. Cool in pan. Cut into bars. Makes about 42 bars. These cookies store well in tightly covered container.

Every once in a while a new and outstanding cake recipe comes along and it makes the rounds. When it is quick and easy it moves about much more rapidly. Just such a cake is Dream Cake. It is based on a package each of Dream Whip Whipped Topping Mix and a two-layer size cake mix. We haven't made the Dream Cake yet, but it is scheduled for the kitchen soon.

If you don't already have the recipe, here it is. While the basic recipe calls for a 10-inch tube pan, the batter is said to bake up nicely in Bundt pans, layer pans, jelly roll pans and even as cupcakes. And, of course, any of your favorite cake mix flavors can be used.

Dream Cake
1 pkg. (two-layer size) yellow, white or devil's food cake mix.
1 envelope Dream Whip Whipped Topping Mix.

Ambrosia Bars
2 cups unsifted flour.
1 teaspoon baking powder.
1 teaspoon salt.
3 eggs.
1 cup sugar.
1 cup firmly packed brown sugar.
¼ cup butter, melted.
2 teaspoons vinegar.
1 teaspoon grated orange rind.
1 teaspoon vanilla.
1 1/3 cups flaked coconut.
½ cup chopped nuts.
Combine flour, baking powder and salt. Beat eggs until very thick and light in color. Add sugars gradually, beating constantly until thoroughly blended—takes about 10 minutes. Blend in butter, vinegar, rind, and vanilla. Stir in flour mixture. Mix in 5 minutes.

Buy Insurance

(Special to The Herald)

NEW YORK—Most Chowan County families are comparatively well-protected these days against the financial hazards of daily living.

They have unemployment insurance, health insurance, car insurance and household insurance as well as burglary, fire and life insurance, to mention the principal ones.

On the long range side are such other safeguards as social security and private pension plans.

Of particular note, however, is the extent to which they have been adding to their life insurance holdings in recent years. Rising incomes have made it possible for them to do so.

As a result, ownership of life insurance has reached an all-time high in Chowan County. The total amount in force in the area is now approximately $43,434,000.

The basic statistics for the country as a whole and for each state are from the current Life Insurance Fact Book.

Putting their money into this form of family security is but one of the steps that people have been taking to protect themselves. They have also been putting money away into savings and investments of various kinds.

The bulwark that Americans have set up in the form of life insurance has reached $1.3 trillion (yes, trillion).

Of this total, according to the life insurance statistics, some $26,390,000,000 is in force in the state of North Carolina. It compares with $9,965,000,000 in 1960.

As for the average family in the state, the amount of insurance carried is equivalent to its net earnings, after taxes, over a period of 27.2 months.

In Chowan County, based on this yardstick and on the level of earnings locally per family, life insurance in the area now averages $14,100 per family.

Ten years ago, by way of comparison, their coverage was only about half that much.

Although ordinary life insurance continues to be the principal type held by most people, there has been a rapid rise in group insurance, which is usually job-connected insurance.

Not included in the figures is the substantial amount of insurance issued to veterans through the federal government.

One of the miracles of this civilization is how the young people manage to survive the advice of the preceding generation.

Isn't it funny how some women spend so much time on beauty treatments?
